

Professional Services

SURVEY RESEARCH

Lewis & Clark Research
6040-A Six Forks Rd, Suite 112
Raleigh, NC 27609
(919) 676-2036, FAX (919) 846-4021
Specializing in Mail Surveys Since 1982.

TRUST SERVICES

Peter J. Adcroft
6501 Six Forks Road, Suite 350
Raleigh, NC 27615
(919)870-4820 FAX (919) 846-0439
1-800-648-5571
Smith Barney
Specialist in total estate planning including design and implementation of charitable trusts.

DeBerry Assoc./Renaissance Adv.
P.O. Box 4020
Chapel Hill, NC 27515

(919) 489-6500
Charitable Trust Administration.

VIDEO PRODUCTION

New Context Video Productions
924 Chapel Hill Road
Pittsboro, NC 27312
PHONE/FAX (919) 929-3058
Also radio spots and photos.

WEB PAGE DESIGN

Ariadne Solutions
Peter Tavernise, VP
2412 Englewood
Durham, NC 27708
1-800-566-4154
webmaster@AriadneSol.com
http://www.AriadneSol.com/
Professional web page design and implementation for nonprofits and foundations.

CALENDAR

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 16

Making the Case/ Danville, VA

August 8. 10am-3pm. Howard Johnson Hotel. Presentation by Michael Lowder and Priscilla Bratcher of Capital Consortium, Inc. of Raleigh at VA/NC Regional NSFRE Conference. Contact Andy Spencer, 804-4-4250.

Annual Symposium Indianapolis, Indiana

August 16-17. 10am-9pm on 16th. 8am-6:15pm on 17th. University Place Conference Center and Hotel, Indiana University-Purdue University. "Fund Raising: Professionalizing the Profession." Sponsored by The Indiana University Center on Philanthropy. Registration fees: Early Bird (by July 8), $195; General (July 9 and after), $225; One-day only, $115. Registration deadline is 5pm, August 8, 1996. Call (317) 274-4200.

COMING UP

Bull Durham Blues Festival Durham

September 13&14. Old Durham Athletic Park. Presented by The St. Joseph's Historic Foundation, Inc. Tickets available through all TicketMaster outlets in NC, SC, VA and GA. $15 for each night and $18 at gate. Call (919) 683-1709.

Arc Convention Winston-Salem

September 13-14. The Radisson Marquee Hotel. The Arc of North Carolina's 44th convention. Chris Burke of television series "Life Goes On" is featured headliner. Tickets for Burke's performance is $5 for general public and can be purchased by calling (910) 759-9619. Registration costs for convention are: $29 for students and self advocates; $58 for individual Arc member; $73 for individual non-Arc member; $85 for family Arc member; $100 for family non-Arc member. Registration due by August 16.

Call (800) 662-8706.

Trends in Foundation Giving NSFRE Meeting Wilmington

September 19. noon-1:30pm. Presentation by John Bennett of Capital Consortium, Inc. of Raleigh at Cape Fear NSFRE Chapter Meeting. Contact Hall Powell, (910) 815-5002.

Fund Raising Day Charlotte

September 20. 8:30am-4pm. The Park Hotel. "Donor Focused Fund Raising: Are You on the Right Track?" Lectures and seminars sponsored by Charlotte chapter of National Society of Fund Raising Executives. Call (704) 333-8099.

RESULTS

In excess of $28,000 for direct services programs of The Urban Ministries of Raleigh. Tee-Up for Hope golf benefit, April 26.

GRANTS

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 16

women's shelter, all located in Chapel Hill; Durham Community Shelter for Hope, homeless shelter and substance abuse and mental health program; Genesis Home, Phoenix House Durham Rescue Mission, Interfaith Hospitality Network and Agape Corner, all of which provide temporary housing for children, low-income families and individuals and located in Durham; Salvation Army in Raleigh, and Raleigh Rescue Mission.

University of North Carolina Center for Public Television, $24,765 from The Burroughs Wellcome Fund to provide funding for Project Breakthrough, outreach program designed to encourage North Carolina's minority students to pursue careers in science and technology.

ENVIRONMENT

Conservation Trust for North Carolina, based in Raleigh, $20,000 from Kathleen Price Bryan Family Fund of Greensboro to support its efforts to promote community conservation and education projects in western North Carolina.

