Mrs. Robertson Is Honored

Mrs. James Robertson, a recent bride, was honored Friday evening when Miss Margaret Brooks entertained at a lovely bridge and linen shower party at her home in Woodsdale.

Three tables of contract were in play. After several progressions, the guests were invited into the dining room to a beautifully appointed table, with its pretty lace cover and centerpiece designed to represent a miniature lake.

The reflector was outlined around the edge with green. In the center was an island of white freesias and asparagus ferns. Apparently walking in the waters were two silver cranes. This was flanked by tall white tapers burning in green holders. At each corner of the table was a large bow of green and white with flowing ends. The chandelier was decorated with streamers of white and over this at intervals were small shamrocks.

The bride's place was marked with a miniature bride and groom. White tapers in green holders on the mantel and buffet shed a soft light over all. Ice cream in shamrock design, with angel cake was served to twelve guests. In the living room the prizes were distributed. Mrs. Lee Woody of South Boston, Va. won high score, a linen bridge set, and Mrs. R. B. Griffin of Roxboro, second high, a pair of candle holders. These were graciously presented to Mrs. Robertson. Miss Brooks then presented Mrs. Robertson a large white 'treasure' chest tied in green, which contained many lovely and useful gifts of linen.

Mrs. Robertson before her marriage was Miss Evelyn Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. B. E. Mitchell of Woodsdale.
