WSCS Head Has Executive Meeting

Mrs. R. L. Mattocks, president of the W. S. C. S. called an executive meeting last Friday at her home. Nine chairman and secretaries were present.

Mrs. Ruby Knight opened with the devotional. She encouraged enthusiasm in the coming year and concluded with prayer.

Mrs. Mattocks read a poem and told the group that only by working together could the year ahead be a success.

As secretary of missionary education, Mrs. Knight announced that the School of Missions will be held at the Methodist College at Fayetteville August 9-13. Registration cards may be obtained from Mrs. Knight.

Books on the duties of each officer were made available. Mrs. Sara Pelletier, treasurer, gave a report and a budget was planned and was to be presented at the WSCS meeting for their approval.

The ladies were asked to enlist as many new members during the coming year as possible.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Meadows led in prayer to close the meeting.

Committee Reports On New Equipment

A further discussion on purchasing additional equipment was held when the Maysville Fire Department met Monday evening at the Maysville Community building.

The appointed committee reported on various pieces of the new equipment that the department is in the process of trying to obtain.

Another committee reported on the alarm system that will be set up if it is approved.

Next month, the group plans to go to Swansboro for a seafood supper.

Robert Britt served fried chicken, french fries, slaw, hot rolls and soft drinks.

Panel Program for WSCS Membership

Mrs. Claudia Mattocks presided and welcomed 17 members of the WSCS at their meeting Tuesday in the social room of the church.

Mrs. Sarn Nell Thompson introduced the program, "The Young American Mothers — Who Is She," and one hymn was sung. Mrs. Lawrence Mallard followed with the meditation, reading several passages of scripture.

A panel of three young mothers, Mrs. Grace Jones, Mrs. Starling Pelletier and Mrs. Joan Thompson and two grandmothers, Mrs. Claudia Mattocks and Mrs. Mollie Pelletier, listened to the following talks; Today and Yesterday by Mrs. Mallard, Youth and Courtship by Mrs. Thompson, The American Dream Girl Versus the Young Mother As She Is by Miss Jackie Jones, The Tragic Frequency of Divorce by Mrs. Ruby Knight and A Word of Cheer by Mrs. Mallard.

A discussion was then held by the mothers and grandmothers as to how the presented subjects applied to them and a general discussion was also held. A prayer, a Blessing On Families, repeated in unison, concluded the program.

Routine business was translated and included a reading of minutes of the executive meeting held Friday night at which time a budget for the coming church year was planned. This was presented, and was accepted by the society.

Following business, the hymn "Dear Lord Forgive" was sung as a closing prayer and will be used to close all meetings to come.

Mrs. J. C. Foscue and Mrs. Fannie Pruitt served crackers and ice-cream floats to those previously named and: Mesdames Dot Mallard, Judy Foy, Annabel Jones, Addie Smith and Misses Nell Jones and Clara Foscue.

Frankie Monette Has Birthday Party

Frankie Monette celebrated his 16th birthday last Saturday at a party in the Maysville community building given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monette.

The center of the room was draped with green, yellow and white crepe paper and balloons in assorted colors hung overhead. The windows were also draped with crepe paper.

The refreshment table, covered in green, held a center arrange of yellow snapdragons, daisies and gladiola in a milk white vase. They were flanked by yellow candles in milk white holders.

Pastel shades of yellow, blue and green were also used in the refreshments which were: assorted sandwiches, potato chips, nuts, mints, sheet cake topped with green and blue roses and fruit punch.

Entertainment was provided by a band led by Jack Bright. Approximately 30 were present included from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gillette, Jimmy and Kay of Silverdale, Mr. and Mrs. John Young of Stella, Mrs. F. L. Crawford and Linda of Swansboro, Jimmy Carroway of White Oak and Olivia Tyson of Snow Hill.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Monette as chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Provost.
