Mrs. I. F. House is Hostess to Circle

Mrs. I. F. House was hostess to the Methodist Lillian Foscoe Circle which met with her Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. N. N. Mattocks presided.

After opening with a hymn, Mrs. Blanche Wynn gave the devotional and Mrs. A. H. McDaniel gave a meditation of the Bible, followed by prayer.

The program was presented by Mrs. J. R. Pelletier. A table was set up to display spiritual literature and good books in connection with the program.

After a hymn, repeated in unison as a prayer, business was conducted at which time the ladies discussed possible ways to improve cleaning of the church.

The benediction ended the meeting after which the hostess served fruit salad, cookies and coffee.

Thanksgiving Service For Four Churches

A joint community Thanksgiving service was held Thursday morning with three Maysville churches, the Memorial Baptist, the First Baptist and the Methodist, and the Methodist Belgrade-Tabernacle charge, participating.

Services were held at Memorial Baptist church, with Rev. Avery Lumsden presiding.

The invocation was given by Belgrade's pastor, Rev. Fred Lutz and special music was presented by the First Baptist choir, whose pastor is Rev. Eugene Gibson.

Rev. Lutz gave scripture readings and the Thanksgiving address was presented by Rev. Norman Knight, pastor of the Methodist church.

The benediction was given by Rev. Lutz.

"Teen Topics"

BY TERESA CREAGH

Well, we're all back in school after a rest during the Thanksgiving holidays. We're anxious about our new basketball season, and we're anticipating a good season.

It seems that the "Teen Canteen" dancing championship is fated to stay in the O'Bryan family. Three weeks ago, Mike O'Bryan and Brenda Hill won the contest. Last Saturday night, Robin O'Bryan and Sue Noble took first-place honors. We congratulate them all. We also hope that Nancy and Johnny realize that they're next in line.

For several weeks now, many of the students have been trying in every way possible to find out when Mr. Shelton Justice's wedding was (his French students have tried the hardest). However, just when we thought that we had everything figured out, he fooled us all! Mr. Justice was married to Miss Stella Banks on Wednesday, November

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morgan were Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wiggs and Mr. and Mrs. Atlas of Bailey. Saturday Mrs. Morgan and girls, Shirley and Barbara were visitors in Raleigh.

Mrs. C. C. Dameron was the Thanksgiving day guest of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Tyndall of Belgrade.

27. Even though most of us didn't get to throw rice (some of us did), we'd like to wish much happiness to the newlyweds.

If Pollocksville seems a little run-down and dilapidated, or in other words "wrecked", there's a very good reason for it. Mary Ann DeBruhl and Betty Jo Hudson were there last weekend!

There's quite a bit of disagreement around J. C. as to whether Duke or U.N.C. is the best school. I plan to take a poll of the students and settle this argument once and for all. I'll publish the results in this column.

Wonder

How Allen Mallard and Mary Ann DeBruhl have been getting along lately?

How Nancy O'Bryan likes her new "Carr"?

Who drew Annette Lowery's name?

If Betty Becton and Julia McCoy enjoyed their trip?

Why Mary Dixon can't travel any farther than just from Comfort to Richlands?

How Kathy Roper got home from New Bern last Friday night?

If anyone at J. C. will have a special announcement to make soon?

Join Our Merry Christmas Club

Now is the time to think of Christmas 1964! Seems funny perhaps because Christmas 1963 is hardly here. But by the time you are through with this one, perhaps you will realize that you could have used a lot of extra Christmas money.

Now is the time to join our 1964 Christmas Savings Club. You can join for as little as 50¢ a week. Why not set down a Christmas 1964 budget and put away a set amount each week . . . then when next Christmas rolls around you will be ready for it.
