

In March

CHARLOTTE

Boogie Woogie Ball

April 4, 8 p.m., Design Center for the Carolinas. Sponsored by the Community School of the Arts. Tickets $150 per couple. Call (704) 377-4181.

Salute to the Stars Fundraiser

April 4, 6:30 p.m., Westin Hotel. Sponsored by the Assistance League of Charlotte. Tickets $100 per person. Call (704) 831-0818.

Frank Garcia Panther Golf Classic

April 6, Piper Glen. Sponsored by the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Tickets $2000 for 4 people. Call (704) 377-2139.

Taste of the Nation Fundraiser

April 8, 7 p.m., Founders Hall. Sponsored by Share Our Strength. Tickets $25. Call (704) 376-1785.

NATIONAL

NSFRE International

Conference Philadelphia

March 29 - April 1. Call Michael Nilsen at (703) 519-8481.

TRIAD

Fundraising Day in the Triad Greensboro

March 9. Call Janet Cunningham at (336) 288-7210.

Pro-Life Day '98 Greensboro

March 14, Embassy Suites Hotel. Keynote speaker: Robin Hayes, candidate for Congress. Call (336) 274-5433 or (800) 392-6275.

North Carolina Affordable Multifamily Housing Conference Greensboro

March 17. Call Community Investment Corporation of North Carolina at (919) 781-7979.

Information Fair for Careers in Nonprofit

Greensboro

March 18 at Guilford College's Alumni Gym. Call Irene Harrington at (336) 316-2187.

Governors Conference on Rural Health Greensboro

March 31 - April 1. Contact N.C. Office of Rural Health and Resource Development, 311 Ashe Ave., Raleigh, NC 27606.

TRIANGLE

13th Annual "Eyes of March" Gala Raleigh

March 13. Black tie event sponsored by Prevent Blindness North Carolina. Call Tricia Arnett or Beth Betts at (919) 571-1014.

Wide-A-Wake Community Forum Raleigh

March 26. "Connecting People Through Partnerships." Call (919) 212-7300.

WESTERN N.C.

Beanie Babies Raffle Monroe

Now through March 31. To benefit the Union County Chapter of the American Red Cross. Tickets are $5 each or six for $25. Call (704) 283-7402 for information.

March of Dimes WalkAmerica Lincoln County Lincolnton

April 4, 9 - 11 a.m. Call (704) 377-2009.

March of Dimes WalkAmerica Cabarrus County

April 4, 8 a.m., Les Myers Park. Call (704) 377-2009.

COMING UP

NATIONAL

National Forum on Life Cycles and Volunteering Ithaca, NY

April 30 - May 1. "The Impact of Work, Family and Mid-life Issues." Call Peg Hendricks at (607) 255-8052.

Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action's 27th Annual Conference

November 5-7. Call ARNOVA at (317) 684-2120.

Council for Advancement and Support of Education's conference on fundraising for women, minorities and other special constituencies Madison, WI

June 15-17. Call Vicky Cordner at (202) 328-2661.

TRIAD

6th annual Dining for Friends Winston-Salem

April 25. Benefiting AIDS Care Service and HOPE. Call Theodora Hill at (336) 725-7849.

TRIANGLE

Piedmont Farm Tour Orange, Chatham and Alamance Counties

April 25 & 26, 1-5 p.m. To benefit Carolina Farm Stewardship Association. Call (919) 542-2402 or e-mail cfsa@sunsite.unc.edu

WESTERN N.C.

Antiques Show Lenoir

May 8, 10 a.m.-7 p.m.; May 9, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., J.E. Broyhill Civic Center. To benefit Caldwell Memorial Hospital Foundation. $3 in advance, $5 at the door. Call (704) 757-5525.

DEADLINES

April 1: Applications due for 1998 Glaxo Wellcome Opportunity Scholarships. The scholarship recognizes Triangle area residents who have overcome significant adversity and wish to improve their lives through further education and training. Call the Triangle Community Foundation at (919) 549-9840.

April 15: Nominations due for the North Carolina Award, the highest civilian honor bestowed by the state. For more information, contact Elizabeth Buford or Jennifer McCrory at (919) 733-4867.

May 1: Applications due for Community Arts Administration Internships through the N.C. Arts Council. Applications for the next Fellowship Awards will be due November 1. Call the N.C. Arts Council at (919) 733-2111.

June 1: Applications due for grants from the Rex Healthcare Foundation. The Rex Healthcare Foundation has created a new grant application form and established a new, once a year, grant cycle. Call the Rex Healthcare Foundation at (919) 783-4434.

