VOLUME X

Preventative Is aken Sunday by 55,081 In Jones, Greene, Lenoir

55,081 citizens of Jones, Greene and Lenoir counties visiting 17 clinics and taking the Sabin oral vaccine for the prevention of infantile paralysis

The estimated population of the three counties is slightly more than 84,000, which means that shly 65 per cent of the total lation in the three counties took the polio preventative serum

Officials of the county medical societies and other volunteers who conducted the clinics were pleased with what they called the excellent turn out. But they reminded that all persons who took the first dose Sunday still need to get the second dosage on April 19th and the final drops on May 17th.

Of the total Lenoir County accounted for 38,441, Greene County for 10,603 and Jones County for

In Lenoir County the clinics in Kinston passed out 16,335 of the treatments and county clinics accounted for the other 22,106.

Maysville Man Booked On Multiple Charges

Carl Todd of Maysville was booked over the weekend on numerous charges after a series of al-

The charges grew out of an argument which led to him driving his car repeatedly into the car of another person and then leaving the scene.

Me is charged with being drunk and disorderly, driving drunk, hitand-run driving, leaving the scene of an accident and malicious damage to private property.

Others booked at the sheriff's office during the past week included Eddie Kennedy of Trenton for public drunkenness, James Purkins Hold of Maysville driving without of Pollocksville charged with driving without a license, Paul' der.

Ten Cases Cleared Off Recorder Docket Submissions before Clerk Wal ter Henderson or trial by Judg Nick Noble cleared 10 cases from the docket of Jones County Recorder's Court during the past

Crawford Milton Dawson of Cove City route 1 was fined $25 for driving without a license, Paul Andrew Holt of Maysville was fined $35 for driving without a license and driving with expired license

James Virgil Bender of Pollocksville paid the costs for failing to stop at a stop sign.

Sidney Baker of Maysville paid $10 fine for reckless driving.

Leon Stephens Venters Jr. of Trenton paid the costs for failing to stop at a stop sign, as did Julia Chester Sanders of Richlands.

Daniel Roscoe Morgan of Kinston route 3 paid a $10 fine for reckless driving.

In non-traffic type cases Joe Mc-Kinley of Trenton paid the costs for being publicly drunk, David Ward Jr. of Maysville was given a choice between 30 days in jail or payment of the court costs for being drunk and resisting arrest and a disorderly conduct charge against Raymond Koonce was not prossed.

ELECTRICITY WORKSHOP

Janice and Annette Lowery will hold a Electricity Workshop a their home Monday, March 30, at 2 P. M. All 4-H Club members in Jones County are invited to attend.

PECULIAR COMBINATION

Carroll Pierce of Ayden was booked over the weekend on charges of public drunkenness and theft of an automobile.

a license and Ellis Joseph Roberts speeding, Ralph Lee Simmons of of Trenton was accused of not Jacksonville route 2 charged with complying with an earlier court or-

April 1st Peak Seen In Charleston Gardens

With tours of historic houses in itses throughout the world. Since store for visitors are almost can. 1843, increasing importation and tinuous schedule through mid cultivation of camellias and azal-April, and Charleston's Famous cas has assured the finest display

Interspersed with the inspection of homes sponsored by the Historic Charleston Foundation are tours, directed by church organizations, of private gardens and nearby plantation housse. All are attracting an overflow of sightseers.

The trio of Famous Gardens -Magnolia, Middleton Place and Cypress - drew the largest crowds of the season last week, and more visitors will see the lavish display of blossoms as the season progress-

Late camellias, flowering peach-es, grab apple and spires soon will vie for attention with the unpar-

Gardens bursting into splendid of the blooms in the United States. bloom, the Lowcountry tourist reason has moved into high gear. changed from the original layout. planned almost 300 years ago.

Middleton Place, America's finest example of the formal garden, had its inception in 1741, when work was undertaken to mold the magnificent terraces, to shape the Butterfly Lakes and to lay out the meandering paths, banked with flowers. Since, improvements have never ceased, and the estate has come a horticultural masterpiece.

The third of Charleston's Famus Gardens, Cypress, possesses a unique interest in the myriad ebony akes whose waters are broken by tuge, moss-hung trees that give the garden its name, Banked along the shores and the pathways is perhaps the most brilliant display

f azaleas in the Lowcountry.

The gardens are open to the pulcaptured the respect of botan-lilic each day from 8 a. m. to sunset:

Kinstonian and Two Washington Men Die In Friday Plane Crash

An early-morning crash of a charter flight being flown from Washington, N. C. to Pulaski, Va. last Friday killed J. W. Snyder of Kinston, Gerald Roy and Ira Williams of Washington.

Snyder, pilot of the plane, made his home in Kinston, where he was an official of Avionics, Inc., owner of the plane.

The Washington men were executives of a textile plant in Washington, and were on their way to an area meeting of their parent company's executives,

Cause of the crash has not been determined, although weather conditions were bad at the time it crashed near Danbury.

I.C.B. Koonce New Head Election Board Reports Filing by 3 Candidates

Revaluation Bids

Monday while sitting as a board equalization and review thu County Board of Commisrs opened bids from four on the revaluation of taxable property in the county as prescribed by state law. The apparent low bidder was Carroll and Phelps Company of Winston-Salem which is currently doing a revaluation in Lenoir County. The firm's low bid was $19,800.

Civil Defense Meet

A Civil Defense meeting was held in the Agriculture Building recently with George D. Maddrey, of the State Department of Public Instructions, in charge. This was the first in a series of four classes to be held. Maddrey is bringing the public up to date on action to be taken in case of natural or nuclear disasters. About 40 people attended.

