

MAYSVILLE NEWS

By Mrs. Nolan Jones

Maysville's Home Club Has Meeting

Twelve members of the Home Demonstration Club met at the Methodist Church Thursday for their regular meeting.

Mrs. C. C. Dameron presided over the meeting.

An interesting program on furniture selection was presented by Home Agent, Mrs. Faylie Gray. She showed slides on furniture arrangements, colors and types of furniture and told what to look for when shopping for furniture.

Routine business was transacted and included discussing ways to fix club booth for the Jones County Fair. Mrs. G. L. Eubanks, Mrs. N. N. Mattocks and Mrs. Wilford Philyaw were named to look after the booth.

Mrs. Gray announced achievement night will be held at Jones Central High School Nov. 18, beginning at 5:30 p.m. The ladies also voted to sponsor Charlotte Gardner as beauty queen contestant from Maysville at the fair.

After closing with the club collect Mrs. Wilford Philyaw, Mrs. C. C. Dameron and Mrs. A. H. McDaniel served cake, cheese squares, pickles and coffee.

Maysville Festival Makes Lot Money

Maysville Elementary School held its annual fall festival last Thursday.

A large crowd was present to enjoy games for all ages which included fish pond, dart throwing, basketball toss, dancing, and bingo. Grab bags, "Marrying Sam" and the cake walk were also good money makers.

In the food department, hot dogs and soft drinks were high in sales and the food table was a sell out. The "Country Store", featuring fresh vegetables, canned foods, clothing, etc., attracted many and the country ham was won by little Ann LaRoque.

As a special added attraction, television personality Barker Bill, his clown Candy and his puppets drew a large crowd at 2 performances.

This event is sponsored by the P. T. A. and with the cooperation of parents, teachers and children, the festival was quite successful.

Garden Clubbers Hold Meeting

The Green Leaf Garden Club, met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. A. H. McDaniel.

After opening with the club collect, Mrs. W. E. Mattocks conducted routine business. She thanked Mrs. Robert Mattocks and Mrs. W. E. Raiford for taking flowers to the Onslow County fair.

The group discussed the Jones County fair and decided to prepare a booth using as their theme "Time of Harvest."

Each member was asked to prepare an arrangement and to help in preparing the booth. Mrs. J. C. Foscoe and Mrs. Raiford were asked to be responsible for the arrangements being taken to Trenton the first part of the week.

They discussed their Open House Christmas Show and set their date for Dec. 16, to be held at the community building.

Mrs. F. H. Pruitt presented an interesting program on birds, discussing types of food, shelter and water for birds in this area and stressed the need for food, bird houses and shrubbery for nesting for birds.

The November program will be held on the 18th in the home of Mrs. Odie Jones. Mrs. N. N. Mattocks will present the program on House plants.

After adjournment, Mrs. McDaniel served German Chocolate cake, open face sandwiches and coffee.

PERSONALS

Barry Britt and Albert Bracey were home from Pembroke State College for a weekend visit with their families.

The Harry Blanton family of Fayetteville spent the weekend with Mrs. Blanton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Meadows.

Mrs. J. H. Wynn spent a short while last week at Morehead City with her sister, Mrs. Letha Pridden.

Frankie Monette was home from Edwards Military Institute to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monette.

Mrs. R. L. Mattocks and Mrs. J. R. Gerock were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerock in Alexandria, Va.

Visiting Mrs. C. R. Morgan Sunday was the Stanley Gibbles family of Jacksonville. Staying overnight Sunday was her sister, Mrs. William Meadows of Hubert. Mrs. Morgan returned home with her to spend this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Conway were in Newport Sunday for a visit with the Lindsey Garners and the Walter Howards.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Jones, Diane and Janice, accompanied by Mrs. Sonny Cole and son, Jimmy, made a trip to Durham Sunday to visit Mrs. Ben Williams at Duke Hospital.

Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Morgan, daughter Susan, and Mrs. C. R. Morgan visited the Leslie Keeter family in Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Jimmy Hooks of Piney Green was a Sunday visitor of Mrs. Mary Carr.

