

ONE OF THE OUTSTANDING HORSES ENTERED IN LOCAL SHOW

RUMBA, TRICK MULE, TO BE HERE

Rumba, the trick mule, will appear at the Mount Holly Horse Show next Tuesday. Rumba will add a lot of comedy to the show and everyone will enjoy his antics. Rumba is something new for a Mount Holly Horse Show and Ralph Leonard, manager, stated that he was delighted that this famous mule would be here.

Two Mount Holly Boys Get Draft Call

Only two Mount Holly men, John Lawson Flowers and Paul William Wiley, were on the list of registrants who will be inducted into the Armed Forces on October 18, Lyle Edwards, chairman of the county Selective Service Board, announced this week. The list released this week totaled 51 men who will leave on October 18 for induction. Five men from Belmont were on the list with the majority of the inductees coming from Gastonia.

Fire Week Is Observed Locally

Fire Prevention Week is being observed in Mount Holly this week with particular emphasis being placed on the local schools by the Mount Holly Volunteer Fire Department. A fire drill was held at the local schools yesterday morning and all students and teachers cleared the buildings in record time in the surprise drill.

Each year Fire Prevention Week is observed all over the nation with Fire Departments in each town and city forming the backbone of the drive for safety and prevention of fire. Pointing out the importance of foresight in prevention of fire, Fire Chief Ralph Holland this week asked all local residents to take this opportunity to check their homes and places of business for fire hazards. "Check bad wiring, overloaded circuits, oily rags hidden about the basement or attic, old newspapers or other paper which can be dangerous, and be sure that all hazards are removed to be safe," he stated. Electrical appliances which are placed on overloaded circuits are responsible for a large percentage of the fires in homes each year and each place of business and homes if possible should be provided with some type of fire extinguisher.

NOTICE

The Horse Show tickets stolen from car of Manager Ralph Leonard, of the Show, yesterday will do no one any good. Mr. Leonard has the numbers of the tickets, which were of the roll type, and knows exactly those that have been sold. Since the tickets were stolen all those sold to-date have been cancelled and new ones will be given to all who have already bought. Check back with the person from whom you bought your ticket for a new one. Mr. Leonard regrets this inconvenience but appreciates the cooperation he knows he will get from the good people of Mount Holly.

Cosner Starts Jayvee Drive

$208.51 was raised in one day by a few students from Mount Holly High School working with Mr. J. A. Costner, chairman of the drive for funds to purchase football uniforms for the Junior Varsity team at the high school. This has been the only opportunity for a concentrated effort since the drive for funds began, but it is hoped that the students will again be able to canvass downtown Mount Holly next week. The drive is going very well, and Mr. Costner expressed his pleasure this week with the amount of money given by local businessmen during the short drive held last week.

Those donating to the drive were:

- J. A. Costner, Max Childers, J. Z. Patterson, Billy C. Spittle, Sanitary Cafe, Dr. Howard Huff, Nick's Grill, Jack Loftin, Dr. A. U. Stroupe, Delmas Abernathy, Ivey Henkle, Johnny York, Bobby Benfield, Pete McCorkle, Kelly Summey, O. E. Massey, Ken Moore, Rankin's Department Store, Paul Derr, Leonard Jones, Marvin Clark, Whiteway Cleaners, American Yarn and Processing Company, Adrian Johnson, Mrs. Lathan, Mrs. Cloninger, Gene Painter, J. C. Rhyne, Mr. Dameron, Mary Warren, Floyd Abernathy, Juanita Collins, Taylor Motors, Bus Dunn, Clara Rogers, Mount Holly Furniture Company, D. S. Beatty, Gus Chagaris, Ralph Holland, Willis Holland, Anonymous, Holly Grill, Edna Black, T. B. Duckworth, Eugene Lucky, Lawing Furniture and Grocery, and a number of other anonymous donations.

Mr. E. L. Norwood will be in charge of the drive at Duke Power Company plants, it was announced this week and it is hoped that the second canvass of the town section will complete the drive.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wiggins of Gastonia announce the birth of a daughter, Sandra Deane, on October 1 at Gaston Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Wiggins is the former Miss Sarah Deane Cole, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Cole of this place.

Freedom Crusade Is On

Jaycees In Behind Big Nat'l Move

Mount Holly's Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the Crusade for Freedom with Max Childers serving as chairman in charge of the Mount Holly drive, and the drive for signatures on the Freedom Scroll has begun already, it was announced this week. Mr. Childers has named a committee to assist him in carrying the Freedom Scrolls to every potential signer in Mount Holly. The committee includes: Dick Beatty, Luther Corrothers, Buster Dunn, Tommy Dunn, Ken Davis, Dwight Scoggins, Bill Quinn, Harold Henkle, Ivey Henkle, and Peter N. Chagaris. These men will have copies of the Freedom Scroll and will be obtaining signatures this week.

The Gaston County Chairmen of the Crusade for Freedom are co-chairmen James Boyce Garland and Rutherford B. Friday of Gastonia and they have announced the setting up of an organization which should be second to none to obtain the signatures of thousands of Gaston county residents on the Freedom Scroll.

National Chairman in the Crusade for Freedom is General Lucius D. Clay and Regional Chairman is Reuben B. Robertson. R. Gregg Cherry is vice-chairman while other well known residents of this state serve in other offices directing the Crusade for Freedom in this state. A. G. Myers of Gastonia is the county representative on the Advisory Committee in North Carolina.

