

Homecoming

Jones Central High School's annual homecoming celebration is set for Friday. The event begins with a barbecue pork or barbecue chicken supper from five until seven in the school cafeteria. Pies and cakes will also be available by the slice at the supper. The football game between the Jones Central Rockets and Burgaw High's eleven will begin at eight o'clock and Miss Rocket of 1965 will be crowned at half-time.

Jones Central's Library Club has Interesting Meet

The Jones Central Library Club held its regular monthly meeting on October 26 in the school library. Sandra Find-eisen, president of the club, presided. Billy Harrison gave the devotion, and Vedys Black gave a report on the candy sale and on the sale of paper back books.

Lib McDaniel, Chairman of the Scrapbook Committee, gave a report and reminded the members to be thinking about a title for the scrapbook which will be entered in state competition. Betty Becton gave a report for the publicity committee on the plans of the club for National Book Week.

The group chose Tommy Johnson to run for District President at a meeting to be held on November 13. Ella Hawkins and Billy Harrison were named his campaign managers. Mrs. Mary Thomas announced that the group would be in charge of the program at the district meeting and that the program would be on audio visuals.

Betty Becton was chosen to represent the club in the homecoming election. The motion was made to purchase flowers for her.

Tommy Johnson gave a program which consisted of several demonstrations. Rebecca McGhee gave a demonstration on mending the corners and spine of a book. Vedys Black gave a demonstration on reassembling an old book; and Gail Scott gave a demonstration on lettering and finishing a book.

The meeting was adjourned for refreshments which were served by Rebecca McGhee and Vedys Black.

4-H Notes

The Clover 4-H Club held its regular meeting and a Halloween Party Saturday night in the Ag. Building in Trenton.

The meeting began with a picnic supper, followed by a business session with President Jack Eubanks presiding.

For the program Annette Lowery gave a demonstration on "Electric Safety." The group congratulated Janice Lowery on being a State Winner in the Home Economics Project.

Don Howard and Terry Koonce were welcomed as new members.

The group then enjoyed dancing and games. Quite a number were dressed in costumes for the occasion and prizes were awarded to the winners in the different games.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Franck and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barns, Mrs. Faytie Gray and children and Carlton Ippock. Approximately 60 attended.

Librarian Urges Greater Use of Library Facilities

by Mrs. Marvin Thomas
Jones County Librarian

October 31 - November 6 is Book Week this year and the theme is "Sing out for Books". Why not start the "library habit" and make a special trip to the library this week.

From Mother Goose to space rockets, the library serves the needs, the curiosities, and the moods of everyone from tiny tots who like to read aloud the sing-song chants of Henry-Penny to senior citizens who need assistance in planning for successful retirement.

Thousands of local residents just enjoy the relaxed informal-

Mallard Tagged

State Democratic Headquarters has appointed Wayne Anthony Mallard Jr. as Youth Co-ordinator for Jones County. In announcing the appointment State Party Chairman J. Melville Broughton Jr. stated that Mallard will be responsible for co-ordinating Democratic Youth activities between the County and State Headquarters. He will assist Party officials with registration drives, fund raising events, precinct work and recruiting and enlisting young voters into the Democratic Party. The latter will be the main duty of the newly appointed Co-ordinator.

ity of the "library habit." They just drop in to leisurely scan the periodicals of the book collection, or just relax in the quiet yet busy atmosphere.

Above all, the public library is a friendly place where courtesy is the expected thing because people who love books just seem to be naturally nice people.

If you haven't been to the public library, you've a pleasant surprise in store for you. Visit the Jones County Public libraries located at Maysville in the Maysville Community Building, Trenton Public Library, and the Pollockville Public Library.

Not Guilty Verdict In Morals Charge

Tuesday a Lenoir County jury found Fred Lee Tucker not guilty of having carnal knowledge of a child over 12 but under 16 years of age.

A similar charge brought against Roby Lee Beck, involving the same girl was not pressed by Solicitor Walter Britt after the jury found Tucker not guilty.

Friendship Supper

Saturday afternoon, beginning at 5 and lasting until 8, the annual turkey and barbecue supper of Friendship Free Will Baptist Church is to be served. The plates will include all the delicious trimmings that the Friendship cooks are noted for. Any and all members and friends of the church are urged to have supper Saturday night at the church, or at least stop by and buy several plates to carry home.
