RECENTLY MARRIED HERE

MRS. JAMES WILLIAM REEVES.

Miss Mary Ellen Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Robinson Underwood, became the bride of James William Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Reeves of Stanley, in a beautiful ceremony on Sunday afternoon, April 16, at 5:30 o'clock in the Lutheran Church of The Good Shepherd. The Reverend Carl H. Fisher, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The church was appropriately decorated with palms and white gladioli. The chancel and choir loft were banked with palms, interspersed by seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers. The altar candles were lighted by Carl H. Fisher, Jr.

Miss Georgia Lyn Huddle of Williamsport, Maryland, organist, and Mr. John S. Quimby, Jr. of Charlotte, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music. Miss Huddle played "Pianis Angelicus", "Adagio" from Chorale No. 3, "Intermezzo" from "Cavalliera Rusticana" and "Andante Cantabile". Mr. Quimby sang "Through the Years", "One Alone" and "O Perfect Love." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was played for the processional, and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and R. Carlton Rhyne of Charleston, S. C. was best man. Ushers were Vance Hunter, Jr., cousin of the bride; Gilbert Hart and Joffre Hart of Mount Holly, and James Fraley of Statesville.

The bride wore a gown of ivory duchess satin fashioned along princess lines, with a nylon yoke outlined with seed pearls and crystal beads, long sleeves ending in Calla points over the hands, and a very full skirt ending in a cathedral length train. The fingertip, two tiered veil with blusher of imported illusion was attached to a satin cloche trimmed with seed pearls and crystal beads. The bride carried a white satin service book topped with white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Edith Underwood, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a lilac taffeta dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, low round neckline with berth type collar at front, and circular skirt with gather fullness in the back. She wore a matching cloche fashioned like that of the bride, trimmed with lilacs, and with shoulder-length veil attached. She also wore matching lace mitts and carried a spray bouquet of purple statice.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. R. Carlton Rhyne of Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Carl H. Underwood of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Misses Frances Moore and Nancy Garrison of Charlotte. Their dresses and bouquets were identical to those of the maid of honor, and they wore matching cloches, without veil, trimmed with lilacs. All attendants wore pearls, the bride's gift to them.

The mother of the bride wore a lilac tissue faille dress with purple hat, black accessories, and a white orchid shoulder bouquet. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue dress with pink and navy accessories and a pink orchid shoulder bouquet. There was no reception, but the bridal couple received in the vestibule of the church after the ceremony.

The couple left for a wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Mount Holly. For traveling the bride wore a navy gaberdine suit with navy and white accessories, fur scarf, and a shoulder bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Reeves was graduated from Mount Holly High School and is employed in the office of Carolina Process Company of Charlotte.

Mr. Reeves was also graduated from Mount Holly High School and is employed with the Boyle-Midway company of New York.

Benefit Card Party Was Huge Success

The Parent-Teachers Association held a benefit bridge party on Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m. in the school gymnasium. Thirty-five tables were in play during the evening and prizes were given to the scorer at each individual table.

The door prize was won by Mr. T. A. Dunn, Jr. Mrs. James Ware received a home-made cake through the raffle, and the grand high prize was awarded to Mrs. Joe Wright.

Home-made cookies and punch were served to all of the tables. The awards and prizes were donated by the following: Mrs. Ralph Leonard, Rhyne Groceries, Clark-Noles Jewelers, Pryor's Esso Service, Edna Black's Flowers, Holland Drug Company, Barnette's Flowers, Summey Drugs, Charlie's Drug Store, Paul Derr, Jones Brothers Super Market, Mount Holly News, Mount Holly Funeral Home, Mount Holly Ice and Fuel Company, Benton Wholesale Company, and four firms of Charlotte, Lance Packing Company, Liggett's Drugs, Walgreen's, and Ekerd's Drug Stores.

The P. T. A. wishes to thank all who gave so generously of their time and gifts such as the cookies and cake, and they wish especially to thank Mr. Helton for the use of the gymnasium and his cooperation.

The P. T. A. was able to raise $100.00 through this benefit, which will be used as stated in last week's paper, for the school building project. All of those who took some part in this benefit should be proud of the amount of money raised for the school extension program.

Mrs. O. L. Hoffman Hostess to Book Club

Mrs. O. L. Hoffman was hostess to members of the Mount Holly Book Club at the regular meeting, entertaining Friday afternoon at her home on East Glendale Ave.

Arrangements of tulips decorated the living room, and the dining room table was centered with a bowl of mixed-spring flowers.

Mrs. James H. Ware was in charge of the program, and Mrs. James L. Davenport read a paper on the history, work and progress of Crossnore School. The club voted to make a donation of money toward the fund for the institution.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served sandwiches, angel cake and fruit punch. Mrs. C. W. Pierce and Mrs. A. C. Kale were special guests.

IN LEXINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Clark and Miss Doris Clark visited Mrs. J. H. Fine in Lexington Sunday.

AT HER HOME

Miss Mae Tucker is convalescing at her home on Main Street following a tonsilectomy at Charlotte Eye, Ear and Throat hospital.

Grademothers Honor Fifth Grade Children

On Thursday the grademothers entertained the children in Miss Leach's fifth grade. Those acting as hostesses were Mrs. L. Y. Jenkins, chairman, Mrs. Leila Hanna, Mrs. R. J. Andrews, and Mrs. Yates Loftin.

As soon as the grademothers arrived, they served ice cream and cookies to the children. Eggs were then hidden while the children were eating and playing games. Lloyd Gann and Max Davis found the largest number of eggs.

The grademothers have entertained the fifth grade three times this year. On the eve of Halloween, they had games and refreshments. At Christmas time they entertained with a theatre party, as well as a party in the school room at which time the children enjoyed games, contests, and refreshments.

HERE FOR WEEKEND

Mrs. J. H. Arthur Receives Two Cash Prizes In Contest

Of great interest to the women of Mount Holly was the winning of first place prizes by Mrs. James H. Arthur in two divisions of the preliminary sewing contest sponsored by Belk's Fabrics. Mrs. Arthur was interviewed on Tuesday morning of this week by Gladys Lavatan, commentator on the Woman's World program over radio station WAYS.

Mrs. Arthur entered a smocked dress in the group of children's clothes for ages two to six. Her prize-winning frock in the division for ages seven to twelve was a royal blue sun dress and bolero accented with an embroidered cherry design.

In addition to receiving $35.00 in cash for each first place, Mrs. Arthur won the privilege to have her garments sent to the national contest for the final judging, which will be held at the Waldor-Astoria Hotel in May. The national winners, and we certainly hope Mrs. Arthur is among these, will be invited to New York as guests.

LEAVE FOR HOME

Mrs. T. N. Burton and children, Neal and Cynthia of Richmond, Va., left Saturday for their home after a visit here with the former's mother, Mrs. Kathleen Herald.

A Personal Invitation

COME IN AND LOOK AROUND

We welcome the "Looker" in this store. We put "Looker" in quotes and spell it with a capital letter because it is a habit among some stores to make a marked distinction between "Looker" and buyer . . . as if one were possible without the other.

After all you can look without buying and you can buy without looking . . . but the way we figure it is that those who look and don't buy today live to buy another day. We also figure that if you look you will get a good idea of the quality merchandise we carry at reasonable prices . . . and the sort of outfit we are.

SO PLEASE COME IN AND "LOOK AROUND"

We also know that conditions are making it necessary for all of us to "Look" around . . . "To Get The Best at the Most Reasonable Prices." Therefore it is just simple arithmetic for us to know that the more we can show you at the better prices the more we can sell you. That's why we follow the policy of Nationally Known merchandise at Reasonable Prices.
