

Women's Activities

NANCY G. BARRETT, SOCIAL EDITOR

SUNDAY EVENING GUEST

Leon Moore, a member of the faculty of Mayodan High School near Reidsville was the Sunday evening guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith.

Service Guild Has Social At Church

Mrs. Melvin Fortner and Miss Helen Baxley were hostesses to members of the Wesleyan Service Guild at their November meeting, which followed the Auxiliary meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held Monday evening at the Methodist Church. The meeting took place in the Fellowship room of the educational building.

Miss Doris Clark, Guild president, conducted a session of business matters, and following this there was a social hour, at which the hostesses served a tempting salad course with accessories and coffee.

Woman's Club Remodels Building

Mrs. Annie Bee Sigmon, president of the Adrian-Madora Woman's Club, announced this week that the club has been remodeled and redecorated in recent weeks. The building has an added attractiveness following the remodeling, and the members of the group are proud of the new appearance. The Adrian-Madora Woman's Club numbers among its members ladies of the Adiran and Madora Villages, and the members have an outstanding record in community work. More than forty ladies now belong to the organization. A highlight of the activities undertaken by the club during the past year was a trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C., planned for all the members of the club.

READ THE ADS

"SPOT NEWS"

If You Would A-Wooing Go

You might want to get nearer your favorite gal than under her window. Present a winning close-up with suits carefully cleaned and smartly pressed by our prompt system. Special care given to lapels, trouser creases and areas where dust often lodges. Call us today!

Grier's Dry Cleaners

"NEXT DOOR TO THE NEWS"

Wendy's Grill Proves Popular To Public

Wendy's Grill is located on Highway No. 16 one mile from Riverbend Steam Plant. It is operated by Mrs. R. H. (Wendy) Rhyne, Mrs. Dollie Turner and Mrs. Lewis Howard. They specialize in plate lunches also sandwiches of any kind. Wendy's Grill invites all of their friends and those wanting good food to stop by with us.

A new addition, just completed, and with brand new furnishings in the dining room equips Wendy's Grill to take care of private parties.

The Grill has been opened about three months. Their speciality of Fried Chicken has created for them many new customers. They open from 6 A. M. until 10 P. M. (Adv.)

RETURN TO MT. HOLLY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson, who formerly lived in Washington, D. C., have arrived in Mount Holly to make their home. They are occupying an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Spittle on the Belmont Road. Mrs. Anderson is the former Miss Margaret Paschal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Paschal.

VISIT IN BENFIELD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fisher and daughter of Gastonia were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Benfield.

Rev. and Mrs. Roberts Honor Church Board

The Rev. and Mrs. Ivon L. Roberts entertained at dinner Monday evening at their home, the Methodist parsonage, having as guests members of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church.

Arrangements of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums adorned the living room and the music room, and in the dining room the table was spread with imported linen and centered with a lovely arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Following dinner the regular monthly meeting of the Board was held, with Joyce Clark, chairman, conducting the business session.

Eighteen Stewards were present to enjoy the hospitality.

George H. Moore and niece, Miss Josephine Moore of Charlotte spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore.

VISITS SISTER

Mrs. Jack Summey and son, Terry have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Lee Mercer, Mr. Mercer and son, Larry in Hamlet, N. C. They returned Wednesday.

DINNER GUESTS FRIDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Narvel J. Crawford of Asheville were Friday dinner guests of the former's sister, Mrs. E. L. McCorkle and Mr. McCorkle. The Crawfords were en route to Durham to attend the Homecoming festivities and the Duke-Ga. Tech game at Duke University, where their son, Narvel Crawford, Jr. is a member of the junior class.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Nim Harris and children of Burlington were Friday night dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Harris.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beach of Mount Holly announce the engagement of their daughter, Melinda, to Roy Broome, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Broome of Gastonia. The wedding will take place November 25th.

Abernathy Home Is Scene Of Lovely Party

A delightful social event of the past week was the dessert bridge given by Mrs. F. H. Abernathy, Jr. and Mrs. Barbara Hovis, who entertained Friday evening at the Abernathy home on West Glendale Avenue.

