IONES COUNTY =

NUMBER 43

TRENTON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1969

VOLUME XVI

Flue - Cured Stabilization Meeting To be Held in Kinston on 18th

ger of Flue-Cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corporation and the Cooperative's Director from District No. 6, W. A. Allen of Farmville, announced today tabilization's 11th annual District Meeting for flue cured tobacco growers in the district.

District No. 6 includes the following counties from the Eastern Belt of North Carolina: Bertie, Martin, Washington, Tyrrell, Dare, Beaufort, Pitt, Lenoir, Jones, Craven, Carteret, and Pamlico. The meeting will be Student Teachers held in the City Hall Auditorium in Kinston, on February 18, beginning at 2 p.m.

Both Bond and Allen stressed the fact that this is an informational meeting held for the benefit of all flue-cured tobacco growers and others interested in tobacco. The 1969 program will feature a report on Stabilization's operations, with emphasis on the increasing inventory of variegated leaf tobacco and a report on Stabilization's subsidiary, Tobacco Growers Services, Inc.

John D. Palmer, President of Tobacco Associates, Inc., W. H. W. Anderson, Executive Secretary of Tobacco Growers' Information Committee, and James W. Hill, District Supervisor of USDA's Grading Service, will also participate in this year's meeting. Respectively, their remarks will include the activities of Tobacco Associates in 1968 and plans for 1969, health and tax issues affecting tobacco, and the 1968 marketing trends and crop composition.

Stabilization's members elect annually at each district meeting Advisory Committee from each county in the district. Members of these county committees help to disseminate information concerning Stabilization's activities to other tobacco growers in

PROVOST IN GERMANY

Army Private First Class Jimmy E. Provost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Provost, Route is as follows: 1, Maysville, is in Germany as military policeman with the 24th Infantry Division taking part in the military Exercise REFORGER I. His wife, Linda, lives on Route 2, Jacksonville.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Alton Hall of Kinston route department Tuesday night and Fred G. Bond, General Mana-, their area as well as to the general public.

> Both Bond and Allen emphasized that this meeting offers every tobacco grower the opportunity to become better informed about the grower-supported phases of the tobacco program. They urge all growers to attend and participate in this meeting in Kinston.

Talk to Jones Central FTA

East Carolina University Student teachers Susie Street and Jane Morris recently spoke to the Jones Central Chapter of the Future Teachers of America. They were introduced by Steve Banks, program chairman, and spoke on "Why I Decided to enter the Teaching Profession."

John Mallard presided. Dale trayhorn gave the devotion. Secretary Debbie Haddock read the minutes and called the roll. Treasurer Debbie Jenkins gave her report.

Four Jones Arrests

During the past week Jones County Sheriff Brown Yates reports booking four men at the county jail. Frank Jones of Trenton route I was charged with breaking and entering, Eugene Strayhorn of Pollocksville was charged with public drunkenness and Faroy Canady of Polocksville was charged with public drunkenness and resisting

ADAMS ON DEAN'S LIST

Walter L. Adams, Jr., of Comfort, has been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at N. C. State University where he is a junior majoring in Electrical Engineering

Past Week in Jones County Courts Phone Company's Jones Tax Bill

For '68 $5,257

Three Civil Actions Filed During

Donnie F. Holliday, local manager for Carolina Telephone, one of the county's larger taxpayers, last month presented a check for $5,257 to Jones County Tax Collector Julian Waller.

The check was in payment of 1968 ad valorem taxes on the company's properties within the county. In addition, checks covering municipal ad valorem taxes will be delivered this week.

The company's total county and municipal tax bill throughout eastern North Carolina amounted to nearly $1,929,000. In addition, state and federal taxes came to $9,300,000.

This does not include the 10 per cent federal excise tax on telephone service which the company collected from its subscribers and remitted to the federal government.

Kinston Youth Becomes Lenoir's 4th 1969 Traffic Fatality Friday Night

Twenty year-oid Kelly Morris, control of his car, which rolled was instantly killed in an accover several times before comcident eight miles southeast of ing to a stop. Morris was thrown Kinston at 12:30 a.m. Saturday on the Kinston-Trenton Highway.

Morris, sen of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Morris Jr. of 2604 Hodges Road, was riding along toward Kinston, according to Investigating Patrolman Earl Edwards.

Morris, while travelling at a very high rate of speed lost due on stream later this year,

plus other capacity under consideration, would lift total availability of Dacron industrial fiber to about the 100 million sanual pound level by the end of 1970.

ester is making a contribution to the tire industry. We are preparing to meet the increasing industry requirements,"

Du Pont was the first producer of rayon tire yarn, the first and largest producer of nylon,

and the first producer of polyester fiber for the tire industry said Jones.

"There is no doubt that poly-

from the car and his body was found by a passing driver nearly 75 feet from the place where the car finally came to rest. His is the fourth highway death of 1969 in Lensir County.

One Hurt, One Held

A weekend brawl just outside of Kinston sent one man to the university hospital at Chapel Hill with a critical head injury and put another in the Lenoir County jail on charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. Josh Boone was the victim, whose skull was fractured when Elijah Atkinson of 1417 Parker Avenue parted his hair, and his skull, with a very heavy stool. The latest reports tend to indicate that Boone will sur-

WAYNE BANK ROBBED

Tuesday afternoon a young white man stuck a pistol in the fact of the teller of the First Citizens Bank in Goldsboro and left after she complied with his order to ffill up a paper bag with money. She got $4400 in in the bag and police think he got away on a motorcycle after ditching the auto. Wed. the aland other industrial operations. leged thief was captured.

