

GREEN LEAF GARDEN CLUBBERS HOLD FASHION SHOW AND DINNER

Delicious Dinner, Delightful Show Enjoyed Thursday Night in Maysville

A fashion show and dinner were given by the Greenleaf Garden Club at the Maysville Community Building last Thursday night.

The money-making program idea originated with Mrs. W. E. Mattocks and Mrs. Esley Jones, members of the Club Project's Committee. Mrs. Bobby Barbee acted as Mistress of Ceremonies.

The program began with a welcome by Mrs. Barbee and was followed by an invocation given by Mrs. W. E. Mattocks. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served.

The 10 dinner tables were decorated with floral arrangements by Mrs. G. S. Pelletier.

The stage for the fashion presentations was constructed by the White Oak High School Shop Class and was decorated with flowers by Henderson's Florist of Maysville.

Dinner music was supplied by Mills and Thomas of Maysville who donated the use of a stereo for the occasion.

After dinner a collection of women's Fall fashions including sports clothes, dresses, suits, and evening apparel from Anne Marie's of New Bern and Marcy's of Jacksonville was modeled by the following ladies: Miss Carol Bracey, Mrs. R. L. Bryant, Mrs. H. L. Humphrey, Mrs. Esley Jones, Mrs. Roger Mallard, Miss Debora Mattocks, Mrs. Robert L. Mattocks, Mrs. E. B. Morris, Mrs. Leonard Thompson, and Mrs. W. W. Wicks.

Three models, Miss Debora Mattocks, Mrs. E. B. Morris, and Mrs. W. W. Wicks, wore wigs by Allure Beauty Salon of Jacksonville.

Door Prizes for the show were donated by: Avon Products Inc., Barbee's Supply, Henderson's Florist, Maysville Oil Company, Pelletier Oil-Fertilizer Inc., and Philyaw's Superette. Miss Nell Jones won the wooden plaque floral arrangement base donated by Henderson's Florist, and Mrs. John Pelletier won a five-pound bag of grass fertilizer donated by Pelletier Oil-Fertilizer Inc.

Favors donated were: Cigarettes by Howard's Drug Store and R. J. Reynold's Tobacco Company; Litterbags by International Paper Company; and pencils by Tom H. Foscoe Insurance Agency.

An unusual revival began Wednesday at Faith Baptist Church near Trenton, and continues nightly at 7:30 p.m. through Sunday.

The feature that makes this revival unusual is that there will be a different Evangelist every night.

The five Evangelists are: Wednesday — Evangelist Walter Kirk, Pastor of the Bible Baptist Church at Jacksonville.

Thursday — Rev. Clyde Eborn, Pastor of the Grace Baptist Church of Morehead City.

Friday — Rev. Russell Bell, Pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Swansboro.

Saturday — Rev. Bill Wingard, Pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of New Bern.

The teens of Faith Baptist will conduct the services Saturday.

Sunday — (11:00 a.m. & 7:30 p.m.) — Rev. George Malkmus, Pastor of Faith Baptist Church.

Congregational Singing, Special Music, and Old-Fashioned Gospel Preaching will be a regular part of each service. Also nursery will be available nightly.

Faith Baptist Church, located 3 miles East of Trenton on U. S. 58, is a new church, just 3 years old, but it believes in the "Old-Time Religion".

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

Q: Dr. Garrett, what do you think of the plan to bus Negro children from their own neighborhood to White schools in order to establish racial "balance"?

A: Very little. The colored children are uprooted from their neighborhood, taken across the city, and allowed to sit in classes with White children. At the end of the school day, they are bussed back home. There is no "integration", only disruption. Moreover, there is no assurance that "integration", willy-nilly, is good for either White or Black. The concept of racial "balance", if carried to an extreme, could demand sex balancing, age balancing, ability balancing, etc.

The next step, of course, will be the bussing of White children into Negro areas. Whose shall go; yours?
