

THE JONES COUNTY JOURNAL

NUMBER 26 TRENTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1962 VOLUME XIV

Home Clubbers Hold Achievement Night; Oak Grove Top Winner

Wednesday night the annual Achievement Night program of Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs was held in Jones Central High School cafeteria and Oak Grove was named Club-of-the-Year.

Mrs. Nelson Banks was named Woman-of-the-Year and Mrs. Thomas Hood Jr. was named Leader-of-the-Year.

Oak Grove was the club winning the most awards in the annual Jones County Fair.

Maysville Club won first place for its educational exhibit in the fair.

Chinquapin took 2nd place honors for education exhibits.

Dogwood Club was 3rd place winner in this category.

There was a 3-way tie for adult individual honors with Mrs. Thomas Hood Jr., Mrs. Milton Arthur and Mrs. John Mark Pollock each having the same number of prize-winning awards.

Reading certificates were awarded to Mrs. Preston Banks and Mrs. A. G. Byrd.

The County Fair awards were made by Leon Green, Commander of the American Legion Post and presentation of the other awards was by Home Agent Mrs. Faytie Gray.

Mrs. Dewey Jenkins installed officers of the county council for the coming year. They are: President Mrs. W. W. Lowery, Vice-President Mrs. Thomas Humphrey, Secretary Mrs. R. E. Cox and Treasurer Mrs. S. D. Mallard.

The dinner arrangements were supervised by the Oak Grove, Mallardtown, and Beaver Creek Clubs, Hospitality was taken care of by the Maple Grove and Piney Grove clubs, The Clean-up detail fell to, Chinquapin, Friendly, Dogwood and Tuckahoe clubs. Decorations were by Wyse Fork, Comfort and Pleasant Hill clubs and the program was arranged by Maysville and Lee's Chapel clubs.

Waitresses for the supper were member of the Jones County 4-H Clubs.

Two Charged With Theft of Corn from Thurman DeBruhl

During the past week two young negroes have been charged with stealing four barrels of corn from the barn of Thurman DeBruhl between Trenton and Wyse Fork.

The accused are Charles Odell Dixon of Trenton and Willie J. Richmond of Kinston. Each is free under bond, pending his trial at the next term of Jones County Superior Court.

The only other indictment reported in the past week in Jones County was that of Harold L. Hurst of Swansboro who was charged with operating a car with improper brakes.

Onslow Car-Train Crash Kills Three; Injures Kinstonians

A car-train crash Tuesday afternoon east of Jacksonville killed three members of the same family and injured a Kinston mother and her son.

The dead were Harry Edgerly Whaley, 61, his son Ronald Dean, 23, and his daughter, Velma Grace, 20, all of Jacksonville route 1.

The injured were Mrs. Inez Sydes, another daughter of Whaley, and Mrs. Sydes' small son, Carl.

The tragedy happened on a crossing of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad on the "Pumpkin Center Road" seven miles east of Jacksonville.

The three who were killed were all riding in the front seat of the car, and the injured were in the back seat.

THURSDAY ACCIDENT

A city-owned truck driven by George Jacobs of 105 East Grainger and the car of William Clemons of Jacksonville, Fla. collided last Thursday morning at the corner of Lenoir and McLewean with damage estimate at $800 to the car and $100 to the truck.

Trenton Clubwomen Hear Dan Wise Speak On Kinston Center

The Trenton Woman's Club held its monthly meeting Thursday night at the Club House.

Mrs. Fred Foscoe, president, presided over the meeting. Mrs. John Hughes Pollock, secretary, read the minutes. Mrs. Darris Koonce, gave the Treasurer's report.

Mrs. D. L. Nance presented the guest speaker, Dan Wise, of Kinston.

Wise gave an interesting talk on the Industrial Education Center in Kinston.

Mrs. Nimrod Carroll was chosen as a contestant to represent the Woman's Club in the Mrs. Jones County Contest.

Refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned until December.

Maysville PTA Sees Program by 6 Grade On Thanksgiving Day

An interesting program on Thanksgiving and how it came to be a national holiday was presented by Mrs. Dickie Richardson's sixth grade at the Monday night meeting of the Maysville PTA. Mrs. Harold Brown presided.

The program was preceded by reading of the 100th Psalm after which the group repeated the Lords Prayer.

Committee reports were submitted during the business portion and it was announced that the proceeds from the fall festival totaled over $400.00. Jere W. Pelletier announced that he had received more than $100.00 in donations, which are to be applied to the playground project.

Following adjournment, grade representatives from the 6th grade served soft drinks and cookies.

Friendship Supper

The annual turkey supper of Friendship Free Will Baptist Church will be held beginning at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. For those who don't like turkey there will also be a barbecue supper available with all the usual trimmings. The public is invited to attend.

Maysville Firemen Raise Over $700 With Feed Held Saturday

The Saturday "feed" of the Maysville Fire Department was termed a big success.

Beginning at 11 o'clock, the sale of barbecue and chicken salad continued until around 9 p. m. In addition to the plates taken out, tables were set up for those who wished to eat at the scene of the sale. Coffee and soft drinks were also available.

