

In January

PROFESSIONAL EVENTS

TRIANGLE

Grantsmanship training Raleigh

Jan. 22-26. Pines of Carolina Girl Scout Council center. Five-day program by Grantsmanship Center in Los Angeles covers researching grants, writing grant proposals, negotiating with funding sources. $595. Call Nicole Trail (919) 782-3021.

STATEWIDE

Jan. 15 is deadline for artists/arts groups making applications for N.C. Arts Council's 1996 N.C. Touring and Residency Artist Directory.

ELSEWHERE

United Way conference Southern Pines

Jan 21 & 22. MidPines Inn 1996 volunteer leaders conference & annual meeting.

Agriculture conference Lexington, Kentucky

Jan. 19-21. 5th annual Southern Sustainable Agriculture Working Group conference and trade show.

(501) 292-3714.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

CHARLOTTE

Tom Chapin concert

Jan. 7, 3 p.m. Spirit Square. Sponsor: Jewish Community Center. $13. (704) 366-5007.

WBTV blood give-in

Jan. 11, 9 a.m.-9 p.m. WBTV studios. Sponsor: WBTV/American Red Cross. (704) 527-0313.

Wine, line & dine

Jan. 13, 6 p.m. Hyatt SouthPark. Line dancing. Sponsor: American Heart Asso. $150. (704) 374-0632.

Martin Luther King breakfast

Jan. 15, 8 a.m. First Union Atrium. Sponsor: McCoy YMCA. (704) 342-9362.

Taste of chocolate

Jan. 20, 11 a.m.-6 p.m. SouthPark Suites. Sponsor: National Kidney Foundation. $8. (704) 552-1351.

Great escape gala

Jan. 20, 7 p.m. Mint Museum. Sponsor: Theatre Charlotte. $125.

Charlotte's largest office party

Jan. 26, 5-11 p.m. Convention Center/Hall A. Sponsor: Shelter Medical Clinic, (704) 372-8609.

Dinner-dance

Jan. 27. "Nicht Wi' Burns" Embassy Suites Hotel. Sponsor: Robert Burns Society. (704) 375-4516.

Symphony concert

Jan. 27, 8 p.m. "Night with the Divas." Owens Auditorium. Sponsor:

Symphony and Delta's of Charlotte. $25-$50. (704) 392-4753.

TRIANGLE

Twelfth night party Raleigh

Jan. 5, 5:30 p.m., Bishop's House on St. Mary's College campus. Sponsor: Preservation North Carolina. Honoring Banks Talley. Free. (919) 832-3652.

Comedy dinner Raleigh

Jan. 6, 7 p.m., Crabtree Marriott. Sponsor: Jewish Community Services. $45. (919) 781-5459.

Benefit concert Durham

Jan. 12, 8 p.m., Nelson Music Room on Duke University East campus. Sponsor: Durham Symphony. $12. (919) 560-2736.

Crystal ball

Chapel Hill

Jan. 13, 7:30 p.m., Carolina Inn. Sponsor: Ackland Art Museum. $125. (919) 967-9111 or 966-5736.

Mystery Night Raleigh

Jan. 19, 7:30 p.m., Longview Estate. Sponsor: Family Services Center. $50. (919) 821-0790.

Masked ball Hillsborough

Jan. 20, 8 p.m., "Unmasking the Violence," Hillsborough, Colonial Inn. Sponsor: Orange/Durham Coalition for Battered Women. $30. (919) 688-4015, ext. #9.

Ball and art auction Raleigh

Jan. 27, 7 p.m., Woman's Club. Sponsor: Wake Visual Arts Association. $80. (919) 828-7834.

JANUARY 1996

S	M	T	W	TH	F	SA
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

CALENDAR (meetings, seminars, workshops and fundraisers) items are due the fifth working day of the month. For example, if your event is in June, we need information the first five days of May. The Journal will print as many items as space permits. Call (919) 899-3740 for forms.