Mrs. G. L. Eubank and Mrs. Jeff Conway spent the day Wednesday with their sister Mrs. Ivey Collins at Jacksonville.

Mrs. Harold Mattocks, daughter, Ellen, and Joyce Johnson spent Friday and Saturday in New Bern with Mrs. Walter Scott.

Mrs. N. N. Mattocks and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strobel of White Oak section were Sunday visitors of the George Mewborns at Snow Hill.

Mrs. Annie Phillips is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Edna Nobles, at New Bern.

Sunday afternoon Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Gibson and several members of the First Baptist Church went to Jacksonville to visit the Onslow Pines Rest Home. A short service was held, including special music, and they presented the home with a large basket of fruit.

Mrs. I. F. House, Mrs. Robert Britt and Mrs. C. W. Gerock visited Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Truckner near Swansboro Monday.

Visiting last week with the Hubert Whites and the Harry Collins were Mrs. Don Hare, son Eric and Mrs. Lollie Collins of Jacksonville.

Wednesday guests of Mrs. C. C. Dameron were Mrs. A. C. Bass of Pikeville and Mrs. D. W. Bryant of Saratoga.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. House had Mr. and Mrs. Howard of Silverdale visiting them Sunday.

From the Memorial Baptist Church Friday attending the New River Baptist Association meeting at Piney Grove Baptist Church near Swansboro were Rev. and Mrs. Avery Lumsden, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strobel, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Humphrey, Mrs. J. C. Bell, Mrs. C. W. Gerock, Mrs. G. L. Eubank, Mrs. Raynor Parsons and Mrs. Roland Byrd.

In Trenton this week preparing booths for the Jones County Fair were Mesdames A. H. McDaniel, N. N. Mattocks, C. H. Mattocks, Wilford Philyaw, G. L. Eubanks, James Barbee, W. E. Mattocks, E. H. Bryant, W. E. Raiford and J. C. Foscoe.

Sunday evening the Intermediate and Young People Classes of the First Baptist Church and their counselor, Mrs. M. E. Gibson, were visitors at the Maple Hill Young People's Training Union. They were served refreshments and remained for church services.

Mrs. Mildred Thompson was over from New Bern Sunday to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. A. H. McDaniel.

Recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Foscoe were Mrs. Lula Herring of Kinston and granddaughter, Mary Warren, of Snow Hill.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monette were Master Sgt. and Mrs. Edward E. Monette and daughter, Suzanne, of Ft. Hood, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Monette and daughter, Vicki, of Stumpy Point. The Monettes also had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Vonabe of Pollockville.

APPEALS SENTENCE

James Williams of LaGrange route 2 was found not guilty of reckless driving by Recorder Buck Wooten last week but he was fined $25 for speeding 90 miles an hour in the city limits of Kinston, from which Williams appealed to superior court.

Guy Mattocks, Jimmy, Gary, Jerry and Tammy and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Parker of New Bern, Mr. and Mrs. Hildred Monette of Bridgeton and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Monette, Jean and Guy of Pollockville.

Goldwater

Stands for A Balanced Budget

Stands for State Rights

Stands for Sensible Foreign Aid

Stands for A Safe Social Security System

Stands for More Reason on the Supreme Court

Stands for A Workable Farm Policy

Stands for Enforcement of the Law

Stands for A Strong Military Establishment

Stands for Honesty in Government

Does Anybody Know What
What Lyndon Johnson
Stands For?

Vote Positively for Freedom,
Governmental Integrity

VOTE FOR

Barry Goldwater

TOBACCOLAND ANGUS SALE

47 HEAD 47

3 BULLS - 44 FEMALES

SALE TO BE HELD AT
LENOIR COUNTY LIVESTOCK ARENA
3 MILES SOUTHWEST ON HIGHWAY 11 AND 55

SALE: 1:00 P.M.

AT
Kinston, North Carolina

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1964

SALE HEADQUARTERS: KINSTONIAN MOTEL, KINSTON, NORTH CAROLINA

PAID POLITICAL ADV.