HELD OVER FROM LAST WEEK

Woodward-Nicks

(An account of this wedding was given two weeks ago, but not in detail, hence the second report.)

A marriage of cordial interest to a host of friends took place at Trinity Methodist Church in Waycross Dec. 31, when Miss Mary Cathryn Woodward, of Hazlehurst, became the bride to Mr. Samuel Freeman Nicks, Jr., of Roxboro, N. C., at a beautiful six o'clock ceremony performed by the groom's father, Rev. S. F. Nicks, Sr., of Cedar Grove, N. C. A large assemblage of relatives and friends of the popular couple were in attendance.

The altar, which was artistically decorated with arrangements of ferns, palms and baskets filled with yellow chrysanthemums interspersed with myriads of white lighted tapers made a lovely setting for the bridal party.

Mrs. W. C. Townsend presided at the piano and accompanied Miss Mildred Cromartie, of Hazlehurst, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony. The Bridal Chorus from Wagner's Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional.

The ushers were Dr. Robert E. Long, Mr. Bickford Long, Mr. James Harris and Mr. Len Heffner, all of Roxboro, N. C.

Miss Norma Evans, of Hazlehurst, the attractive maid-of-honor, was gowned in ashes of roses taffeta fashioned along princess lines with dropped shoulder effect. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. Little Miss Joy Carter of Orlando, Florida, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was daintily clad in a floor-length model of yellow net over taffeta carrying on her arm a French basket of rose petals and a nosegay of yellow button chrysanthemums.

The bride was lovely in a Patou model of ivory satin featuring full sleeves to the elbow ending in a tight pointed cuff over the hands. The close fitting skirt flared into a train and her exquisite veil of French lace arranged in cap effect was fastened to the hair with rhinestone clips. The bridal bouquet was of bride's roses showered with valley lilies. Mr. Robert L. Nicks, of Duke University, Durham, N. C., was his brother's best man.

The bride is popularly known in Hazlehurst and also in Waycross, where she frequently visits her sister, Mrs. Floyd Williams. After graduating from the Hazlehurst High Schools she attended the Georgia State College for Women, at Milledgeville and the Atlanta Conservatory of Music. She is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Woodward, of Hazlehurst, and is a very attractive and accomplished lady.

Mr. Nicks is the son of Rev. S. F. Nicks and Mrs. Nicks of Cedar Grove, N. C. He was graduated from Duke University, at Durham, N. C., being awarded his A.B. degree in 1929 and his L.L.B. degree in 1932. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity and is an attorney at law in Roxboro, N. C.

Following a wedding trip to Miami and other points in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Nicks will be at home after January 12th, Roxboro, N. C.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. Catherine Woodward of Hazlehurst, Mrs. Fay W. Carter of Orlando, Fla., Mr. Stephen Carter of Orlando, Fla., Mrs. D. W. Cook of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Woodward of Orlando, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Woodward of Macon, Mrs. W. J. Woodward and Miss Melba Woodward of Winder, Ga., Mrs. S. F. Nicks, Sr., of Cedar Grove, N. C., Misses Stella and Katherine Nicks of Roxboro and Cedar Grove, N. C., Mr. Hilman Stanfield of Roxboro, Col. Hugh Lowe, of Wheeling, W. Va., Mr. D. L. Evans, Jr., of Hazlehurst, Miss Jessie Campbell of Tallahassee, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Evans of Homerville, Dr. E. W. Oates of Swainsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jarman and Miss Ada Beth Jarman of Hazlehurst, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Corbitt and Verlon Corbitt of Hazlehurst.

Mrs. Guffey Is Hostess

Mrs. Joe Guffey was hostess to the Ace high club on Tuesday night of this week when she entertained at three tables of bridge.

Beautiful narcissi was used to decorate the living room where several progressions at the game were enjoyed. Scores were added at the conclusion of the game and Miss Lottie Bailey was presented club high prize. To Mrs. Frank Williams went the guest prize and Miss Bivins Winstead was winner of consolation.

Delicious chicken salad, sandwiches and hot coffee were served to the following: Misses Lottie Bailey, Rosa Yarborough, Bivins Winstead, Mary Riley and Louise Pulliam; Mesdames Victor Satterfield, Riley Oakley, R. V. Murray, Bill Minor, David Carver, McIver Featherstone and Frank Williams.

Rhew-Wagoner

Miss Evana Rhew of Roxboro and Mr. Vernon Wagoner of Timberlake were united in marriage at Danville, Va. on Saturday, December 21, 1935.

The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of blue with blue accessories to match.

Mrs. Wagoner is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rhew of Roxboro. Mr. Wagoner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagoner. He is connected with John Watts Sons Co.

Missionary Society Met Friday

In answer to an invitation from Mesdames K. C. Wagstaff and Emory Winstead, and Miss Ruth Hester, the Concord Missionary Society met at Mrs. K. C. Wagstaff's home at five o'clock on Friday, January the fifth, for a dinner party. The invitation awakened keen anticipation but reality exceeded every anticipation. A warm welcome awaited us in the rooms made comfortable with open fires and beautiful ferns and blooming plants.

Pink candles, narcissi, and hyacinths, skillfully arranged, in the dining room made a lovely setting for a three course turkey dinner. Twenty-eight people, including guests, were served and thoroughly enjoyed doing this feasting justice. The hostesses ably maintained their reputation for artistic decoration and generous hospitality.

Wednesday Club Meets

Mrs. R. P. Burns was a charming hostess to the Wednesday afternoon bridge club on Wednesday afternoon.

Y. T. H. F. THRIFT WORK AT BETHEL HILL

The local chapter of Young Tar Heel Farmers has as a part of its chapter activities the organization and operation of a thrift bank. The object of this activity is to encourage thrift and learn the proper use of money received from the supervised home work of the members. Good investments are encouraged and each member will have the capital needed to finance his home work.

At a mid-year inventory of the thrift work, the following facts were revealed: Twenty-nine members had joined the thrift club. These beautifully appointed living room and many interesting progressions were enjoyed. Mrs. J. D. Morris, Jr. was winner of club prize—a pretty silk pillow; Mrs. A. M. Burns won visitors prize—lovely book-ends.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood
YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all upset. Don't delay? Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.