Tables were set up for play amid a colorful profusion of fall flowers. The entrance hall and the living room were decorated with arrangements of roses and yellow chrysanthemums, and in the dining room the table was centered with a bowl of red roses. Here also the buffet was graced with a massive arrangement of giant white chrysanthemums. Centering each individual table was a miniature frosted pumpkin filled with dainty baby chrysanthemums and maline, this bearing the table number. The fall theme was also followed in the tallies.

Following the dessert course several progressions of bridge were enjoyed, and during the game the hostesses, who were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Joe Check, served cokes and mixed nuts.

After scores were tallied Mrs. Clyde Loftin was announced as the winner of high score award, with second high going to Mrs. Jeffre Hart. Mrs. Carl Sherrill of Belmont claimed the floating prize, and low score prize was presented to Miss Ruth Craig. Mrs. Paul Anderson, who has recently arrived in Mount Holly to make her home, was remembered with a gift.

Those playing were Mrs. Loftin, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Sherrill, Miss Craig, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Peter N. Chagaris, Mrs. Joe Jones, Mrs. David Mason, Mrs. T. A. Dunn, Jr., Mrs. Gordon Eaves, Mrs. Max L. Childers, Mrs. E. T. Venning, Jr., Mrs. W. F. Ballard, Miss Goldie Kale, Mrs. W. M. Beaty, Mrs. Charles Ballard, Mrs. Donald Davis, Mrs. O. R. McKinney, Jr., Mrs. M. J. Haverty, Mrs. Harry M. Thompson, Jr., Miss Dorothy Kile, Miss Dorothy Calvert, Mrs. Baxter McIntosh, Mrs. B. C. Taylor, Sr., Mrs. J. Ward Rhyne, Miss Rachel Caig, Miss Nancy Craig, Mrs. T. L. Ware, Jr., Mrs. James L. Davenport, Mrs. J. Courtland Hurt, Mrs. Bob Cook, Mrs. Jack Summey, Mrs. Charles Moffatt, Mrs. Paul Jones, Miss Ruth Martin of Shelby and Miss Marjorie Roper of Belmont.

ATTENDED BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

Among those attending the Tuesday evening session of the bridge tournament sponsored by the Gastonia Division of the American Contract Bridge Association were Miss Topsy Dunn, Mrs. Flynn Warren, Mrs. O. E. Massey and Mrs. Frank L. Rankin.

LEAVE FOR WASH., D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Talton of Washington, D. C. left Tuesday after several days visit here with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Talton.

VISIT IN BELTON, S. C.

H. G. Harris spent the weekend with relatives in Belton, S. C. and attended the football game at Clemson.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones announce the birth of a daughter, Sarah Mae, Nov. 1 at Prsebyterian Hospital, Charlotte. The Joneses have a young son, Kenneth, Jr. Mrs. Jones and the infant daughter have returned to their home on Summit Avenue.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. E. K. Black is a patient at Mercy Hospital, Charlotte, where she is receiving treatment.

Open House Enjoyed At School Thursday

Open House was held at the Mount Holly Schools last night for the second successive year with faculty of the school and members of the Parent-Teachers Association playing host to an anticipated 1000 or more guests. Last year the Open House, at which each class gave special demonstrations, was a great success and the Parent-Teachers Association and the schools anticipated a greater program this year.

Each classroom in the schools prepared a special program for the event this year with several giving demonstration classes in their special subjects while others prepared different demonstrations and special programs.

SONS OF HENRY H. RHYNE HONORED

Gainesville, Ga., November 1—Henry H. Rhyne, Jr., and George N. Rhyne, sons of Mr. Henry H. Rhyne, Mt. Holly, North Carolina, have been named as Platoon Sergeant and Corporal respectively, in the Junior unit of Riverside Military Academy of this city and Hollywood, Florida. They have received this recognition on the basis of their records according to special orders just published by this separate department of Riverside Military Academy. The Junior Unit consists of approximately 100 Cadets of the entire Cadet Corps of some 500 boys from 33 states and territories and 15 foreign countries.

VISIT IN STATESVILLE

Miss Pinkie Patterson spent the weekend in Statesville visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foster.

GUESTS OF HARTS

Miss Ruth Martin of Shelby was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joffre Hart.