FOUNDATIONS

The Burroughs Wellcome Fund has awarded $1.4 million to twelve North Carolina schools, universities, museums and community organizations to provide creative science enrichment activities for students in sixth through twelfth grades: American Heart Association, $60,000 for High School Student Research Program; Appalachian State University, $152,000 for Student Science Training Program; Cumberland County Schools, $90,000 for Cape Fear High School Science Academy; Duke University, $180,000 for Talent Identification Program; Durham Academy, $90,000 for Durham Public School Summer Institute; Grey Culbreth Middle School, $60,000 for Seeking Environmental Awareness Researching Chapel Hill project; N.C. Museum of Life and Science, $180,000 for Building the Science Ladder project; N.C. Museum of Natural Sciences, $64,000 for Girls in Science Project; Science STARS Universe, $154,000 for A Universe of Possibilities project; SciWorks, $180,000 for Science in the City project; University of North Carolina Mathematics and Science Education Network, $180,000 for Pre-College Exploring Science Program; University of North Carolina-Wilmington, $28,000 for Oceanographic Field Support for Summer Ventures in Science and Mathematics.

The Duke Endowment of Charlotte has awarded over $1.9 million to 116 North Carolina Hospitals for charity care; $150,000 to School Health Initiative for administrative costs associated with development of school health programs in NC and SC; $810,664 to 24 North Carolina Child Care Institutions for general operating support; in excess of $1.3 million to Duke University Divinity School, rural United Methodist Churches, retired Methodist ministers, and related programs of the United Methodist Church.

The Hezekiah Alexander Foundation, Inc., three grants totaling over $100,000 from National Institute for the Conservation of Cultural Property, North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources, and North Carolina Division of Archives and History for a more accelerated preservation program for Hezekiah Alexander Homesite, Charlotte's oldest historic house and for computerization of Charlotte Museum of History's collections.

HEALTH

Blue Cross and Blue Shield recently became Corporate Champion sponsor for NC Senior Games State Finals, Senior Olympic program for adults age 55 and older.

Healthsource Health Plans, Inc. was a supporter of this year's July 4th Freedom from Cancer Celebration at Wallace-Wade Stadium to benefit Duke and UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Centers.

Hospice of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County, Inc., $25,000 from Winston-Salem Foundation to support construction of Hospice Home, an inpatient facility where Hospice will care for patients who cannot remain at home; $2,000 from Winston-Salem Foundation designated to Hospice's Grief Counseling Center. Funds for both grants were provided by Rufus T. Stedman Fund.

Senior PHARMAssist of Durham, $25,000 challenge grant from Kathleen Price Bryan Family Fund of Greensboro to help senior citizens with low incomes obtain medicines they need and avoid ones they do not need. PHARMAssist must raise an additional $25,000 in new pledges from non-governmental sources by June 1, 1997. Also, $225,000 from Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust of Winston-Salem to be used to further its mission of encouraging safe and effective use of medications with Durham County's senior citizens and helping seniors with low incomes pay for their medicines.

Pitt County Memorial Hospital, $165,000 from Duke Endowment to develop a community-based pediatric asthma program by providing assistance in purchasing equipment and medication for children, sending asthmatic children to asthma camp and paying part of salary expense for pediatric asthma staff.

SOCIAL SERVICES

Child Development Center, $6,120 from Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust of Winston-Salem to purchase assistive technology for classroom computers to be used specifically by children with minimal motor skills, impaired vision, speech difficulties, learning delays or limited communication abilities.

Durham's Partnership for Children, nonprofit organization that oversees local Smart Start initiative, awarded 19 grants totaling more than $368,000 to area nonprofit organizations to improve well-being of young children and their families: St. Joseph's Historic Foundation, Inc., $15,000; Learning Assistance, Inc., $50,000; NC Central University Center for Child Protection, $32,714; Durham County Library, $13,363.50; Museum of Life and Science, $25,820; National Black Child Development Institute (Durham affiliate), $13,926; NC Prevent Blindness, $13,835; Genesis Home, $8,118; St. Phillip's Episcopal Church, $52,640; Lincoln Community Health Center, $19,300; Edgemont Community Center, Inc., $18,300;

Operation Breakthrough, Inc., $5,000; Durham County Literacy Council, $14,020; Cool Tools for Coping, $15,000; Operation Breakthrough, Inc., $12,000; Durham Department of Public Health, $11,400; Durham Department of Public Health, $12,000; Lincoln Community Health Center, $17,000; Little Beaver Child Care Center, $19,045.61.

