

MOORE IS THE MAN

Judge Dan Moore is The Man who most deserves the support of all North Carolinians in the June 27th Second Primary, and there are many good reasons why.

1. Moore represents the basic conservative philosophy of a majority of North Carolinians.

2. Moore has served in every branch of government—as Judge in the judicial branch, as Representative in the legislative branch, as solicitor in the executive branch of government.

3. Moore would be a governor for ALL the people of North Carolina and not just governor to a pampered minority.

4. Moore has openly and concisely promised to insist upon more equitable and more wise use of state highway building funds.

5. Moore is a Western Carolinian and there has not been a governor from the far west since Locke Craig. Election of a Western Carolinian may break the strangle-hold the Piedmont has had for the past 32 years on North Carolina politics. (There has not been a governor elected from east of Raleigh nor west of Shelby since 1932.)

6. Dan Moore is a North Carolina product. He got his entire education in the public schools of North Carolina by working his way through at hard manual labor.

7. Moore understands the businessman's viewpoint because for the past 10 years he has been general counsel to the Champion Paper & Fiber Company in Canton.
