H. C. Oglesby Going From Major League Politics to Trailers

After 20 years in Washington as assistant to the late Congressman Herbert C. Bonner, Henry C. Oglesby is returning home to Grifton to take a job with Cox Trailers Inc. Fred Cox, president of the firm, said Oglesby would join the company on January 1. "Henry and I have been friends for many years and I feel we are fortunate to secure the services of a man of his ability and experience," Cox said. A native of Kinston, where he was born in 1908, Oglesby has maintained his residence in Grifton since 1935. He is married to the former Rachel Frances Patrick of Grifton and they have one son, Patrick, a freshman at Davidson College.
