Methodist Circles Have Programs on Woman in the Church

"Woman In The Church", a question-and-answer type program, was held at both the Fellowship Circle and the Lillian Foscue Circle when they met last week.

Meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Odis Jones; Mrs. R. N. Knight and Mrs. Roger Mallard presented the program at the Fellowship Circle with Mrs. Mallard giving the devotional.

Business included plans for a Dime-A-Dip Supper with proceeds to be applied to the building fund. The ladies also planned to make a Penny-An-Inch apron, with proceeds to be added to their treasury.

Following the benediction, Mrs. Mallard and Mrs. Jones served oatmeal cake and coffee.

Memorial Baptists Have Social and Honor Their Pastor

A social hour was held at Memorial Baptist church Wednesday evening, sponsored by the B.T.U.

About 40 persons were on hand to enjoy playing games which were led by Mrs. Pauline Davis and Mrs. Elsie Philyaw.

Later they enjoyed refreshments of cake, sandwiches and punch.

On the occasion of the birthday of the pastor, Rev. Avery Lumsdens, the group gathered around the refreshment table and sang Happy Birthday to him.

They were served the birthday cake which had been prepared for him.
