

Jarman-Snipes Wedding Vows Spoken Sunday Afternoon

Miss Elizabeth Ann Jarman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jarman of Trenton, became the bride of Ronnie Clifton Snipes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Snipes of Goldsboro, Sunday afternoon in Cypress Creek Methodist Church. The Reverend John E. Wood officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of pure bridal satin with a sweetheart neckline. The ball-shaped skirt featured a chapel train fashioned with bustles and satin roses. Her veil was attached to a lace crown embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a prayer book covered with lace and topped with white mums and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Carol Snipes of Goldsboro, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Alton Howard of Kinston and Mrs. Joyce Mazingo of Trenton, sisters of the bride.

Mr. Snipes was his son's best man. Larry Snipes and Charles Snipes of Goldsboro, brothers of the groom, ushered.

Miss Sheri Mazingo, niece of the bride, was the flower girl, and Gary Mazingo, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Both of Trenton.

The bride is a graduate of Jones Central High School and Wayne Industrial Education Center at Goldsboro. The groom was graduated from Goldsboro Sr. High School. The bride and her husband are employed at E. I. DuPont at Kinston.

The couple will live at 801 N. Herman Street, Goldsboro, after a wedding trip to the mountains.

Members of the wedding party were entertained at a cake-cutting Saturday night given by the mothers of the bride and groom.

Kinston Banks to Operate on 5-Day Week After July 10

No opposition appeared Monday in a hearing held in the Kinston City Hall by a state banking commission employee on the question of permitting Kinston banks to operate on a 5-day work week basis.

Under the proposed plan all Kinston banks would be open from 9 to 1 and from 3 to 5 Monday through Thursday and on Friday they would all remain open until 6.

This plan also calls for elimination of certain bank holidays observed under the 6-day week

ANOTHER ACQUITTAL

A directed verdict of not guilty was issued by Judge Sumner Burgwyn Wednesday morning in a murder charge against Cephus Smith of Pink Hill for the death of his stepson John Daniel White last winter. Smith's defense was self defense.

NO TRUE BILL

The Lenoir County grand jury Monday refused to return a true bill in a manslaughter charge against Ethel Miller, driver of the car that killed Herman King on Christmas Day 1962.

such as "Sadie Hawkins Day."

The first Saturday closing of the Kinston banks will be July 17th.

Pistol Slaying is Called Self Defense

After brief deliberation Tuesday afternoon a Lenoir County jury acquitted Esther Mae Campbell of murder in the November 1964 pistol slaying of Gladys Knight.

The state's first witness told the jury the defendant had repeatedly asked the dead woman to leave her alone. He said he saw the Knight woman make "one pass" at the defendant and then heard a loud noise and thought he was shot; so he fled the scene.

Both women had lengthy police records.

"Teen Topics"

BY

TERESA
CREAGH

Well, summer is really here, and summer activities have begun in full. We understand that there are many beach parties planned for the summer and that several have already taken place. I guess that the beach is a pretty popular place at this time of year.

We are very proud of Mr. Jeter Taylor, Jr., our principal at Jones Central. Mr. Taylor has been selected by the Vocational Agriculture Department of the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction to participate in talks to be presented in Atlanta, Georgia, June 21 through June 23. This conference will include representatives from ten states.

Mr. Taylor has been very active in work of this type, and we know that he will represent our school well while he is in Georgia.

The Jones County 4-H Demonstration Day was held recently at the Agriculture Building in Trenton. The winners in the various categories were as follows: Livestock Conservation—

Jimmy Pollock; Poultry Marketing — Sue and Carol Cauley; Rural Civil Defense — J. N. Hill III; Electric — Billy Faulkner; Wildlife — Douglas Hill; Dairy Foods (Senior Division) — Claudia Armstrong; Dairy Foods (Pre-teen Division) — Helen Moore.

Our congratulations to these winners and our best wishes as they go on to complete in the District Demonstration Day will be held on June 30 at New Bern High School.

We are very proud to have had Brenda Hill and Janice Lowery serve as Jones Central's delegates to Girl's State this week. We know that Brenda and Janice represented us well.

Wonder . . .

What the JET is? How Tommy Johnson and Clover Wilson are getting along these days?

Why Betty Joe Hudson is so interested in Beaufort?

HEARD: Nancy O'Bryan saying, "I can just see us jumping up and down on the bed and throwing pillows!"

One Critically Wounded, Five More Indicted for Stealing in Hugo Store

Fate Nethercutt, operator of a filling station-store at Hugo in the upper end of Lenoir County, shot into a crowd that was unloading his store at about 1:15 a.m. Saturday, critically injuring one, capturing four more and a sixth thief was picked up later by Lenoir County authorities.

The sextet had earlier broken into Carl Edward's store across the road from Nethercutt's, stacking a large assortment of goods on the side of the road to wait for a "pick up."

When Nethercutt came up armed with a .12 gauge shotgun loaded with buckshot they were working on his place and they were ordered to halt. They ran.

James Arthur Davidson, 22, caught five buckshot in the back, one paralyzing him from the waist down. The other five who in addition to being charged for the Hugo thievery are also charged with breaking in Dempsey Harris' grill in La Grange include Steve and Mose Green, Vance Robinson Jr. Thomas James Lewis and Milford Earl Kornegay. All except Kornegay are of LaGrange route 2 and he is from Kinston route 2.

The latest report from Duke

Bid Opening Friday For Deep Run Office

The post office department will open bids Friday of this week for construction of a new post office at Deep Run.

The building will contain 1,000 square feet of floor space, 96 square feet of platform space and 4,031 square feet of parking space and it is to be built near the present facility.

hospital is that Davidson remains in extremely critical condition.

Freddie Spence on Winning Relay in Army Meet in ETO

Specialist four Freddie A. Spence, whose wife, Birthe, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Spence, live on Route 1, Trenton, was a member of the 8th Infantry Division's winning 400 meter relay team in the Army Europe Track and Field Meet held in Augsburg, Germany, May 21-23. The winning time was 41.7 seconds.

Representatives of practically every major Army command in Europe competed in the meet.

The 21-year-old soldier entered the Army in June 1962 and completed basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga., in September 1962.

Spence is assigned to Company A, 1st Airborne Battalion of the Division's 509th Infantry.

FOUR SUSPENDED TERMS

Leroy Sutton of La Grange route 2 got shot in both hips last January while resisting arrest for drunken driving. Monday he was found guilty of that charge, of resisting arrest and assaulting an officer; and he pled guilty to another reckless driving charge. Judge Sumner Burgwyn suspended sentences totalling 24 months on condition Sutton not drive a car for three years, not violate any law for three years and pay the accumulated court costs.