Three prizes were given in drawings for the adults and three for the children.

A complete sell out, proceeds amounted to more than $700.00 with approximately $100.00 donated to cover expenses.

The solicitation committee also announced they had received about $500.00 in donations.

These funds will be used for the addition to the fire house which is already underway and should be ready for use by the first of the year.

Three Kinston Men Charged in Greene County Break-Ins

Three young Kinston white men were arrested last week and charged with two breakings and enterings in Greene County and also indicted for theft of a slide-projector from a parked car in Kinston.

The three, Billy Lynn, Edmond Cauley and Marvin Brown, all have previous records with the Kinston police department, and Lynn was tried in the October, term of Superior Court for assault with a deadly weapon.

They are charged with breaking in Edge Brothers Lumber Company just south of Snow Hill and stealing a .22 caliber target pistol and a small amount of money, and stealing about $200 in cash and some merchandise from the Red and White Supermarket in Hookerton.

The slide projector, recovered in Kinston, was stolen from the car of Hagan Bentley, who lives at 1308 Bond Street.

TUESDAY CHARGES

Reginald Franks of 600 Stadium Drive and Owen L. Hale Jr. of Chapel Hill were booked in Kinston last week on charge of drunken driving.

Ellis Banks Elected Freshmen President At Jones Central

The freshmen Class at Jones Central High School has elected its officers for the coming year. They are President Ellis Banks, Vice-president Jimmie Pollock, Secretary Treasurer Betty Beeton and Reporter Donna Parker.

MEN HAVE WRECKS, TOO

Claude Powell Jr. of Dover route 2 was charged with failing to yield right away after his car hit that of Stella Jenkins last Thursday at the corner of East and Lenoir.

Two Ex-Convicts Held On Narcotics Charges

Pink Hill Police Chief J. A. Parker and Pink Hill Township Constable Horace Howard last Thursday night arrested two ex-convicts, who have been charged with possession of narcotics and burglary tools.

Roland W. Harper of 703 Rhem Street is free under $1500 bond and L. E. Dickerson of Raleigh route 2 is still in the county jail under $5,000 bond.

The pair was picked up when they cruised too slowly and too frequently too late at night around Brewer's Drug Store in Pink Hill.

Search of the 1961 Falcon car they were driving turned up the burglary tools and the narcotics, which included morphine and other powerful drugs.

Dickerson is a drug addict, who was released from prison October 24th for breaking into several drug stores in the Kinston area and stealing narcotics.

The car being used by the pair belonged to Mrs. Eunice Pigott McLawhorn, who was recently released from a probationary prison term for operating a house of prostitution and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Harper, who was released from prison last year after serving terms for sex offenses and escaping prison, had been working for Mrs. McLawhorn for some time, at her motel just south of Kinston.

Friday night a great many of the alumni of Jones Central High School are expected to be on hand for the first reunion since all of the county's high schools were combined in 1951 at Jones Central.

An All-Star Football Game between former players at Jones Central and a Mrs. Jones County Contest are among the principal events scheduled for the evening. Coaches Vaughn Fowler and Ben Hester will have two squads of ex-Jones Central pigskinners.

The squads will include Jason Morris, George Conway, Julian Foscoe, Frederick Wilcox, Marion Cumbo, Ashford Rouse, Lawrence Brooks, Sherwood Henderson, Robert Adams, Johnny Waters, Delmer Morris, B. C. Spivey, Charles Hughes, David Nance, Buddy Mills, Joe Mattocks, Clifton Spivey, Fenner Morris, Kenneth Smith, Howard Pruitt, Virgil Eubanks, Jeter Taylor, Bobby Barbee, Ronald Davenport, Willie Brown, Elwood Morris, Wesley Mallard, Spence Gaylord and Amos Taylor.

Other brave souls who have not had time to take part in the practice sessions, but who are expected to play include Jerry Pelletier, Ramon Conway, Jerry Kerns, Delmas Brown, Ike Goodman and Billy Huggins.

The Mrs. Jones County Contest will include representatives from most of the county's clubs, who are alumni of Jones Central High School.

The crowning of Mrs. Jones County will be held at half time and after the game a dance will be held in the school.

Major purpose of the Friday night shindig, aside from getting the old grads together, is to raise money to help pay for an activity bus that has recently been purchased for Jones Central.

Mrs. Mallard Back From UN, DC Visits

Mrs. Sylvanus Mallard has returned home after spending a week touring the United Nations in New York City, and the White House.

She was the delegate for Jones County from the Home Demonstration Clubs. While there she stayed at the National 4-H Foundation Club.

North Carolina's first lady, Mrs. Terry Sanford, is pictured receiving the first 1962 Christmas Seals from Luther Barnhardt of Concord, the State Campaign Chairman for tuberculosis associations. Barnhardt noted that America's first lady, Mrs. Jackie Kennedy, is leading the nationwide campaign as the National Christmas Seal Chairman; and it is appropriate that North Carolina's first lady received the first Christmas Seals in the state. Mrs. Sanford urged that all Tar Heel citizens purchase Christmas Seals and use them on their cards and packages.