Jones Candidate List Grows to 21; 11 Seeking Commissioner Seats

Politics perked up considerably in Jones County during the past week.

County Election Board Chairman John C. B. Koonce reported Thursday morning a total of 21 county candidates for the assorted offices open and subject to the May 30th primary election.

Principal among the races that has developed is an 11-way tangle for the five seats on the county board of commissioners.

In the commissioner race there were only three incumbents who had paid their filing fee as of 10 a.m. Thursday. They are Chairman Nelson Banks, Horace Lee Haddock and Harold Mallard.

The newcomer list of would-be county commissioners includes Albert Bracey, Clinton W. Lancaster, Clifton Eugene Hood, William Henry Riggs, Charles Battle, Jr., W. Denford Eubanks, Alva B. Howard and A. G. Cheston.

Cheston, a Chinquapin Township farmer, is the first negro to seek a Jones County office in modern times.

School Board Race

There was an 8-way race for the five seats on the county board of education with all five incumbents in the race and three newcomers.

The incumbents are Chairman J. C. West Jr., Rogers Pollock, Jeff Conway, J. C. Wooten and W. E. Phillips. The newcomers to the race are W. F. Hill, Horace Faulkner and C. B. Chadwick.

The only other competition, as of 10 Thursday morning was a hassle over the constable job in Pollocksville Township with Robert Riggs and Nick Mallard both seeking the job.

The unopposed listing includes James B. Simmons for Judge of the county recorder's court, Mrs. John Hargett for the general assembly, W. D. Parker for register of deeds, W. E. Raiferd for Justice of Peace in White Oak Township, R. L. Edwards Justice of Peace in Trenton Township, Royal Provost constable in White Oak Township, Warren Calvert constable in Trenton Township and Major Eubanks constable in Cypress Creek Township.

Court House Rumors

Speculation around the court house in Trenton is that Nick Noble will not be a candidate to succeed himself as the first judge of the recorder's court and that the other two incumbent county commissioners, Carl Brown and Eugene Simpson, also will not seek reelection.

Maysville Library Takes Note of Library Week

April 12-18 marks the annual observance of National Library Week for 1964. National Library Week is being observed in all 50 states by librarians and communities using special activities to stress to the public the importance of reading.

The theme this year is "Reading is the Key" and emphasizes reading as the key to new worlds, opportunities and understanding.

The Maysville Public Library has planned activities for National Library Week to stress the library as being the cultural center for the community by making posters and holding a contest for the children.

The library is located in the Maysville Community Building where it was started in 1954 under the sponsorship of the Maysville Home Demonstration Club.

Books were donated by the citizens of Maysville providing a small collection.

In June 1963 the library was officially opened as a part of the Neuse Regional Public Library system which comprises libraries of three counties; Jones, Lenoir, and Greene.

The original book collection became the nucleus of the present collection now provided by the Neuse Regional Library system which has its headquarters at the Kinston-Lenoir County Public Library.

The citizens of Maysville are urged to visit and support the Maysville Public Library where Mrs. C. C. Dameron, library assistant in charge, opens the library Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M. and on Saturday from 9 A.M. to 12 A.M.

BOUND-OVER

Wayne Haskins

Funeral services were held Sunday for Wayne Haskins, 55, of Trenton route 1, who died Sunday morning at his home following a brief illness.

Sunday the second in the series of three all-out attacks on infantile paralysis will be held in Jones, Greene and Lenoir counties under the auspices of the county medical societies and with the aid of hundreds of volunteer workers.

On the first Sunday attack in March 56,633 persons got the first of the three dosages which give them permanent protection from polio. It is the hope of the medical societies that even more people will come for the second dosage this coming Sunday.

Although there was very little delay at most clinics in the first clinic in March there was brief congestion at a few spots so at each of these double clinic lines will be set up so that the delay will be eliminated.

A few things to remember on Sunday are:

- First, to go to the clinic.
- Second, to go to the same clinic you went to in March.
- Third, to take the record card you were given at the first clinic.
- Fourth, if you did not get the first dosage fill out the registration form before going to this Sunday's clinic. Then take the April and May doses at these public clinics and later get the first dosage from your family physician.
