Joint Hostesses Give Bridge Party

Two lovely social events of last week were the parties given by Mrs. Joffre Hart, Miss Amariyllis Vaughn, Miss Ruth Martin and Mrs. Paul Jones, who joined hospitalities Saturday at the Hart home on West Catawba Avenue, entertaining at bridge in the afternoon and again in the evening.

Tables were appointed for play amid a colorful display of seasonal flowers. In the living room a fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli graced the mantel, and bowls of roses grown in the Hart garden and shading from pink to deep red were used at other points in the room. Arrangements of multicolored zinnias were used in the den and blooming potted plants decorated the screened terrace.

Eight tables were in play in the afternoon and five in the evening. The hostesses served cokes to refresh the guests during progressions, and when cards were laid aside a prettily appointed salad course with accessories and iced tea.

When scores were tallied at the afternoon party Mrs. Frank L. Rankin proved to be the winner of the high score award, Mrs. J. Ward Rhyne won low, and the floating prize went to Mrs. J. B. Thompson.

Present for the affair were Mrs. Rankin, Mrs. Rhyne, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Ted C. Johnson, Mrs. Kenneth Jones, Mrs. David Mason, Mrs. James H. Ware, Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mrs. Clyde Loftin, Mrs. Charles R. ## BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

The Dead Sea represents death because there is no outlet. That same thing happens to us spiritually unless there is an outlet in service. "As the Father hath sent me, even so send I you" will be the text of the message Sunday morning in the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. L. S. Clark. "OUR SUPREME TASK" will be the subject. The above words of our Lord spoken just after the resurrection are significant for two reasons.

1. First, He makes Himself equal with the Father in claiming the right to what the Father does.

2. In the second place, He associates his disciples with Himself in promoting the eternal purpose of God in world redemption.

He is Divine, and we are human.

He came to reveal the Father, we are to proclaim this revelation. He came to provide redemption, we are to preach redemption. Our Lord is emphasizing that his mission and ours is the same. To carry out his commission we must have an adequate motive—a conquering spirit, and be sufficiently empowered for our work. If we have failed Him in the past, He comes to us again saying, "Arise, Let's Go."

No evening service, but Training Union for ages as usual at 6:30 p. m. Come and make much of this training hour.

Wednesday: Intermediate choir practice at 6:30 p. m. Senior choir practice at 7:30 p. m.
