

MAYSVILLE NEWS

by Mrs. Nolan Jones

Mrs. L. L. Parker is Hostess to Her Club

Mrs. L. L. Parker was hostess to the Maysville Greenleaf Garden Club in her home in Belgrade recently. Mrs. W. E. Mattocks presided and Mrs. R. N. Knight gave the devotional.

Routine reports were submitted by committee chairmen and Mrs. Mattocks spoke to the group on the subject, Successful Rose Culture.

The hostess served cherry tarts, toasted nuts, red candy hearts, coffee and hot tea. A Valentine motif was used in both refreshments and decoration.

Others present were: Mesdames Turner, Lee Moore, Hazel Barbee, B. M. Barbee, N. N. Mattocks and A. H. McDaniel.

Mrs. Jean Johnson Hostess to Class

Mrs. Jean Johnson was hostess to the Memorial Baptists Young Women's Sunday Class which met in her home recently.

The ladies discussed the possibility of a new project and a sentence prayer was held for the upcoming revival.

Mrs. Johnson served cheese cake, nuts, mints and coffee to: Mesdames Julia Barbee, Myrt Buck, Nina Bracey, Lu Nell es W. E. Raiford, J. C. Foscue, and Lillian Gardner.

Medames Pelletier Hostesses to Circle

Mrs. Sarah Pelletier was hostess and Mrs. Evelyn Pelletier her co-hostess when the Fellowship Circle met Monday evening. The devotional was taken from the Upper Room with scripture from St. Luke 7, followed with the hymn, "Give of Yourself to the Master."

The program subject was Daily Devotions, and the group was urged to use the Upper Room in their daily devotions. The hymn, "More Love to Thee," concluded the program.

Mrs. Margaret Mallard presided over the business portion and urged members to attend the study course being held each Sunday evening until April 3. Mrs. Claudia Mattocks and Mrs. Ruby Knight reported on the beginning class which was held February 27 and at which time a Fellowship Supper was also held.

Following the Circle benediction, the hostesses served coconut cake and coffee to those named above and: Mesdames Thelma Foscue, Dot Hardison, Dot Mallard, Lillie Mae Meadows, Aubrey Mercer, Sara Nell Thompson, and Misses Jackie and Nell Jones.

'Space Age Living' Program Topic

"Living in The Space Age" was the program subject at the Tuesday evening meeting of the WSCS, held in the social room of the church.

Three worlds were presented: The Telescopic World by Clara Foscue, the Microscopic World — Sara Pelletier. Mrs. Mercer gave the devotional, using scripture from Psalms, following with prayer.

Mrs. Claudia Mattocks presided over the business portion, at which routine reports were submitted. After the Purpose, read in unison, chocolate pie and coffee were served by Lillie Mae Meadows and Pauline Meadows.

Tommy Mercer is Given Anniversary Party Last Week

Tommy Mercer celebrated his sixth birthday last week at a party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mercer, at their home in Maysville. The children enjoyed playing games and were served refreshments of cake, ice cream and soft drinks.

Attending were April Lynn Hardison, Elizabeth Monette, Timmie Thompson, Stephen Bryant, Billy Johnson, Danny, Johnny and Bobby Mercer.

PERSONALS

Mrs. A. B. Bracey and children, Albert, Carol and Bruce visited her father, L. N. Latham at Riverdale Sunday.

Patsy Eubanks of East Carolina, accompanied by a friend, Jane Lee Suler, spent the weekend at home with her mother, Mrs. G. L. Eubanks.

J. P. Gardner was home from Charlotte for a weekend visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Batts and children have moved to Tarboro.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Humphrey made a trip to Winston-Salem last week where Dr. Bell entered the hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Jones, Diane and Janice were visitors at Swansboro and Cape Carteret Sunday.

The Tony Santamasso family of Virginia spent the weekend with Lt. and Mrs. Ken Johnson.

Harold Brown, Esley Jones and Sam Moore attended a meeting of the Masonic Lodge in Trenton Thursday.

Mrs. Beulah Pridgen was a Sunday afternoon visitor of Mr. and Mrs. William Bynum in the White Oak Community.

