Mrs. Robert Mattocks Hostess to Garden Clubbers Meeting

Mrs. L. L. Parker presented a very interesting program on birds at the recent meeting of the Green Leaf Garden Club which was held in the home of Mrs. Robert Mattocks.

To add to the interest of the program, Mrs. Parker used a miniature tree with several artificial birds which she discussed.

She showed colored pictures of each bird described gave its characteristics and played a record of various calls of the birds in this locality.

The need for caring for the birds at this time of the year was stressed.

Mrs. Starling Pelletier, chairman of the nominating committee presented the following slate of officers who were elected to serve during the coming club year:

First vice-president, Mrs. Sam Pruitt; second vice-president, Mrs. Joe Thompson; third vice-president, Mrs. Esley Jones; secretary, Mrs. J. C. Foscue; historian-librarian, Mrs. E. H. Bryant. Mrs. Mattocks will serve again as president.

Mrs. A. H. McDaniel as treasurer and Mrs. L. L. Parker as publicity chairman. Other offices will be filled by Mrs. Mattocks by April.

She asked each member to plant a dogwood tree and a crepe myrtle as part of their work in beautifying the town. Their new project is placing African Violets in the lobby of the new post office.

Flower arrangements were prepared by Mrs. W. E. Raiford, Mrs. Sam Pruitt and Mrs. Starling Pelletier.

Mrs. Mattocks and her co-hostess, Mrs. J. C. Foscue, served cream cheese cherry pie and coffee.

Fourteen ladies were present, including Mrs. Wilford Philyaw, Mrs. B. W. Smith and Miss Shirley Morgan as visitors with Mrs. Ann Smith welcomed as a new member.

Mr. N. N. Mattocks Hostess to Circle

The Lillian Foscue Circle met Monday afternoon with Mrs. N. N. Mattocks.

Mrs. Mattocks opened the program with prayer after which a conversational program, "Around the Rim of East Asia," was presented by Mesdames C. C. Dameron, J. R. Pelletier and J. H. Wynne.

Following this, Mrs. Dameron spoke on the conditions in Korea and Mrs. Pelletier spoke on conditions in Hong Kong, Taiwan, Okinawa, and Sarrawak, closing with a prayer.

An affirmation of faith was read in unison and routine business was transacted.

The concluding prayer was offered by Mrs. Albert Jones and the hostess served cake, ice-cream and coffee.

Mrs. Robert Mattocks Hostess for Bridge

The local bridge club met with Mrs. Robert Mattocks Wednesday evening with two tables in play.

Cherry pie, ice cream and coffee were served to Mesdames Fannie Foscue, Annie Pruitt, Kay Jenkins, Evelyn Pelletier, Sarah Pelletier, Amy Raiford and Sara Nell Thompson. During play, she served nuts and coffee.

High scorer for the evening was Mrs. Foscue with Mrs. Pruitt scoring second high and Mrs. Evelyn Pelletier winning at bridge bin-

Fellowship Circle Meets Monday Night

Using the same subject, Mrs. Robert Mattocks, Mrs. Sam Pruitt and Mrs. Leonard Thompson presented the program at the Monday night meeting of the Fellowship Circle which was held in the social room of the church.

Mrs. Sam Pruitt offered the opening prayer; Mrs. Thompson the closing prayer. A discussion period followed.

During the business session the ladies decided to hold a bake sale March 16th. Deeds were reported and following the benediction, refreshments were served.