Legal Services of North Carolina raised $201,773 in its fifth annual Access to Justice Campaign from over 1,800 individuals, law firms and corporations; 23 percent increase over last year; received $50,000 from Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation in Winston-Salem to develop diverse resource base to assure continued delivery of quality legal services to low-income North Carolinians.

Methodist Home for Children Child & Family Services in Raleigh, $50,000 from Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust of Winston-Salem to purchase computerized information system so client information will be accessible throughout the agency.

PLAYSPACE, $20,000 from Carolina Power and Light Company to be applied towards relocation of organization to an expanded facility on Glenwood Avenue this fall.

SAFEchild in Wake County, $3,000 from PCS Phosphate to support agency's dedication to eliminating child abuse in Wake County; $5,000 each from A.J. Fletcher Foundation and Quintiles Give Back Fund, Hanley-McCall Fund and Carl G. Ward Fund of Triangle Community Foundation to support implementation of six, ten-week parent information and support groups for 72 fragile families residing in Wake County.

DEADLINES

Aug. 14, 1996. Nominations for NC Equity (Raleigh) 1996 Carpathian Awards. Info and/or nominations, call 919-833-4055, ext. 22 or 26; 1-800-451-8065.

August 23, 1996. The Arts & Science Council-Charlotte/Mecklenburg, Inc. is accepting applications for two grants programs designed to support arts education for youth in grades pre-K through 12 in Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools system, the Arts in Education Program and Education Through the Arts Program. To request an application, call 704-372-9667.

September 3, 1996. Applications for Hitchings-Eliot Fellowships (1997 travel program) sponsored by Burroughs Wellcome Fund. Applications for Wellcome Research Travel Grants sponsored by Burroughs Wellcome Fund may be submitted all year, but must be received by Fund at least 12 weeks prior to proposed departure date. Contact Rolly Simpson, 919-991-5100; email address: mail-back@bwfund.org; World Wide Web address: http://www.bwfund.org/bwfund.

September 11, 1996. Call for proposals. Local Initiative Funding Partners Program, funding partners/matching grants program established by The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to help support innovative service projects consistent with Foundation goals. Direct all inquiries, initial project descriptions, and proposals to: Pauline M. Seitz or Orrin T. Hardgrove, Local Initiative Funding Partners Program, Health Research and Educational Trust of New Jersey, 760 Alexander Rd., CN-1, Princeton, NJ 0843-0001. Tel:

609-275-4128. Fax: 609-275-4135.

September 27, 1996. Applications for Bright Ideas Grant Program sponsored by North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation. Materials have been distributed to all principals at all North Carolina Public Schools. Grants totaling $518,000 for 687 projects to improve instruction in Tar Heel classrooms.

October 1, 1996. Applications for 1997 Career Awards in the Biomedical Sciences awarded by the Burroughs Wellcome Fund. For information, contact Rolly Simpson, Programs Associate, 919-991-5110; send email to: mailback@bwfund.org. Home page address is http://www.bwfund.org/bwfund.

October 1, 1996. Applications for Fall consideration for grants awarded by The Durham Merchants Association Charitable Foundation. Call Leesa H. Campbell, 919-489-5405.

October 15, 1996. Applications for 1997 Student Science Enrichment Program Awards Supporting Creative Science Activities for Middle School and High School Students in North Carolina awarded by Burroughs Wellcome Fund. For information, contact Carr Agyapong, Senior Program and Communications Officer, 919-991-5103; send email to: mail-back@bwfund.org. Home page address is http://www.bwfund.org/bwfund.

Douglas J. Lewis, CFP

Certified Financial Planner

National Alliance of RENAISSANCE Associates

Specializing in Charitable Tax Planning

- NIMCRUTS
- SCRUTS

- LEAD TRUSTS
- QPERTS

"Fee-Based Financial Planning for 13 Years"

WPTF-AM 680 Radio

"MONEY MATTERS WITH DOUG AND LINDA LEWIS"

Lewis Financial Management

4904 Professional Court, #101
Raleigh, NC 27609

919-872-7000
FAX: 919-872-7004