

This is another view taken by George Yancey of the car and truck involved Monday afternoon in a fatal wreck on Highway 17 between Maysville and Pollocksville. The car, driven by a Camp Lejeune Marine, went out of control and crossed the road and crashed into the truck which had been driven onto the shoulder of the road in an effort to miss the car. This is the third fatal accident on US 17 in Jones County this year and the 4th fatal accident in the county this year.

Jones Court Lacks Judge on Monday; Juror Shortage on Tuesday Slows Activity But Justice Mill Grinds

Monday Judge R. I. Mintz of Wilmington failed to show up to convene a one-week mixed term of Jones County Superior Court and on Tuesday after a grand jury was impanelled, excuses were granted, absences were noted the court didn't have enough jurors to function. So Mintz ordered an extra 15 jurors to be summoned to appear at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Picked for the grand jury were its Foreman Carl Flowers Jr., E. D. Small, Paul Whaley, John Haywood Davis, Walter Ives, Nathaniel Cannon, K. B. Strawbridge, James E. Erving, John L. Lipscomb, Leroy B. Meadows, Jeffrie Ingram, Harold Smith, Jesse R. Collins, James M. Meadows, Ray C. Eubanks, James Hooker, Myral Philyaw and Jesse Hill.

Others who didn't show up but who were found to no longer be residents of the county were Horace Quinn, L. E. Chase, John H. Brimage, Fred Mills, William H. Moore, Kenneth R. King, Manley Fred Moore, Clifton Jones, Buck G. Harrison and Ray Kinsey.

Willie Simmons, William Hooks, Robert Hill Jr. and John E. Hill just didn't show up for jury duty.

The court excused Rogers Parker, J. N. Baysden and Chris Mercer.

The 15 drawn Tuesday morning were Spencer Haskins Jr., A. J. Mallard, G. C. Alcock, Nelson Riggs, D. E. Taylor, Roy Koonce, Kenneth Avery, Raiford Jarman, Luther Barrow, Elva Morton, Eugene King, Frank Howard, Jerry Riggs, E. M. Gooding and Leo Stallings.

And after all that "jurying" around court got started.

Land Transfers

Jones County Register of Deeds Bill Parker reports recording the following land transfers in his office during the past week:

From John and Myrtle Gooding to Elvin and Sallie Lee .29 acres in Trenton Township.

From Clarence and Etha Marshburn, Myral, Ethel, Fred, Etta, Dorris, Addie, R. H. Clifton, Nelson and Clara Collins, Caton and James Byrd, Albert and Verdie Sauter, Zobia,

Record Keeping is Workshop Topic of 4-H Club Leaders

Forty-four 4-H members and leaders representing the following clubs: Riverside, Sunshine, Hataway and Balem Hill met in the Extension Building at Trenton recently to receive training on 4-H record keeping. The devotional was led by Denise Robinson.

The high light of the meeting was a discussion and demonstration on the "Importance of record Keeping" and "How to Complete a 4-H Record" was given by Fletcher Barber, Agricultural Extension Agent.

The meeting was climaxed with interesting remarks by Mrs. Agnes Brown, adult leader, who reminded of the 4-H summer activities and encouraged them to make plans now to participate.

The meeting was adjourned by saying the motto: "To Make The Best Better."

Mrs. Daisy Warlick Bradshaw
Funeral services were held Sunday for Mrs. Daisy Warlick Bradshaw, 48, widow of Robert Bradshaw of 700 Jones Avenue, who died Friday night after a lingering illness.

Warren W. Maxwell
Funeral services were held Tuesday for Warren W. Maxwell, 72, World War One veteran of the Albertson Community in Duplin County, who died from a heart attack Sunday.

Augustus Tilghman
Funeral services were held Wednesday for Augustus Tilghman, 71, of Dover route 1, who died Monday afternoon.

Reece and Junie Register to W. W. and Marian Brafford tracts of 112 and 100 acres in White Oak Township.

From James W. and Martha Jones Meadows to Glenda Joyce Forester a lot in White Oak Township.

From Ruthie Lee Simmons to James B. McMullan two tracts in Pollocksville Township.

Jones Superior Court Cases Cleared This Week

In this week's mixed term of Jones County Superior Court divorces were granted to Roosevelt Murrell from Fannie Brown Murrell and to William Henry Andrews from Gertrude Baker Andrews.

Jimmy Roger Cannon was ordered to pay costs for reckless driving. Mrs. Garland Williams was found not guilty of passing a worthless check, and Herbert Greene, who was charged with drunken driving, pleaded guilty to passing at an intersection and was fined $25.

A charge of receiving stolen property against Lazarus Simmons was nolle prossed with leave.

The court continued four drunken driving charges against John Pinkney Eubanks, who had checked in at Cherry Hospital to sober up while the judge was in town.

Moses Hargett, charged with one drunken driving offense, had his case continued because he had checked in at Duke Hospital.

Wednesday Donnie Vereen, charged with the January 14 murder of Edward Earl Strayhorn pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter and was put on probation. If he is not a good boy he will have to serve 21 months in prison for shooting Strayhorn in a Pollocksville pool room, after he claimed Strayhorn threatened to cut him if he didn't buy him a beer.

Mrs. Minnie T. Cottle
Funeral services were held Monday in Maysville for Mrs. Minnie T. Cottle of Kinston, who died Saturday after a long illness.