Grants and Gifts

ARTS

Carolina Ballet Theater received $100,000 from the N.C. Dept. of Cultural Resources.

EDUCATION

AT&T, donated 50 acres adjacent to its complex in Greensboro, along with labor and materials, to build the state's first Project WILD site, where teachers can learn inspiring ways to teach kids about the environment.

Theodore and Jacquie Leonard of Lexington established the Briggs-Green-Price Endowed Scholarship Fund for student-athletes in the football program at Catawba College, Salisbury.

The Chatham Education Foundation awarded $10,000 in Creative Teaching Grants to nine Chatham County schools: Bonlee, Chatham Middle, Horton Middle, J.S. Waters, Moncure, Silk Hope, North Chatham Elem., Pittsboro Elem. and Siler City Elem.

Foundation for Good Business, Extra Special Super Kids Scholarship Program, two college scholarships in honor of the late Giles Crowell of Raleigh, from members of North Carolina Petroleum Marketers Assn.

North Carolina Partnership for Accelerated Schools, $200,000 for a new middle school teacher preparation program at N.C. State University, from Philip Morris Companies Inc.

Triangle Radio Reading Service, Raleigh, $3,500, from the Glaxo Wellcome Inc. Special Projects Fund of the Triangle Community Foundation.

Wake Summerbridge, Raleigh, new funding from The John Wesley and Anna Hodgin Hanes Foundation, Exide Electronics, Caterpillar, Inc. and Carolina

Builders, Inc. for year-round, tuition-free educational program for diverse middle school students.

FOUNDATIONS

Foundation for the Carolinas, Charlotte, awarded $17,500 in seed grants to the following:

Alexander Children's Center, $5,000 for home-based program for emotionally disturbed children;

Catawba Lands Conservancy, $5,000 for land trust organizational development and increase in donor base;

Society of St. Andrew, $5,000 for Gleaning Network and Potato Project, both hunger relief programs;

Children's Services Network, $2,500 to establish integrated research database of children's services in Charlotte-Mecklenburg.

Cherokee County (S.C.) Community Foundation received $100,000 from the Timken Foundation.

Cleveland County Community Foundation awarded $5,000 to the following:

Cleveland County Arts Council, $750 for Passport to the Arts program for 4th-graders;

Cleveland County Girls' Club, $1,100 for math and reading tutors;

Living Independently Through Volunteers for the Elderly of Cleveland County, $850 for public-awareness campaign;

Mental Health Assn. in Cleveland County, $800 for depression support group;

Pioneer Girl Scout Council, $1,500 for membership materials for low-income neighborhoods.

Winston-Salem Foundation awarded following grants in Winston-Salem: Piedmont Opera Theatre, Inc., $9,500 to commission opera of Ordinary People;

The Adaptables, Inc., $7,000 for wheelchair sports program; Salem Academy and College, $16,500, for Early Education & Leadership Program;

SECCA, $15,000, for exhibit about history of African-American residents of Old Salem;

Southeast Gateway Council, $30,000, for land acquisition and park development;

Tri-City Relays Track Club/Academics and Athletics, Inc., $5,000;

Moravian Music Foundation, $25,000 to microfilm music archives;

Winston-Salem Delta Fine Arts, Inc., $4,000 to heighten awareness of John Biggers murals at Winston-Salem State University;

Winston-Salem Piedmont Triad Symphony, $25,000 to prepare for symphony's 1997 endowment campaign;

Winston-Salem State University, Another Chance program, $35,400, to give high school graduates access to post-secondary education;

Medical Center/Bowman Gray/Baptist Hospital, $22,500 to start children's cancer support program;

Forsyth Jail and Prison Ministries, Youth Focus 2000 program, $12,500 to help young inmates re-enter community;

Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Host Committee, Inc., $12,500 for community activities in conjunction with Italian 1996 Olympic teams training in Winston-Salem;

Agency Executives Assn., $25,000 for diversity training;

