NUMBER 52 TRENTON N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1968 VOLUME XIX

Robert T. Nobles is Honored at State University

Jones County student was initiated into Golden Chain, the highest undergraduate honor society at North Carolina State University Wednesday.

Robert T. Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Noble of Rt. 2, Dover, was one of a dozen NCSU students to win the top honors.

A junior majoring in the demanding electrical engineering curriculum, Noble has earned a long series of honors at NSCU.

He has been chosen for membership in the national honorary society Phi Kappa Phi. He has served as president of Tau Beta Pi, engineering honor organization.

Noble gave notice of his abilities at NSCU as a freshman when he was elected to Phi Eta Sigma, national freshmen honor organization.

He also holds membership in Eta Kappa Nu, honor society.

In the School of Engineering, seventh largest in the U. S., he served on the Engineers Council, student governing body.

In five separate semesters, he has earned a place on the Dean's List for outstanding grades.

Noble is secretary of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers, at NSCU, the student chapter of the national professional association.

He is a graduate of Jones Central High School.

Sunday Night Shooting in White Oak Section Injures One Man Seriously

At about 7 Sunday night a shooting, following an argument on the Lake Ellis Road in Croatan Forest resulted in the critical injury of one man and indictment of another.

Sheriff Brown Yates reports that Johnny Hill suffered the injury from a shotgun blast allegedly inflicted by Theodore Smith of Pollockville.

Hill was taken to Craven County Hospital where he was given emergency treatment and then transferred to Duke Hospital in an effort to save his leg.

Smith is charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, pending Hill's recovery. No date has been set for a hearing in the matter.

Other persons booked at the county jail during the past week included Wilbur Metts of Com-fort who was accused of public

Grants Extradition

Monday Virginia Governor Miles Godwin approved the immediate extradition of Martin David Rochelle to North Carolina, where he and Richard Rodesky of Montgomery, Alabama are charged with the February 7th murder and robbery of Jones County ABC Store Manager Albert J. Jones Jr. of Maysville. The two under indictment were drunkenness and disorderly conduct and Henry Moore of Pollockville who was accused of simple public drunkenness.

Judge Larkins Gives Active Prison Terms, Heavy Fines, Long Probation To Defendants in Hail Fraud Cases

In federal district court at New Bern last week Judge John Larkins levied fines totalling $17,500, ordered restitution totalling $71,611.67, gave short active prison terms and five years probation to all 12 defendants in mail fraud charges that grew out of hail fraud cases largely centered in Lenoir County.

Each of the 12 was given a 5-year suspended term and each was placed on 5-year probation at the end of his active prison terms. Active prison terms, fines and amounts of restitution for each defendant were as follows:

John Elmore one year, $2,000 fine and $19,324.92 restitution.

Willie Hudson 100 days, $1,000 fine and $1,023.05 restitution.

Floyd Gray Jr. six months, $2,000 fine and $1,590.32 restitution.

Clifton Gray six months, $2,000 fine and $3,956.74 restitution. G. W. Gardner six months, $1,000 fine and $17,612.76 restitution.

J. W. Poole six months, $1,000 fine and $2,220.80 restitution.

Willie J. Smith six months, $1,000 fine and $1,955.96 restitution.

Earl Eubanks six months, $2,000 fine and $4,798.99 restitution.

Lyman Edwards six months, $2,000 fine and $10,226.50 restitution.

J. W. Roberts 30 days, $1,000 fine and $6,965.27 restitution.

Howard Rouse until May 1st in jail, $500 fine and $836.36 restitution.

W. C. Stafford 120 days, $1,000 fine and $1,100 restitution.

It was not stated, but it was considered likely by court observers that additional indictments will be returned against others that were incriminated during the taking of testimony in the trial of these 12 defendants.

Teen-Ager Put on Strict Probation After Conviction on Larceny Charge

In recorder's court last Friday Judge Joe Becton suspended a 6-month jail term to 17 year-old David Clifton Green of Trenton route 1, but Becton placed Green on stringent probation.

During the probation period Green must attend school regularly, must be at home every day of the week by 6 p.m. unless accompanied by a member of his immediate family, and he must further remain off the premises of Wilmer Mallard.

stationed at Camp Lejeune when they went AWOL and committed the crimes they have admitted. Rochelle fought extradition on the ground that his confession, as well as the confession of Rodesky has been obtained illegally.

Green and a juvenile broke in the Mallard home week before last and helped themselves to whatever items of food and drink they found available.

Other items from the court include a $20 fine to Wilbur Metts for being drunk and disorderly, $200 fine and costs against Loyal Franklin of Pollockville for driving while his license was revoked and fines and costs totalling $119 against Thelma Bowling McLawhorn of New Bern Route 3 who was charged with drunken driving.

A charge of assault with a deadly weapon against Johnny George Jones of Trenton route 2 was not pressed.
