Mesdames Burns and Thomas High Scorers

Mesdames A. M. Burns and E. E. Thomas were high scorers for the club and visitors respectively at a lovely party given by Mrs. Oveida Long for the Tuesday bridge club at her home on Lamar street on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock.

Pretty spring flowers were attractively arranged in the living room where three tables were placed for the club members and a few invited guests. Several hours were enjoyed at the game of bridge.

The hostess served her guests a lovely three-course luncheon.

Miss Hester Entertains

On Tuesday night of this week Miss Mary Hester was a charming hostess to her club and a few invited guests.

Three tables were placed in the attractively decorated living room for the delightful game of bridge. Several pleasant hours were spent at the game after which scores were added and prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. G. Bradsher for club high score and Miss Texas Morris for visitor's high score.

The hostess served a delicious salad course with hot tea to the following: Mesdames E. E. Thomas, C. H. Oakley, J. J. Woody, Clyde Bowen, W. G. Bradsher, G. I. Prillaman, Frank Wilson and Mrs. Garnette; Misses Marie Garland, Texas Morris, and Claire Harris.

Mrs. Wallace Harris Has Club

On Tuesday night of this week Mrs. Wallace Harris was hostess to her club and a few invited guests at her home on Lamar street.

Two tables were placed in the living room for bridge. Mrs. Bill Walker was club high scorer for the evening and Mrs. Lawrence Woods scored high for the visitors. The hostess served a splendid sweet course with hot coffee to her guests. Those present were: Mesdames Henry Walker, Bill Walker, Lawrence Woods, Martin Michie; Misses Rose Woods, Winnie McWhorter, Nellie Smith and Virginia Brandon.

Thursday Literary Club Meets

The Thursday Literary Club met with Mrs. Hugh Woods this afternoon with Mrs. E. B. Craven presiding. The subject for the afternoon was "Poetic Inspirations." Roll call was answered in rhyme, showing much budding poetic talent among the members, including the most timid.

Mrs. Wheeler Newell delighted her audience with "Harmonical Musical Laughs." Mrs. Earl Bradsher followed with "Poetry and Music." Both of these ladies are talented musicians and always hold their audiences spell-bound.

Mrs. Woods invited her guests into the dining room where she, assisted by her daughter, served tempting refreshments.

The B. & F. Club Meets

Miss Ruth Jefferson was a charming hostess on Tuesday night of this week to the members of the B. & F. club at her lovely apartment in Hotel Roxboro. Pretty Valentine decorations were effectively used for the occasion.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Lorena Wade. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Ellen Marie Sears, the minutes were read by Miss Ora Latta. Following a short business session a most interesting program was given. The subject for the evening was "World Peace, Is It Possible?" Quite a number of papers were read on the topic, which is at all times most essential to the welfare of the nation.

The hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cakes and chocolate milk. Valentine candies were given each guest as favors.

Use of peat moss on tobacco plant beds is receiving a careful test this season in all parts of the State. It is felt that the moss will aid in the control of blue mold.

Mrs. Dawes Entertains

Mrs. R. B. Dawes was hostess to her club and a few invited guests on last Saturday evening at her home on High School Drive.

The living room was very attractive with potted plants and winter greens. Tables were arranged for the game of contract. Club high-score honors were awarded to Mrs. B. B. Strum and visitor's prize was given Mrs. E. E. Thomas. Mrs. R. B. Griffin, as guest of honor, was awarded a pretty gift.

A tempting salad course with hot tea was served the guests.

Book Club Has Meeting

Mrs. G. W. Kane was hostess to the Friday afternoon Book Club on Thursday afternoon at her home on Barnett Avenue.

Card tables were arranged in the living room and pretty place cards were given the guests. A delicious four course luncheon was served.

The delightful game of Boston Rook was enjoyed for several hours after luncheon.

Dr. Robert Long Gives Party

Dr. Robert Long was a gracious host to a few of his friends on last Thursday evening at his home on Main street. Ping pong, hearts dice and monopoly were enjoyed during the evening.

At the conclusion of the affair delicious hot chocolate was served by Miss Evie Long, assisted by Mr. D. L. Long.

Those present were: Miss Nancy Cox, James C. Harris, Miss Evelyn Buchanan, L. T. Heffner, Miss Mary Hester, Robert Long, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Nicks, Jr., E. B. Craven and F. O. Carver.