RESULTS

Sotheby's Heirloom Discovery Day at the Ackland Art Museum on October 4 raised more than $6,000 for the museum.

The Folk, Round and Square Dance Federation of North Carolina raised more than $40,000 at its annual President's Charity Ball and distributed the funds to 43 hospices in North Carolina.

MARCH 1998

S	M	T	W	TH	F	SA
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31

SEND US YOUR CALENDAR ITEMS (meetings, seminars, workshops and fundraisers). The Journal will print as many items as space permits. Call (919) 899-3740 for information or send fax to (919) 832-2369. The deadline for submitting items for the April issue is March 11.

Grants and Gifts

ARTS & CULTURE

Durham Magnet Center Choral, $200,000 from the A.J. Fletcher Foundation for the choir's trip to Durham, England.

University of North Carolina at Greensboro, $80,000 from the Hillsdale Fund of Greensboro to support the Weatherspoon Art Gallery and the School of Music.

CIVIC

Make-A-Wish Foundation, $1,460 from Wake Forest University's School of Medicine's Student Medical Society.

From the Durham Merchants Association Charitable Foundation, $55,700 to 18 Durham nonprofits. The total amount awarded for 1997 was $117,250.

EDUCATION

Appalachian State University, Boone, $1 million from Robert L. and Lillian Turchin for the capital campaign

Barton College, Wilson, $80,000 from the A.J. Fletcher Foundation to buy computers and printers.

Catawba College, Salisbury, $10,000 to create an endowed scholarship in biology/chemistry in honor of Charles Dewitt Howell, a retired biology professor, from Robert Whitener and a group of Howell's former students; an undisclosed amount to create an endowed scholarship in chemistry in honor of Glenn and Edith Deal, China Grove, from their daughter, Glenda Poole, and her husband Jerry, Concord; $562,000 from an anonymous donor for scholarship assistance; $44,000 from the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation, Atlanta, for scholarship support; an undisclosed amount to create an endowed scholarship in honor of Rosemary and Karl Kinard from anonymous donors; $25,000 from the Charles A. Frueauff Foundation to the work-study program; $26,000 from Anne Blodgett Bashore for scholarship; $35,000 from Robert and Sara Cook to the Student Development program and to support the annual Service of Lessons and Carols; endowed scholarship from an anonymous donor established in memory of Marvin Wigginton, professor emeritus of music.

Durham Technical Community College Foundation, Durham, $500,000 from Glaxo Wellcome for a new technology facility.

Elon College, Elon College, $500,000 from the Kresge Foundation to purchase equipment for a new science building.

Fletcher School, Raleigh, $10,000 from the Mac Fletcher family for a new Internet-access computer lab.

Forsyth Technical Community College, Winston-Salem, $80,000 from the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation, Atlanta, for scholarships.

Gardner Webb University, Boiling Springs, $114,000 in software from Quark Inc., Denver.

Gaston College, Dallas, N.C., $300,000 from the Gaston Memorial Hospital Foundation to the Campaign for Gaston College.

Gaston Day School, Gastonia, a visual and performing arts center from the Pamela Kimbrell Warlick family. The family will pay for all construction and furnishing costs of the facility. The exact amount of the gift was not disclosed.

High Point University, High Point, $54,000 from Louis B. and Marjorie Kearns Hoffman, Summerfield, to endow the Marjorie Kearns Hoffman Scholarship in business studies; $151,000 pledged during annual alumni phonathon for the annual fund; $500,000 from Frederick E. Wilson and $100,000 from the Cannon Foundation for expansion of the science building; $10,000 from John F. Cagle, Asheboro, and $597,000 from George C. Welch Jr., Harrisonburg, Va., to the Founders Campaign.

Louisburg College, Louisburg, $150,000 in science teaching equipment from BASF Agricultural Products, Research Triangle Park.

Meredith College, Raleigh, $1 million from Sidney Martin to establish the Martin Family Scholarship, to provide financial assistance to Meredith students age 23 or older; $14,000 from family and friends of Erika Suzanne Woodlief to establish the Erika Suzanne Woodlief Memorial Scholarship; $10,000 from friends, faculty and alumnae of the Department of Psychology to establish the Psychology Department Fund; $1 million trust from anonymous donors who are parents of a Meredith alumna; $1.05 million trust from an anonymous donor.

