Mrs. Hughes is Hostess to Club

Mrs. Charles Hughes was hostess to the Greenleaf Garden Club last Tuesday evening. Mrs. W. E. Mattocks presided.

The club chaplain, Mrs. W. E. Raiford, opened with scripture readings from St. Matthew. Afterwards, she made comments on the flower of the month, the violet.

During the business portion, the group discussed plans for landscaping the grounds around the new water system and they were asked to keep in mind the Southeastern Flower and Garden Show which is to be held in Charlotte March 6-13. They also voted to send a contribution to the Brunswick Town Nature Trail.

Mrs. Mattocks appointed a committee to select and present at the next meeting a slate of officers to be elected to serve during the coming year. On the committee were Mesdames W. E. Raiford, chairman, Robert Mattocks, Starling Pelletier, E. H. Bryant and J. C. Foscoe.

The club's president, Mrs. Mattocks, presented the program "Conservation of Flowers". This included house plant, perennials, annuals, bulbs, roses, azaleas and camelias. She discussed the care, fertilization, pruning, spraying and proper soil drainage.

Following adjournment, the hostess served chocolate cake topped with whipped cream and coffee. In addition to those named, Mrs. A. H. McDaniel, N. N. Mattocks and Billie Barbee were present.

Rickey Jones is Party Honoree

Rickey Jones celebrated his fourth birthday at a party given him by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Jones, at their home in Maysville Saturday afternoon.

The group enjoyed playing games and later were served ice-cream, birthday cake and soft drinks.

Those attending were: Rodney, Kelvin and Sharon Meadows, Ann Marie, John and Robertm Jones, Angie and Timmie Batts.

Fellowship Circle Meets on Monday

The Bible and The Life Within was the program subject at the Monday evening meeting of the Fellowship Circle which met in the social room of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Nolan Jones was in charge of the program, opening with reading of the 150th Psalm as a prayer, after which the group sang "Take Time To Be Holy."

Mrs. Jones then introduced the program and with Miss Nell Jones, led the discussion following two techniques, Follow the Leader and Follow the Thought. A general discussion was held afterwards. Prayer concluded the program.

During the business hour, routine reports were heard and the group was asked to consider changing their meeting night.

After the benediction, Mrs. F. H. Pruitt and Mrs. Jones served refreshments.

"Teen Topics"

BY TERESA CREGAGH

Well, the last games of our regular basketball season were played last week. On Tuesday night, our Rockets and Rockettes played host to the South Lenoir Rebels.

The first half of the girls' game was close. However, South Lenoir racked up a 15-point lead in the third quarter. Even though our Rockettes out-scored the Rebels 15 to 8 in the fourth quarter, South Lenoir maintained the lead and won by a score of 43-35. Sheila Black, with 13 points, led the scoring for Jones Central, and Polly Westbrook, also with 13 points, led South Lenoir's scoring.

The JC boys had no trouble in the first half of their game, as they took a lead of 17 points. South Lenoir rallied in the second half, but Jones Central took the game by a score of 85-80. Craig Hill, with 17 points, led the scoring for the Rebels, while Barry Henderson, with 30 points, and Jimmy DeBruhl, with 20 points, led the JC scoring.

On Friday night, February 18, the Jones Central teams traveled to meet the Richlands Wildcats.

Though the score at the end of the first half of the girls' game stood at 17-17, our Rockets came on to win by a score of 39-35. Bonnie Thompson, with 12 points, led the scoring for Richlands, while Barbara Kennedy and Sheila Black led the JC scoring. Barbara scored 17 points and Sheila scored 11 points.

Our Rockets had no trouble in winning the boys' game by a score of 67-49. Barry Henderson with 19 points and Dickie Murphy with 17 points led the scoring for Jones Central.

Michael O'Bryan will be traveling to Chapel Hill this weekend for his final interview as a candidate for the Morehead Scholarship. We want to wish Mike the best of luck.

The East Central Conference tournament games are being played in Kenansville. We have high hopes for both our girls' team and our boys' team. The final results will be announced after the final games on Saturday night, February 27.