Woman's Club

The Woman's club of Roxboro will hold its regular monthly meeting on the afternoon of Feb. 3rd at 3 o'clock at the Community House.

Mrs. Flint Nichols, chairman of the Department of Education and Literature, will have charge of the program. This announcement in itself should be an incentive to draw a large crowd of our club women to hear the good things "Miss Mildred" has in store for us. When she has charge of a program we know something interesting is bound to occur.

Business of much importance is also scheduled to come before the club at this meeting. One item being the appointing of a nominating committee for the election of new officers for next club season.

The president requests a full attendance of club members.

Lovely Party Is Given

Mrs. E. V. Boatwright was high scorer at a lovely party given by Mrs. E. E. Thomas on last Friday night at her home on Reams Avenue. Several very interesting progressions were enjoyed at the game of bridge.

Those present for the affair were: Mesdames E. V. Boatwright, R. B. Dawes, H. M. Beam, W. G. Bradsher, C. A. Wright, William Warren, Frank Wilson, F. W. A. Mills, S. A. Jones, G. C. Hunter, and Mrs. Cunningham.

Research Club Meets

The Research club had a very interesting meeting on Wednesday, January 29th with Mrs. W. T. Pass. Mrs. A. M. Burns, president of the club, presided at the meeting. The subject for the afternoon study was "Jews In History and In Fiction." The first paper, "The Making of the Modern Jew," by Milton Speinberg was given by Mrs. Jack Hughes. The second paper, "The Oppermans," by Lion Feuchtwanger was read by Mrs. L. M. Carlton. Both papers were exceedingly interesting in the light thrown upon the modern Jew.

Following the program Mrs. Pass invited the guests into the dining room where she was assisted by Miss Myrtle McDade in serving delicious refreshments.

Miss Puckett Entertains Y. W. A.

A very interesting meeting of the Y. W. A. was held at the home of Miss Virginia Puckett on Monday night. The meeting was opened with the devotional exercises.

Miss Ora Latta had charge of the program, the topic of which was "Thy Kingdom Come." Interesting papers in line with the subject were read by Misses Lorena Wade, Margaret Jackson, Helen Latta, Alma Bradsher, Virginia Puckett and Ruth Franklin. The roll call was followed by the regular routine business.

The hostess served an appetizing salad course with hot coffee. Pretty Valentine favors were given each guest.

Others present were: Misses Minnie McGregor, Lucille Oliver, Helen Bradsher, Mary Sue Whitt, Dorothy Warren, Lucille Davidson and Mesdames Alvin Warren, A. R. Warren and Marvin Long.

Wednesday Club Meets

At three o'clock on last Wednesday afternoon Miss Mary Harris was a delightful hostess to the Wednesday afternoon bridge club at her home on North Main street.

The living rooms were very pretty with many potted plants. Four tables were arranged for the game and after several interesting progressions were played, scores were added and prizes were given Mrs. R. P. Burns for club high and to Mrs. Arch Jones for visitors high.

The hostess served a delicious salad course, sandwiches and coffee to the following: Mesdames W. C. Bullock, E. V. Boatwright, W. E. Bowles, R. P. Burns, Oveida Long, J. D. Morris, Jr., T. B. Woody, E. E. Thomas, F. W. A. Mills, Arch Jones, Gordon Hunter, Curtis Oakley, B. B. Strum, R. H. Shelton and Mrs. Sherman.

Mrs. Murray Is Hotess

On last Wednesday evening Mrs. Russell V. Murray was a charming hostess to the members of the Ace High bridge club at her home on Charles street.

Three tables were placed in the beautifully appointed living room and several very interesting progressions were enjoyed. At the close of the game, scores were added and to Mrs. W. H. Adair went club high prize and to Mrs. Bill Minor went the prize for second honors.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. L. Woods, served her guests a delicious fruit salad course, open-face sandwiches, saltines, pickles and coffee.

Those present were: Mesdames B. B. Knight, Victor Satterfield, Joe Guffey, McIver Featherston, W. H. Adair, Bill Minor, Riley Oakley; Misses Louise Pulliam, Bivins Winstead, Lottie Bailey, Rosa Yarborough, and Mary Riley.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM LAND

On Saturday, February 8, 1936, at 12:00 o'clock, noon, at the court house door in Roxboro, N. C., the undersigned will sell at public sale to the highest bidders two tracts or parcels of land hereinafter described, formerly owned by T. C. Barnette, late, of Person County, N. C., and now owned by his estate, lying in Person County, N. C., viz:

FIRST TRACT: Containing 166 acres, more or less, lying on the public highway leading from Ceppo to McGhee's Mill, near McGhee's Mill, adjoining said road, lands of T. O. Pass, Mrs. T. C. Barnette, the Cunningham lands, Estate of J. A. Long, and others. On this place is located a good six-room dwelling, three curing barns, a pack house, a feed barn, a crib, and a tenant house. Also a good well. There is also on this land a fine quantity of original growth timber.