Du Pont Trying to Get There "Fustest With Mostest" Polyester Tire Fibers

The Dupont Company today | said, "This new production unit, announced that construction work is well advanced at Kinston on facilities that will double output of Dacron for the tire cord market.

E. C. Jones, Plant Manager

J. E. Morris School Lists Honor Roll

J. E. Morris Elementary School's Honor Roll for the third six-weeks reporting period

5th grade Terry Horne.

6th grade Clinton Lancaster, Aletha Frost, Tommy Faggart, Martha Jane Byrd, Melba Wooten and James Allen Frost

7th grade James Harper, rances Horne, Susan Jones, Annie Delores Wooten, Jeannette Pruitt, Hilda Marie Andrews, 5 was arrested by the sheriff's Linda Coffins and Anita Hansley. 8th grade Mary Irene Jones

charged with the temporary Sylvia Harper, Cynthia Burian, theft of a car and also with passing five worthless checks. Boomer and Craig Costella.

Why Is D. C. Crime Capital of U.S.?

ington, D. C., has become the crime capital of the Nation, a look at the statistics will provide the answer: In only one out of 33 crimes committed in the District of Columbia does the offender go to jail.

These figures were included in a speech last week by the Executive Director of the Republican Congressional Committee, I. Lee Potter, who elaborat-

"The time from filing a case in D. C. District Court until disposition was 91/2 months last year — an all-time high and six times longer than in 1960. In 1968, D. C. police made 10,800 arrests covering less than onefourth of the 49,272 reported crimes. Only six per cent of those convicted were send to

If you've wondered why Wash- | jail. And the latest survey indicated there were three times as many crimes committed in D. C. as reported to police.

"Therefore, a potential criminal knows he has a better than 33-to-1 chance of escaping jail in the District of Columbia." - From the Republican Review

PAPA MUST PAY

Earl Heath of Seven Springs route 1 found Wednesday in Lenoir County District Court that papa really has to pay. After Judge Herbert Hardy found Heath guilty of not supporting his family he gave him a six-month prison term, suspended on the condition that he pay $150 per month to support his family, pay his wife's medical Jones County Court Clerk Rogers Pollock reports receiving three civil actions in his court during the past week.

Branch Banking & Trust Company brought suit against Allen Leo Wilder of Pollocksville route 1 seeking collection of a debt in the amount of $344 with interest from January 1,

George McCôniga & Son of Kinston is seeking to collect $100 from J. Bobby King of Trenton route 2 for a pony, saddle and bridle sold to him and for which a note is held and long past due.

L. Harvey and Sons of Kinston is seeking to collect $119.92 with interest from December 1, 1966 from William Burkett of Dover route 2 for repairs made to a tobacco curing unit.

Kinston Police Nab Three for Demain Burglary

Two Kinstonians and one man from Clinton have been charged with breaking, entering and larceny by Kinston police and among the charges against the trio is the burglary of Demain Enterprises last month in downtown Kinston.

Charlie Bright of 626 Oak Street, Felix Farrow of 513 East Blount Street and Lawrence Mc Phail of Clinton are the trio.

A large number of shotguns, rifles, pistols, watches, musical instruments and other small items of jewlery; all valued at about $3400 were stolen in the Demain looting.

Detective Captain Wheeler Kennedy says part of the Demain loot has been recovered and more is expected, and still pending is indictment of numerous persons for buying and receiving stolen property knowing it to have been stolen.

TREE NOT DAMAGED

Police could detect no damage to an oak tree near the corner of Caswell and McDaniel streets in Kinston which was rammed by a car driven by Camp Lejeune Marine John Rollie at 1:45 a.m. Saturday. They did estimate damage to his car at $500 and indicted him for drunken driving.

TRIPLE TROUBLE

Things were not too OK with O. K. Hawkins of Deep Run Route 1 over the weekend. He was charged first with public and assault upon a female and before he had gotten over those two charges a third was served on him, accusing him of non-support.

Sheriff Flim-Flammed

Lenoir County Sheriff Fred Boyd wound up with a mighty red face and a $31 hole in his pocket Monday night. Mable Hall of South Kinston visited her father in the county jail and came down from the jail with a note asking the sheriff to give her $31 of her father's money, which supposedly had been written by her father. Sheriff Boyd obliged out of his own pocket since he didn't want to open the property bag of her father out of his presence. Then Boyd found out, belatedly, that Ma-ble's father couldn't write. Boyd jail. In other words, in less than hills, pay her attorney and post then signed a warrant charging a $1,000 bond to insure compliance with all those conditions. She was placed in jail.

Cooperation of All Business Men is Needed in Job - Opportunity Survey

job opportunities in Lenoir, ployers, Greene, and Jones Counties was started Tuesday, February 11, by the Kinston - Lenoir County The Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the East Carolina University Regional Development Institute.

Approximately 132 employers in the three counties will be ask-ed to participate in the study el-ther in personal interviews or

In order to obtain the truest tible picture of present and

A survey to determine the expotential jobs in all areas of istence of present and potential employment, all classes of employers, not just manufacturing concerns, will be included in the

The information compiled in this survey will be of interest and benefit to local employers in securing qualified employees, to education institutions in preparing curricula to train these employees, and to students and prospective employees in pre-paring themselves for employment, according to Tom Heath, Jr., Chairman, Industrial Rela-tions Committee.

shareder shape on ours Tales,