North Carolina Center for International Understanding, Raleigh, $49,800 from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation to support the International School Partnerships through Technology and the International Educational Exchange Initiative.

N.C. State University, Raleigh, $35,000 from R. Stephen Anderson and Cathy J. Riley, Raleigh, to endow scholarships in the College of Management. $250,000 in equipment from Hewlett Packard Company to support undergraduate education in NCSU's colleges of Engineering and Physical and Mathematical Sciences; $5,000 from the A.J. Fletcher Foundation in support of the 1998 Emerging Issues Forum; $25,000 from William N. Bullock, Greensboro, to endow the William N. Bullock Scholarship for studies in the NCSU College of Engineering; $30,000 from the Paul N. Howard Jr. family to fund the Howard Family/John T. Caldwell Alumni Scholarship.

Peace College, Raleigh, $250,000 from the A.J. Fletcher Foundation for construction of a cellular and molecular biology lab

Piedmont Community College, Roxboro, $15,000 from CP&L for interactive video network and computer education.

REAL Enterprises, $600,000 from the Lila Wallace-Reader's Digest Fund to build the organizational capacity of its 11 state chapters and expand the number of high schools offering the REAL (Rural Entrepreneurship through Action Learning) program nationwide.

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Kenan-Flagler Business School, $500,000 from Roy O. Rodwell, Raleigh, for endowed professorship in entrepreneurship; School of Journalism and Mass Communication, $667,000 from Edgar T. Cato for a professorship; $50,000 from John and Vivian Dixon, Chapel Hill, for Vivian and John Dixon award for art history graduate students; $137,000 from the estate of Lester E. Asheim for the Lester Asheim Scholarship Fund in the School of Information and Library Science; $40,000 fundraising campaign for the Class of 1998 senior class gift.

University of North Carolina at Greensboro, $50,000 bequest from the estate of Mary Deese Murray, Hickory, to create an endowed scholarship in mathematics; $25,000 from Thomas R. and Linda F. Sloan to establish funds to support programs in international business and theater; $20,000 from Dillard, a ResourceNet International company, to Weatherspoon Art Gallery for the 33rd annual Art on Paper exhibition, which opened Nov. 16; $100,000 from the Greensboro News & Record to establish a program to promote leadership skills in undergraduates; an annual gift of undisclosed amount from Sara "Sally" Smith Self, Asheboro, and her son, Smith Winborne Self, Winston-Salem, to create the Luther Winborne Self Fellowship Fund for doctoral students in the School of Education.

Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, School of Divinity, $150,000 from the Henry R. Luce Foundation to develop multidisciplinary courses; gift to endow Margaret A. Steelman Lectureship, School of Divinity, from Sanford L. Steelman.

Warren Wilson College, Swannanoa, $50,000 from the Hillsdale Fund Inc., Greensboro, and $50,000 from the Kathleen Price Bryan Family Fund, Greensboro, for library renovations; $100,000 from the Booth Ferris Foundation, New York City, for construction of a new science facility; $25,000 from Hanes Foundation of Winston-Salem for construction of a new science facility.

Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, $100,000 from an anonymous Western N.C. businessman to help low-income students cover the cost of the school's recently announced computer requirement.

Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, $50,000 from Coca-Cola Foundation, Atlanta, for an endowed scholarship.

ENVIRONMENT

The Conservation Trust for North Carolina, Raleigh, received the follow grants: $50,000 from the Jaivre Foundation; $40,000 from the Kathleen Price Bryan Family Fund; $35,000 from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation; $10,000 from the Cemala Foundation for its efforts to protect scenic lands in the Blue Ridge Parkway corridor.

FOUNDATIONS

The African American Community Endowment Fund, Charlotte, a component fund of the Foundation for the Carolinas, awarded the following grants totaling nearly $6,000: $2,992 to Lakewood Community Development Corporation for a neighborhood communications network; $1,500 to the McNair Program at UNC-Charlotte for assisting qualified minority students preparing for doctoral study; $1,500 to St. Martin's School for an outreach program to diversify the preschool's student population.

Burroughs Wellcome Fund, Durham, announced the following $150,000 Hitchings-Elion Fellowships: Kevin S. Dingwell; Francine Durocher; Reuben S. Harris; Susan C. Hockings; Kenro Kusumi; Laura Rosa Brunet; Kristin S. Scott; Steven P. Smith; Dean G. Tang; Michael E. Zuber. The award will support the fellows for two years of postdoctoral research training

Look for GRANTS, next page