Ewell Cicero Avery
Funeral services will be held at 2 Thursday from Garner Funeral Home for Ewell Cicero Avery, 76, of Dover, who died Monday night in a Kinston hospital.

James Maurice Grady
Funeral services were held Tuesday for James Maurice Grady, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Grady of Cove City, who was killed in an accident Sunday night near Pollocksville.

Meeting Next Thursday Night on Growing Cucumbers for Market

Jones County farmers are invited to attend a meeting on pickling cucumbers for processing at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 9, at the Agriculture Building in Trenton.

According to Fletcher Barber, Agricultural Extension Agent for Jones County, the prices of cucumbers this year will be higher than in 1966.

Pickling cucumbers for processing is a very good means for small family farms to obtain early money to help keep down farm expenses. Also pickling cucumbers is a crop that is ready for harvesting in 55 to 60 days.

The demand for cucumbers continues to increase, due to increased consumption per person.

Many producers that follow good cultural practices are realizing $300 to $700 per acre.

Mrs. Shirley Dixon Hostess Recently to Kings Field 4-H'ers

The Kings Field 4-H Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Shirley Dixon, Route 1, Trenton on February 16th.

Devotion was conducted, after which officers for the year were elected. The new officers elected were: President, Brenda Berry, Vice-President, Johnnie Jenkins, Secretary, Angeline Jenkins, Assistant Secretary, Betty Jane Barfield, Treasurer, Debra Berry, Reporter, Rebecca Baines, Song Leaders, Joyce Baines and Melong Jenkins, Program leaders, Clyde Barfield and Leroy Barfield, Recreation, Angeline Jenkins, Debroy Berry and David Barfield, and Refreshment Committee, Joyce Baines, Betty Jane Barfield and James T. Berry.

A discussion on the "Importance of a Good Vegetable Garden", was given by Fletcher Barber, Agricultural Extension Agent. Projects were selected by the members.

There were 15 members and 3 leaders present.

The William Barbers Host to Balem Hill 4-H Club Meeting

The Balem Hill 4-H Club met on February 13, at the home of William Barber, Route 2, Trenton.

The meeting was called to order by president Fletcher Barber Jr.

Walter Jarman, adult leader gave a report on record keeping and plans for 4-H camp was discussed.

Afterward Mrs. Rebecca Ward was introduced to the group as a new 4-H volunteer leader.

The program committee had invited, Fletcher Barber, Agricultural Extension Agent to discuss Vegetable Production.

He stated that there are a number of factors to consider in planning a garden: (1) Select a good location (2) Good seed and plants (3) Varieties differ and (4) Make a plan.

The discussion was concluded by giving the value of a good garden.

1. It gives us vegetables of better quality.
2. It would cause us to eat more vegetables.
3. It would save us in food cost.
4. It provides valuable training for our children.
5. It provides a hobby for our elderly citizens.

Routine Affairs in Recorder's Court In Friday Session

Friday Jones County Recorders Court Judge Joe H. Becton found probable cause in the case against Edward Earl Grady and Joseph Leon Turnage of Kinston for the larceny on February 16th of 11,200 feet of wire. Bond was set at $1,000 for Superior Court.

Grady and Turnage were returned to Lenoir County where they face similar charges. In a warrant signed February 17, the pair was charged with feloniously receiving, taking and stealing the wire, valued at $800, being the property of A & EC Railroad Company and Western Union.

William Wesley Murphy of Pollocksville was placed on probation for two years by Judge Becton after pleading guilty to being drunk and disorderly to the charge brought by his wife, Mary Murphy. In addition to probation, Murphy was given a 6-month suspended jail sentence, on condition he pay costs, remain of good behavior, not cause his wife and parents any trouble, drink no alcoholic beverages, and stay away from any place selling beer or whiskey. Further, he was ordered to attend church on Sunday.

Prayer for judgment was continued in a case against Claude David Hite of Maysville for speeding 70 in a 60 zone when he entered a plea of not guilty, and Judge Becton ordered he pay court costs. James C. Buggs of Camp Lejeune entered a plea of guilty to speeding 75 in a 60 zone and judgment was $15 fine and cost. Francis M. Greggo entered a like plea to speeding 70 in a 60 zone and was ordered to pay a fine of $10 and court cost.

Speeding 70 in a 60 zone and waiving appearance. In court, Charles Roger Angel of Camp Lejeune, paid a $10 fine and cost. Speeding 75 in a 60 zone cost John M. Panck, John H. Roberts Jr., Richard B. Carter, $15 fines, and John McDowell also of Camp Lejeune paid a $30 fine for speeding 90 in a 60 zone.

Dale Scouell of Jacksonville paid a $12 fine for speeding 72 in a 60 mile per hour zone.

Failure to stop at a stop sign cost Major Clifton Cummings court costs.

The case against Willie Edward Koonce of Route 2, Trenton for not complying with the inspection law was not prosecuted.

John Lee Brown of Pollocksville was not prosecuted for a worthless check issued to George Bell for the sum of $21.40.

PROVOST AT FORT GORDON

Private Cleve B. Provost Jr., 20, whose parents and wife, Charlotte, live in Maysville, completed a radio teletype operation course at the Army Southeastern Signal School, Ft. Gordon, Ga., Feb. 17. During his 11 weeks of training, he received instruction in the operation of radio transmitting and receiving sets by voice and Morse code.

6. It provides us for better health.

There were 20 4-H members and 4 adults present. Refreshments were served by the hostess.