Mrs. Marvin Allen, Bonnie and Wendy of Sneads Ferry were here Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Etheridge Jones, Rodney and Darrell were in Jacksonville Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Gerock Jr. of Jacksonville were here during the weekend visiting their families.

B. L. Mattocks has returned from Hertford and a visit with his daughter, Mrs. John Coston.

Mrs. C. R. Morgan is spending this week in Jacksonville with her sister, Mrs. Minnie Morton.

Franklin Riggs has visited his father, Leon Riggs, at the Onslow Memorial Hospital in Jacksonville several times within the last week.

Mrs. Sallie Gray of New Bern was a visitor of her mother, Mrs. Annie Williams Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dunbar and boys came Saturday to bring home his mother Mrs. Eddie Dunbar who had been visiting Sunday was her brother from near Swansboro, E. T. Collins.

The Harry Blanton family of Fayetteville spent the weekend with Mrs. Blanton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maek Meadows.

Greenville residents Mrs. Almond Salter and son, Barry, came Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Cornell Waters.

Monday, Mrs. A. G. Heath had her daughter, Mrs. Ransom Riggs visiting her from Hubert.

Mrs. Eva May of New Bern was a visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sollins, Horace Collins, and Mrs. Hubert White Sunday.

Sonny Collins has arrived from Florida to visit his father, Preston Collins, who is undergoing treatment at the Morehead City Hospital; and to visit his uncle, Carr Collins.

Gordon and Virginia Mattocks were over from Jacksonville Sunday afternoon visiting his mother, Mrs. L. L. Mattocks.

Visiting Tuesday with the Bert Mercers were Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Mercer and children of Silver Hill.

BRAKES FAILED

Jean Dunn Hasley of 3101 Carey Road said her car's brakes failed last week as she started to park behind the car of Glen Smith Jr. of La Grange on the 300 block of North Queen Street in Kinston. Result: $125 damage to Smith's car and $25 to Miss Hasley's.

Maysville Baptists Observe Week of Prayer With Services of Meditations

Memorial and the First Baptist Churches of Maysville observed Week of Prayer for Home Missions by meeting at their churches each evening last week for programs.

Their theme was "As My Father Hath Sent Me, So Send I You." Scripture theme was taken from John 20 and the Hymn for the week was "Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling."

Presenting the programs at the First Baptist Church were: Monday — Mrs. Grace Adams, using the subject, To Witness Throughout the Homeland; Tuesday — Mrs. Roy McPeak — subject — To Witness in the Great Cities; Wednesday, Mrs. Dennis Wright presented the program at the regular Wednesday evening worship service, using as her topic — To Witness to The World at Home; Thursday — Mrs. Marie Adams — subject — To Witness Through Young Churches and Conventions; and Friday — Mrs. Beulah Brown — using the theme topic for the week as her subject; Saturday, the families were asked to worship in the home as a conclusion.

At the Memorial Baptist Church, Mrs. W. E. Raiford presented the program each evening, using the same subjects except Wednesday evening when Rev. Avery Lumsden led the program. The customary Annie Armstrong offering for Home Missions was taken.

Harriett Speaks to Jones Central FTA

The Jones Central Future Teachers of America held their March meeting at Jones Central High School. Ann DuVal presided at the meeting. Teresa Kime gave the devotional. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The group discussed the F.T.A. Scholarship that is to be given to a senior member who plans to go into the field of teaching. It was voted by the members to let the scholarship be a gift, and that the receiver would not have to pay it back.

G. W. Harriett, Superintendent of Jones County Schools, was the guest speaker. He gave a talk on "The Selection of a Teacher."

After his talk, the group adjourned for refreshments.

JARMAN FUNERAL HOME

24 Hour Ambulance Service
Air Conditioned

JA 3-5143

KINSTON, N. C.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Jones County Board of Commissioners

Will Sit As A

Board of Equalization and Review

Beginning Tuesday April 5th, Continuing on Wednesday April 6th and so long afterwards as necessary, closing on Tuesday, April 26, 1966.

All persons wishing to File Complaints are asked to contact Tax Supervisor Julian Waller on the Opening Day of these hearings so that full information may be prepared and Available for these Hearings.

William Parker, Clerk
Jones County Board of Commissioners