Valentine Supper Held Last Friday at Maysville's School

A Valentine supper was given Friday evening at the Maysville Elementary School, sponsored by the PTA.

The meal, served in the new cafeteria, began at 6. Nearly 100 persons were present to enjoy the buffet style supper with a wide assortment of meats, vegetables, desserts, coffee and soft drinks.

Immediately afterwards, bingo was played across the hall and in the auditorium, there was dancing for the young and later, for the adults also.

The fun lasted until 10 and proceeds amount to approximately $165 which will be used to help pay for new lunch room equipment.

'Sweetheart Banquet' Held on Saturday by First Baptist Church

The social room of the First Baptist Church was the scene of the Sweetheart Banquet for the Girls Intermediate Sunday School class and invited guests Saturday evening at 7:00.

A Valentine motif using red and white colors was used. Tables were covered in white and red candles in crystal, surrounded with red and white, were placed in the center of each table.

The menu consisted of baked ham, string beans, potato salad, fruit salad, hot rolls, tea and Valentine cake.

Those present were: Wanda Evans, Sudie Batchelor, Doris Evans, Beulah Collins, Janice Gibson, Peggy Quick, Judy Carroway, Shirley Collins, Libby King, Ronnie Conway, Larry Jarman, Alton Meadows, Robert Evans, Jerry Conway of Trenton and teacher, Miss Rosa Collins.

Rev. and Mrs. Gibson Honored by Supper On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Horrell entertained the pastor of the First Baptist church and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Gibson, at their home Saturday evening on the occasion of their twenty fifth wedding anniversary.

Present were the deacons of the church and their wives and included: Mr. and Mrs. Jason Cumbo, Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Banks Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Batchelor.

Upon arrival, Mrs. Gibson was presented with a red camelia corsage and the entire group presented the honored couple with a silver fruit bowl.

The evening meal consisted of baked ham, green peas, candied yams, beets, tossed salad, pickles, celery hearts, french rolls, angel food cake, ice cream with orange sauce and ice tea.

Well, we have only one basketball game left before the Conference. Last Friday night we played at North Duplin. This Friday night we play our Homecoming game with Burgaw. We hope for a big crowd at this, our final game. Our Monogram Sweetheart will also be crowned on this night. So we want everyone to come and to support the team and the Monogram visitors in New Bern last week.

Mrs. A. G. Heath has been receiving treatment at Craven County hospital.