CONTACT: Winston-Salem, $25,000;

Habitat for Humanity of Forsyth County, Inc., $14,000 for fundraising activities;

Historic Bethabara Park, $24,000 for outreach programs for neighboring communities;

Juvenile Justice Council, $12,000 to create community-wide agenda for children, youth and families;

Rufus Dalton Award, $4,880 to honor three police officers injured in line of duty;

Southeast Winston Rescue Squad, Inc., $35,000 for purchase of new facility;

Stop Child Abuse Now, $30,000 for capital campaign;

Bethesda Center for the Homeless, $11,547 for personal development plans for homeless clients;

Community Services Research Group, $10,000 for 1995 operating budget;

Eastgate Village Resident Council, $1,700 for recreation projects;

Fairchild Hills Community Tenants Asso., $3,180 for playground equipment and supplies;

Association for the Benefit of Child Development, Inc., $20,000 for Best Start peer counseling program;

SECCA, $1,000 for performance of "Presenting Mr. Frederick Douglass;"

Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools, $80,600 for race relations training in schools;

Reynolda House Museum of American Art, $10,000 for school program "Examining Our Prejudices by Looking at American Art;"

YWCA of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County, $46,100 for Empowering Families Center;

Support Our Students/YMCA, $30,000 for after-school program for at-risk middle students;

Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, $75,000 for Minority Business Development program;

Winston-Salem Foundation grants elsewhere: North Carolina Lions Foundation, Inc., Sherrills Ford, $20,000 for maintenance of Camp Dogwood for visually impaired;

North Carolina Public Television Foundation, Inc., Research Triangle Park, $2,500 to recognize Forsyth County youth who has worked to prevent violence;

Shepherd's Center of Kernersville, $20,000 for administrative assistant.

Union County Community Foundation received $2,500

Boy Scouts make luminaria kits for a Ronald McDonald House fundraiser in Greenville.

from United Carolina Bank.

HEALTH

Partnerships in Assistive Technology, Raleigh, two grants to make telecommunications more accessible to North Carolinians with disabilities: $50,000 from the Dole Foundation's Telecommunication Funding Partnership and $24,000 from U.S. Dept. of Commerce's National Technology Information Assistance Program. Project partners are United Cerebral Palsy Assn., The News & Observer and BTI Telecommunications.

Orange-Person-Chatham Foundation for Mental Health, $25,000 from Mary Whiting Ewing Foundation in Chapel Hill, $1,750 from Village Companies Foundation and $2,500 from Mary Norris Preyer Foundation for Send A Kid To Therapeutic Summer Camp scholarship.

Planned Parenthood of the Capital & Coast, in Raleigh and Wilmington, $1,970 for mid-life services to under-served women, from Planned Parenthood Federation of America.

SOCIAL SERVICES

Boy Scouts of America, Urban Emphasis Program, High Point,

$30,000 for camping equipment to introduce boys in public housing and low income communities to scouting, from Zenon C.R. Hansen Foundation.

Building Together Ministries, Halifax Court Public Housing Community, Raleigh, $10,300 for computer learning center, from American Airlines Kids Are Something Special Fund, Michael and Cynthia Franken Fund, and John 3:16 Fund of Triangle Community Foundation.

Food Bank of North Carolina will receive donations collected during Food Lion's 1995 Consumer Sharing Checkout Donation program.

Speedway Children's Charities distributed more than $250,000 during annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony at Charlotte Motor Speedway, Dec. 6.

Raleigh Rescue Mission, $1,086, from St. Timothy's Lower School and St. Timothy's Middle/Hale High School, Raleigh for Thanksgiving meals for the homeless.

DEADLINES

February 15 is the deadline for applications to the Fund for Southern Communities' Helen's Fund, which supports social-change organizations working with young people in Georgia and the Carolinas. The Fund's general application deadline is March 1. Contact John Bell at (919) 682-3702.