"Teen Topics"

BY TERESA CREAGH

Well, football season is really here, and especially at Jones Central. The game last Friday night against Richlands was an exciting one even though the final score was 0-0. Jones Central scored two touchdowns which were "called back," and Richlands scored one touchdown which was called back. Most of us at JC were happy with the outcome of the game.

This Friday night (Sept. 11) the Rockets will meet Swansboro at Jones Central. Our boys need and want our support, and we're hoping that as many as possible will come to the game.

I would like to formally welcome our new principal, Mr. Jeter Taylor Jr. to Jones Central. We at JC feel fortunate in having Mr. Taylor, and we feel that he will be a great asset to our school. He has many progressive ideas concerning Jones Central, and we believe that he has a deep concern for the school and the students. It is my pleasure, then, to welcome Mr. Taylor and to extend to him and his family my very best wishes.

I would like to extend to the college students who have already left or will be leaving soon my best wishes for a happy and a prosperous year.

Wonder . . .

How Jane Buck and Doug Mattocks have been getting along lately.

From Wilmington, Cage Mattocks visited relatives here during the weekend.

Mrs. Eddie Dunbar has returned home following a visit with her son, Jerry, in Kinston.

Visiting Mrs. Nolan Jones a short while Monday was her father, B. H. Williams of Stella.

Walter Wetherington and son, Jon, of Stella were recent visitors of his sister, Mrs. Etheridge Jones.

Visiting Mrs. A. G. Heath Friday was her daughter from Hubert, Mrs. Ramsom Riggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Meadows of Kinston was the weekend guest of Freddie Costello Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Jones, Diane and Janice visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins at the summer place near Swansboro Sunday.

ly? If Betty Becton had an "interesting" birthday?

What Annette Lowery was doing last Saturday night?

If Patricia Brock will be remembered at Atlantic Beach?

If Elaine Thomas's "worries" are over?

DEATHS

Mrs. Emma White Dudley
Funeral services were held Monday for Mrs. Emma White Dudley, 52, wife of William Earl Dudley of Trenton route 1, who died early Saturday.

Carlton R. Parker
Funeral services were held Wednesday for Game Protector Carlton R. Parker, 58, of Pollocksville, who died Monday in a New Bern hospital after a brief illness.

The smiling fisherman above is Floyd Gray of the Wheat Swamp Community who really hit a hot fishing hole on Labor Day near his summer home on Cape Carteret. The beautiful string of speckled trout shown here, appropriately enough, came out of Trout Creek, between Cedar Point and the Coast Guard station. And they're just as tasty as they are pretty. Gray brought us a beautiful pair, which were deliciously prepared and enthusiastically consumed.

A Threat To Status

An important sociological development has been announced in England. It seems the common man wasn't coming to the Rolls-Royce fast enough, so the Rolls-Royce is coming to the common man. For a mere £2000 ($5,600), Englishmen are now able to buy a luxury car called the Vanden Plas Princess R. The R., standing for Rolls, Royce or both, means a powerful six-cylinder engine built by the famous firm that goes in a sedan body built by the British Motor Corporation. A car with a Rolls engine in every garage would certainly be a landmark in the "Great Society," but if the advertisements are correct, we would soon be gliding down the highway cursing our noisy dashboard clocks rather than knocking pistons or excess oil consumption.
