

Lenoir County Tax Rate Remains at $1.65 at 1968-69 Budget Increases by $245,429.59 to Reach Total of $2,931,404.09

The Lenoir County Board of Commissioners has adopted a 1968-69 budget of $2,931,404.09, permitting the $1.65 countywide tax rate to be continued for another year.

In the same act the board retained the special 21-cent tax levy in the Kinston School District, which levy is expected to raise $139,650 on the estimated $66,500,000 tax listed valuation of the school district.

The estimated county tax listed valuation of $135,000,000 is expected to yield $2,227,500 on the $1.65 tax rate. The remainder of the money needed to bring the budget in balance is tabulated under another heading: "Comes In Here" on this page, and the allocations for each county service are also listed under a similar tabulation headed: "Goes Out Here."

The countywide $1.65 tax rate allocates 88 cents of the levy for schools, 21 cents for welfare, 10 cents to the hospital fund, seven cents to the health fund, four cents to the college fund, three cents to the fire protection fund, 15.5 cents to the debt service fund and 16 1/2 cents to the general fund.

This budget represents an increase of $245,429.59 over last year's $2,695,974.50 budget, and an increase of $25 million in the county's tax listed valuation made possible keeping the tax rate at $1.65 in spite of the budget increase.

Kinston Council Monday Begins Long Job of Trimming Budgetary Requests

Monday the Kinston City Council got a first look at what City Manager Jim Blue and city department heads thought they would need, in the way of money to run the city from July 1, 1969 through June 30, 1969.

Blue pointed out that he had trimmed about $600,000 from the various departmental requests before coming up with his final proposed budget of $4,494,163, which is $411,978 greater than the budget for fiscal 1967-68 which ended up at $4,082,185.

The City must adopt its budget on or before July 28th, which means that the city council has a lot of work to do in the next three weeks, going through the bulky proposal, item by item and making such adjustments as it feels necessary in view of the city's anticipated revenues and the willingness of the public to absorb tax increases.

To balance the budget tendered Monday a total tax increase of 27 cents on the $100 valuation would be required, which would include the 10-cent levy approved by the voters last year for recreational purposes.

The council, along with the city manager and city clerk, and with the major department heads will go over the budget between now and the 28th and see what can be done, if anything, about holding the budget more early in line with existing tax rates and charges for city services.

Two college students were sitting on a sofa discussing intellectual things like mental telepathy. "Would you call it mental telepathy," the girl asked, "if I was thinking about the same thing you are." "No," the boy replied, "I'd call that just plain luck."