SECOND TRACT: Containing 155 acres, more or less, situated in Allensville Township, known as the Ben West home place, adjoining lands of J. J. Hambrick, W. T. Pass, J. P. West and others. On this place is located a dwelling house, two curing barns, a stable, a feed barn, a well and other improvements.

Both of these farms are rented for the year 1936. The purchasers will be entitled to immediate possession, and will receive the rent for the year 1936.

The sale will remain open for 10 days for 5% increased bids. The purchasers will be expected to deposit 5% of their bids on the day of sale as evidence of good faith. Any one desiring to look over either place will please apply to the occupants, who will be glad to accompany them.

This January 29, 1936.
Mrs. T. C. Barnette,

{ QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING }

"What obligations do I have to my Bank?"

Your bank assumes important obligations when it accepts your money for deposit. In return it asks from you:

- Your confidence—for without the confidence of depositors no bank can operate successfully.
- Your support of its policy of making only sound loans of your money and that of other depositors.
- Your understanding and endorsement of the fundamental banking principle that in order to give you and the community a sound, well managed bank it must avoid operating losses in conducting its accounts. It does this through moderate service charges where circumstances require.

A bank is primarily a community enterprise. While good management and good service are essential it cannot operate successfully without the confidence and aid of its depositors.

Your deposits are insured against loss by fire, theft, or impulsive speculation. When you entrust your savings to us and are assured of Federal Depositors' Insurance protection.

In Memory of Mrs. Degrotte

On the day of Jan. 15, 1936, the death angel entered and took our darling Aunt Laura Ann McDowell Degrotte.

That precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in her home that never can be filled.

She had been in declining health for the past few years, but seriously ill for only a few weeks. She bore her suffering patiently without murmur or word. In silence she suffered, in patience she bore until God called her home to suffer no more.

All was done for her that loving children, doctors and nurses could do, but nothing could stay the cold hand of death. The death angel called and she answered, "Let me die."

She was always kind, loving and true to every one. God needed a shining angel to complete his holy band, and now she rests with Jesus in that fair and happy land.

She is survived by three broken-hearted children: Mrs. J. S. Taylor, Reidsville, N. C., Mrs. C. H. McWay, Charlotte, N. C. and Mrs. Geo. A. Taylor, Milton, N. C. One sister also survives.

Funeral services were conducted at her home Thursday, January 16 at 3:30 o'clock at Wentworth Street, Reidsville, N. C. Her pastor, Rev. R. A. Allen was the officiating minister.

Interment followed in the cemetery at Reidsville.

HER NEICE,
CROWD ATTACKS OFFICES
OF RED PAPER IN LONDON

London, Jan. 22—A large crowd, angered by published remarks about King George V. gathered outside the publisher's office of a Communist newspaper early today, smashed the windows, and damaged two automobiles.

Police, called out when the crowd showed signs of breaking into the office, restored order. Students and Fascists were among the demonstrators.

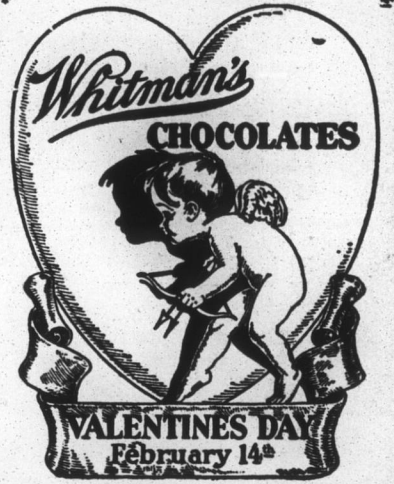

An income of 7 percent on the investment was the highest recorded by farmers of Graham County who kept records last year.

Following a talk made before the Tryon Rotary Club by the farm agent, a business concern gave $30 to be used in buying a registered bull for use in the county.

Fifteen self-feeders have been built in Blanden County since Christmas and more than 1,000 hogs are to be put on feed before spring, reports the farm agent.