Kinston Police Involved In 2 Shooting Incidents

Within 40 hours Kinston police fore a mirror and saw that he was were involved in two shooting incidents in the past week. There were no serious injuries in either shooting.

The first came shortly after midnight Saturday night when police answered a call to the home of Charles Hughes Jr., 18, of 1513 Charlotte Avenue in answer to a call that there was a disturbance in the neighborhood.

Young Hughes reportedly had shot at either his mother or father went to the door of the home he was met by Hughes who was armed with a 12 guage shotgun. He slammed the door in Jarman's face and Jarman returned to the police car to ask instructions from headquarters since he did not have a warrant and had no right of entry to the Hughes' home.

Reinforcements came and efforts were made to talk Hughes into a more reasonable frame of mind. In the period during which this effort was being made one blast from the shotgun struck the car in which Jarman was seated and one birdshot hit him in the forehead and slight damage was done to the police car.

Finally tear gas shells were fired into the Hughes' home and at about 1:25 a.m. Hughes surrendered.

Members of the family told investigating officers that he had suffered a head injury in an auto accident and was in need of further medical care, which he had refused to take.

Tuesday, however, after a hear ing in Recorder's Court he was ordered to receive medical care and he has now been hospitalized.

Monday Incident

At about 8 Monday night Sgt. Phil Smith, with Policeman Leslie Parsons and W. H. Wiggins went to the home of William Ray Mur-Apartments to serve a capias from tate. Recorder's Court where Murray had falled to show to answer to charges of public drunkenness and against him Sunday night.

On their arrival they found Murray was in an upstairs bedroom and they asked him to come down. He refused and told them they had the county last year. etter not come upstairs.

Sgt. Smith and Parsons went up he stairs and Smith happened to the stairs and Smith happened to ing improvements of additions. located in the Agriculture be in position to see Murray be- Mewborn also reported that in Trenton.

armed with a .22 caliber pistol.

pistol before turning around, but man. Murray wheeled around anyway with the pistol still in his hand. Smith said he fired one shot, trying to shoot the gun out of Murray's hand, but missed and then he fired another shot which hit Murray in the thight just above the knee.

The thigh wound proved to be just a flesh wound and he was urned over to the police at Lenoir Memorial Hospital after receiving emergency treatmnet.

Murray was also placed under a $1,000 peace bond by Magistrate Tom Wade shortly before the shooting incident at the request of a member of his family.

board chairman, John C. B. Koonce, this week announced that politics is beginning to perk up a little in the county.

By mid-week three candidates had handed Koonce their filing fees and indicated that they would like to hold specified county posi-

Two of the three would like to sit on the county board of commissioners. They are both from Maysville, Albert Bracey and Clint Lancaster.

The third candidate is an incumbent member of the county board of education, F. Rogers Pollock, and he has indicated that he is willing to serve another two years if the people of the county want him to.

The earliest filing candidate for office subject to the will of Jones County voters was Mrs. John Hargett, incumbent Jones County Representative in the General Assem-

Filing deadline for those who would like to hold any of the offices to be filled in this year's elections is April 17th at Noon, and the place to file is with John C. B. Koonce, who has succeeded Smith told Murray to drop the W. F. Hill as election board chair-

Land Transfers

The office of Register of Deeds Bill Parker reports recording the following land transfers during the past week

From J. K. and Marty B. Warren to Elvin and Sally Lee one lot in Trenton.

From William and Katie Batchelor to Donald and Bettie Batchelor two lots in Pollocksville.

From Hazel K. Oxley and Myrle Oxley Morgan to James and Joyce Thigpen .5 acres in Trenton Town-

FHA Loans Total $796,830 In Jones County During 1963

Jones County farm and other management assistance to FHA Farmers Home Administration in 1963 to improve farming operations, houses, install water systems, and for other development purposes, J. E. Mewborn Jr., local supervisor of the agency reported this week.

A total of 133 families in the county used credit from the agency during the year with FHA direct or insured loan. This represents a 22 percent increase over 1962.

Loans are made by FHA only to qualified borrowers who cannot obtain credit from conventional

This 8 million dollars put into circulation in the area was felt by many segments of business in the

Under the insured program of the agency, these lenders also provide about 80 percent of the funds loaned by Farmers Home Adminray, 24, of 7-H Simon Bright istration and secured by real es-

Jones County families paid the agency $397,781 in interest and principal on loans outstanding durresisting arrest that were placed ing the year, a 13 percent increase over 1962.

Mewborn singled out the rural housing loan program of his agency as being of particular importance in

Sixteen families built new dwellings while seven others made dwell-families borrowed $796,830 from the borrowers in the country is the most important aspect of his work. Last year 142 farm farmilies in the buy and enlarge farms, build county using FHA credit received assistance in solving farm and home management and financial problems.

"The efficient management of farm resources, now is a crucial factor in the success of farmers here in the county and throughout eastern North Carolnia," Mewborn

Following is a summray of loans made by Farmers Home Administration in Jones County during

A total of $266,890 went to 47 Jones farmers to pay for equipment, feed, seed, livestock, for other farm and home operating needs. and to refinance chattel debts.

Farm ownership loans totaling about $152,000 were used by 10 farmers to enlarge, develop, and buy farms not larger than family size, or to refinance debts.

Emergency loans amounting to an estimated $195,500 were made to 53 farmers to assist in maintaining normal farming operations following excessive rainfall during the growing and harvesting season in Rural housing loans estimated at $182,200 were made to 23 farmers. and rural residents.

The Farmers Home Administration office serving Jones County is located in the Agriculture Building.