Circle Number 1 Meets

Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist church had a very interesting meeting with Mrs. A. M. Burns on Monday afternoon at three o'clock. A short business session was held. The study course for the quarter was started. "Personal Service" is the topic for study.

Following the program the hostess served a delicious sweet course to the following: Mesdames J. T. Wade, J. H. Bass, Robert Burns, Curtis Oakley, E. V. Boatwright, J. W. Montague, Sr., Lundie Harris, Willie Pettigrew, Melvin Clayton, Mollie Barrett, Arch Jones, F. W. A. Mills, J. M. Pass and B. B. Knight.

Miss Ella Wilkerson Is Hostess

Miss Ella Wilkerson entertained a few of her friends at her country home on the Lock Lilly Road last Friday evening.

The living room was very attractively decorated in Valentine decorations. Various games, contests, and stunts were pulled off during the evening and the affair proved to be quite enjoyable for all those present.

The hostess served her guests a delicious salad course followed by a sweet course. Those present were: Misses Lucille Long, Libby Pulliam, Etta Monk, Dorothy Warren, Melba O'Brien, Annie Lee Newman; Messrs. Red Malette, Jack Cottingham, R. E. Daniel, Ralph Tucker, and John Wesley Jones.

Anograms Is Enjoyed

Mrs. A. F. Nichols was hostess to her club at her home on Academy street on last Friday evening. Anograms was enjoyed at two tables arranged in the nicely appointed living room. Mrs. E. B. Craven was high scorer for the evening. She was awarded a pretty gift.

The hostess served a delicious sweet course with nuts to the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Craven, Mesdames Hugh Woods, Burley Clayton, H. K. Sanders, and Miss Inda Collins.

Thursday Club Meets

On Thursday evening of last week Mrs. William Warren entertained the members of the Thursday bridge club and a few invited guests at her home in Ca-Vel Circle.

Four tables were arranged in the living room for play. After several very interesting progressions, scores were added and Mrs. Chris Waggoner scored high for the club: Mrs. E. E. Thomas was visitor's high scorer and Mrs. Frank McDonald scored low for the club. To each of these Mrs. Warren presented a pretty electric sandwich toaster.

The hostess, assisted by Mesdames Thomas Dixon and Cunningham, served her guests delicious fruit salad.

Club members present were: Mesdames Cunningham, Thomas Dixon, George Currier, Stuart Ford, Charles Wright, Chris Waggoner, Gus Deering, W. G. Bradsher, and F. H. McDonald. Visitors playing were: Mesdames Featherston, Riley Oakley, E. E. Thomas, B. B. Strum, Elizabeth Masten Cheek; Misses Mary and Claire Harris.

Lawson-Burns

The marriage of Mrs. Zula Green Lawson of Roxboro and Rev. Lacy H. Burns of Durham was quietly performed at 8 o'clock Monday evening, February 3, 1936, at the home of Rev. G. W. Ellmore of Ca-Vel, N. C. The impressive ring ceremony was used in uniting the young couple.

The bride was attractively attired in a costume of green with all matching accessories. She is the daughter of Mrs. Della A. Green of this city. For the past several years she has been a member of the office force of Collins and Aikman Corporation of this city.

Rev. Burns is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burns of Dawson, Va. He is at present doing post-graduate work at Duke University, Durham, N. C. For the past few years he has had supply work at the Methodist church at Jalong, N. C. where he has won the hearts of all his people.

Those present for the service were: Mrs. G. W. Ellmore, Misses Rose Ellen Woods, Lois Ellmore and Mrs. Ted Holeman.

Joint Hostesses At Meeting

Mesdames Robert Whitfield, E. M. Bailey, Stonewall Jackson, and Dewey Young were joint hostesses to the Philathea class of the First Baptist church at the home of the former Tuesday night.

Mrs. W. K. Moore, president of the class, opened the meeting with devotional. A business hour followed.

The hostess served sandwiches, pickles and hot chocolate. Pretty Valentine cups filled with nuts were given each guest as favors.

Wednesday Club Meets

Mrs. Thomas Woody was a delightful hostess to the Wednesday bridge club on Wednesday morning of this week.

Five tables were placed in the living room where the club game was enjoyed for several hours. At the conclusion of the game, scores were added and prizes were given Mrs. Robert Burns for club high and to Mrs. Arch Jones for visitor's high.

The hostess served a delicious turkey course with plum pudding and coffee.
