

THE JONES COUNTY JOURNAL

NUMBER 9 TRENTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1966 VOLUME XVIII

Coast Guard Air Search Underway For Missing New Bern Pair

Assault Case Heads Jones Court Action

Recorder's Court tried nine cases in the past week the majority being traffic violations.

Ed Green of Rt. 1, Trenton, pled guilty to assault with a deadly weapon. He was sentenced to 18 months in the county jail suspended on the condition he pay $835 for a hospital bill and the court's costs and remain on probation for five years.

James Floyd Harriet of Rt. 3 New Bern was found not guilty of reckless driving. Johnny Jones of Rt. 2 Trenton paid $21 for driving without his driver's license. Clarence Williams of Route 2 Trenton paid $13 for failure to see intended movement could be made safely. Orin Haywood Weeks, Jr. of 1105 Walker Drive, Kinston paid $31 for speeding.

Kenneth Dillahunt of Star Rt. Maysville presented his valid driver's license after he was charged with driving without one. Mary West of Trenton Rt. 2 paid $13 for driving on the wrong side of the road.

The plaintiff withdrew the warrant against Raymond Hatcher of Maysville charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

The case of non-support against Ernest Burton of Maysville was not pressed with leave by the state.

Suit Filed in Jones Court Asking For Access Road

A suit was filed last week in Jones County Superior Court by James B. McMullan, who is seeking an access road to property he owns. McMullan is suing for property rights to land he considers necessary in running a private road from his property to a public road.

He alleges he needs land belonging to James M. Bender and wife, Julia Bender, Virgil Bender and wife, Penny Bender, Mary L. Bender, Eugene Bender, and wife, Wenona Bender, Bryan Bender, Jr. and wife Elaine Bender, Bryan Mark Bender, Wade Bender, and Michael Bender.

The proposed road also crosses the Croatan National Forest. Federal officials have agreed to grant him a right of way.

McMullan alleges he plans to cultivate the inaccessible land, and therefore, it is necessary to have a private way to a public road.

He petitions for the court to appoint a jury of three to assess the land which he will cross.

Also filed in the past week was an action of J. T. Taylor, trading as Taylor Lumber Company vs. George L. Pierce and Heber Jones. The Lumber Company alleges trespassing, removal of a quantity of timber valued at $250 by the two men. Taylor is asking for double the value of the lumber, or $512.

Deans List at UNC Includes Wilson Lowery, Jr.

For the last semester this year, at UNC Chapel Hill branch, Wilson Lowery Jr. of Trenton made straight A's on all subjects which entitled him to Dean's list recognition. He graduated from UNC in June with a degree in business administration, but will continue in school to work on a Master's Degree.

Four Jones Arrests

In the past week Sheriff Brown Yates reported the arrest of Benjamin Davis of Rt. 3, Kinston for breaking and entering.

Three New Members Elected to Jones Board in Second Primary

Jones County voted three new members to the Board of County

Commissioners in the second democratic primary last Saturday.

July 3 Horse Show

The Moss Hill Ruritan Club is sponsoring a Horse Show Sunday, July 3, 1:00 at Moss Hill School. The charge for admission is 50c for children and $1.00 for adults. A $1.00 entry fee for each class entered will be charged. Five ribbons will be awarded winners of each class with points toward trophies. There are sixteen possible categories of competition.

Probable cause was found in recorder's court on Friday. Bond was set at $300. Davis awaits trial in the September term of Superior Court. John Eubanks of Trenton Rt. 2 was arrested for driving drunk. Alford Jennings of Trenton Rt. 1 and Jack Metts of Comfort were both charged with being drunk and disorderly in their respective homes.

W. Denford Eubanks ran high with a total of 1296 votes.

Second in line was Charles Battle, Jr., incumbent, totaling 1249 votes for his victory.

Running third in the race was Clifton Eugene Hood tallying 1214 votes.

Fourth in the race was incumbent James Barbee with 1133 votes.

Horace B. Phillips ran fifth with a total of 1050.

Incumbents Harold C. Mallard and P. Nelson Banks ran sixth and seventh totaling 981 and 914 votes respectively in their try to return.

Harry C. Mallard ran eighth with 738 votes and ninth was Leslie Dewey Strayhorn with 469 votes.

In the Board of Education runoff Walter Ives was placed into office by tallying 875 votes over Benjamin Gray's count of 746.

Jones Central High School Scholarship Winners

The following students of Jones Central High School recently received scholarships. They are:

- First Row: (left to right)
 Betty Becton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Becton, "Prospective Teachers Scholarship" and "Meredith College Scholarship."
 Dianne Jarman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarman, "John Hargett Scholarship."
 Teresa Creagh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Creagh Jr., "Meredith College Scholarship."
 Linda Haddock, daughter of Mrs. Horace L. Haddock, "Prospective Teachers Scholarship" and "Meredith College Scholarship."
 Teresa Kime, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kime, "Mittrey Amon Courie Scholarship."
- Second Row:
 Ellis S. Banks, Jr., "Prospective Teachers Scholarship."

- ship."
 Eunice Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Noble, "Prospective Teachers Scholarship."
 Kathy Roper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roper, "Prospective Teachers Scholarship."
 Janice Lowery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lowery, "Four-H Club Scholarship."
 Marshall Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ervin, "Vocational Rehabilitation Scholarship."

- Third Row:
 Eugene Burkett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burkett, "Jones Central Future Teachers Scholarship" and "Prospective Teachers Scholarship."
 James C. Pollock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Pollock, "Four-H Club Scholarship."
 David Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Cox, "Vocational Rehabilitation Scholarship."