All over the nation people who believe in the principals of the Crusade for Freedom and who wish to show their active interest in the combatting of Communism by the principals of psychology are signing their names to Freedom Scrolls. Contributing of varying amounts, ranging from the pennies of the poor to the larger checks and dominations made by the more wealthy, are being made to the cause of enlightening those trapped behind the Iron Curtain of Communism.

Every signature on the Freedom Scroll will be permanently enshrined with the Freedom Bell in Berlin as a symbol of American dedication to the cause of world freedom. Radio Free Europe is the only contact many of the people behind the Iron Curtain have with the outside world. The contributions made by those who give as they sign their names on the Freedom Scroll go to the support of this broadcasting schedule. All contributions are voluntary and no-one has to give. But one of the targets of the Crusade for Freedom is to tell the peoples of prisoner states what is really going on in the world of Communism and how the forces of freedom are more alive and powerful than ever before.

In accepting the national chairmanship of the Crusade for Freedom, General Clay issued the following statement of purpose:

"The soul of the world is sick, and the peoples of the world are looking to the United States for leadership and hope. They are looking to us for leadership in a great moral crusade—a crusade for freedom, friendship and faith throughout the earth."

"If we are to prove equal to this desperate need, each U. S. citizen must feel a personal responsibility. We cannot leave the job to government alone."

"The Crusade committee will actively seek from citizens and groups of citizens throughout the country new ideas and new ways of getting the facts of freedom and

FINE HARNESS HORSE IN SHOW

Promises To Be Largest Here To Date

The Mount Holly Horse Show will be held next Tuesday afternoon and night at Hutchison-Lowe Field and with last minute entries still pouring in this week it will undoubtedly develop into the biggest and best horse show held in this section. Beautiful horses from stables in surrounding states and as far away as Florida will be shown at the horse show, which is sponsored each year by the Rotary Club of Mount Holly.

The afternoon show begins promptly at 3 P. M. and the evening show begins at 8 P. M. Lois Gregg, vocalist, and Clarence Eiters, organist of Charlotte, will be a portion of the entertainment program which is being planned.

Horse lovers and those who appreciate the well trained and beautiful animals are going to enjoy the horse show this year more than any other they have attended here, Ralph Leonard, in charge of the show for the Rotary Club, assured News reporters this week.

Among the prize animals which will be seen are Stardust, light dappled grey mare, and Golden Flash, which will be shown by the well known veteran trainer, W. H. Schofield who is now connected with the Galvin Stables of Lenoir and Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Stardust will be shown in dressage exhibition, extraordinary since there are but a limited number of dressage trained horses in the United States. This work is best known in Europe and dates back to centuries past, being of European origin. Dressage is symbolical of higher education in animals and is the most advanced form of horse training and the highest form of equitation. It is effected not by brute force but by kindness and the building up of confidence in the horse. By the use of an understandable equestrian language the rider is able to communicate his wishes to the horse and the horse responds. In all movements, Mr. Leonard pointed out, the horse obeys the rider willingly with calmness and precision and grace.

In two-tracking the horse goes forward and to the right or left in the walk, the trot and the canter and Stardust has been trained to various dressage movements. Golden Flash, golden Arabian gelding will also be shown in series of high school; and to add comedy, the Galvin Stables Mascot, the noted little mule Rumba will be shown. This little mule has been featured at many major engagements throughout the country, including the Chicago Railroad Fair last year, along with Golden Flash, while Stardust has been a feature at leading horse shows in dressage exhibitions, which aside from entertaining, is an educational exhibition in horse training.

The tickets for the horse show are now on sale at the schools and advance sale tickets are going rapidly. Advance tickets cost 25 cents and 50 cents while tickets sold at the gate will be 50 cents and $1.

Plan now to attend the horse show next Tuesday. It will be well worth the price of the tickets.

Hawks Play Cramers On Hutchison-Lowe Grounds

Mount Holly's Hawks will play host to a fighting Cramerton Eagles team tonight at Hutchison-Lowe Park with game time set at 8 p. m., and a host of fans are expected to be on hand to see what the Hawks have in store for the Eagles this year. Last year Cramerton handed the locals a 12-0 win and unless the Hawks are in top form for the game tonight this could be a repeat performance.

The Hawks fell down in the eyes of their fans last week when they dropped a 6-0 game to the underdog Bessemer City squad at Bessemer City last Friday night. Ready for an easy win, the Hawks may have grown overconfident, and the coaches both declare that something was lacking in practice all last week following the Hawk win over Lowell the week before.

The Hawk line fell to pieces before charging Bessemer City players last Friday night and the backfield for the locals barely had a chance to touch the ball in many instances before swarming tacklers were upon them. Hawk aerial attacks proved futile with the passers rushed by tacklers and receivers displaying little receiving talent that evening.

Only one time in the game, and that was in the first quarter before Bessemer City racked up their single tally, did the Hawks display real football teamwork. Settling down to defend their goal after a heartbreaking fumble cost them the ball deep in their own territory, the Hawks buckled down to hold Bessemer City to less than a first down gain. Taking possession of the ball again Mount Holly again fumbled at a critical moment and again lost the ball to Bessemer City. Here too the home team was held to little gain and for the third time the Hawks took the ball. A third fumble again gave the ball to Bessemer City and a pass on the fourth down gave them their single touchdown of the evening.

The Hawks held the home squad to little gain for 11 downs in Hawk territory only to fumble three times and allow a pass receiver to slip across their goal line.

After Bessemer City scored in the first quarter the Hawks blew their own offense sky high and succeeded only in playing a fair defensive game preventing more touchdowns by the Bessemer City eleven.