SPEND WEEK IN S. C.

Mrs. R. S. Stabler is spending this week in Columbia, S. C. visiting relatives.

GUESTS OF MISS BAXLEY

Miss Peggy Harvey of Lincolnton spent the weekend with Miss Helen Baxley.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Mrs. Douglas R. Johnson of Tarboro spent the past weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Holland. She was accompanied to Mount Holly by Mrs. Marcus Carter and Mrs. Luther Painter, who visited relatives here.

PELZER VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Kayro Johnson of Pelzer, S. C. spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Painter.

ATTEND LENOIR-RHYNE GAME

Among Mount Holly people attending the football game at Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory Saturday night were Misses Dorothy Calvert and Rachel Craig, Boyd Arndt, Lewis Calvert, Jr. and Jim Cross.

VISITING PARENTS

Mrs. O. R. McKinney, Jr., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ridings in Forest City.

H. POINT SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Calvert, Mrs. K. R. Deter, Miss Edith Holland and Karl Reid Deter visited in High Point Sunday.

VISIT PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brinkley of Fayetteville spent the past weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kendrick.

HERE FROM GA.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Early and Roy Early, Jr. of Atlanta, Ga. were the weekend guests of Mrs. Early's mother, Mrs. Mollie Harris.

VISIT NOLES

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Costner and Miss Nancy Costner of Lexington and George Brady of Charlotte were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Noles.

ATTENDED DUKE HOMECOMING

The Rev. and Mrs. Ivon L. Roberts attended the Homecoming festivities at Duke University Saturday, and the Duke-Ga. Tech football game.

Mrs. Emma Kendall of Charlotte is visiting her nieces, Misses Emma and Edith Holland.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Holland and Mrs. Ray Bailey of Shelby spent Sunday afternoon visiting at the home of Misses Emma and Edith Holland.

LOTS OF LUCK

Mrs. George Wightman, of Lakewood, Ohio, recent bride, was one of the six listener contestants on "Grand Slam's" big Anniversary Celebration held recently. "Grand Slam," heard on CBS Mon. thru Fri., presented each of the six "at home" winners on the first two days of Anniversary Week with an all-expense paid airplane trip to New York to guest at the program. Mrs. Wightman also won a fitted handbag and an automatic iron when her opponent in the studio failed to answer two of her musical questions. Left to right are Walter C. Davis, with the local branch of Continental Baking Company, Mrs. Wightman, Mr. Wightman and (inset) lovely Irene Beasley, Mistress of Ceremonies on "Grand Slam."

HOME FOR WEEKEND

Bill Johnston, a member of the freshman class at Davidson College, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clyde Johnston.

HERE FROM U.N.C.

Henry Kale, Jr., a student at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, spent the weekend here with his parents. He was accompanied by his room mate, Jimmy Williamson.

Noah Sadler of Roanoke Rapids, a student at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Alligood.

HERE FROM LINCOLNTON

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison and daughters, Patricia and Sheila Ann of Lincolnton spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McClure.

CLASS MEETING

The Willing Workers Class of the Methodist Church will meet next Tuesday night, November 14th, at the home of Miss Rozella Abernathy. Mrs. L. L. Kile and Mrs. Foy Sadler will be associate hostess.

TUESDAY IN ASHEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Bumgardner, Mrs. Noah Huffstetler, and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Farris spent Tuesday in Asheville at W. A. McElduff's firm on Patton Avenue. Mr. McElduff, who deals in artificial limbs and braces has had much experience in this line, and has been very successful there for the past four years.

IN GA.

Mrs. J. C. Cannon has gone to Atlanta, Ga. for an extended visit with her son, Fred L. Cannon and Mrs. Cannon.

FALL'S OWN Lady Slipper

A-bloom on your foot for fall's nicest occasions—a dainty lady-slipper upon a tiny heel, with a butterfly bow on the vamp.

Gleaming in rich brown suede. Only

3.98

Paul Derr

PUT YOUR WARDROBE ON A

... with the leather-looped smartness of this snug little flattie of soft, comfy glove leather. Just put your foot in it... and relax! In red. Only

4.95

Paul Derr