NEW MUSICAL FILM 'COLLEEN' TO OPEN AT PALACE MON

Palace Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, March 23 and 24.

"Colleen," Warner Bros. latest musical film, opens at the Palace Theatre Monday with an all star cast, including Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Jack Oakie, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda and a score of other principals as well as a couple of hundred chorus beauties and dancing youths.

Robert Lord has provided a real plot for this musical comedy, which tion of the support given me duris said to be packed with delightful ing the campaign that ended March and hilarious fun as well as ro-sents two unique and unusual spec- my memory. For those that I can fai ialty numbers staged by Bobby not thank personally, I am taking th Connolly, famous dance director. this method of thanking you with Co in which scores of beautiful girls my most sincere heartfelt thanks. participate. One is staged aboard an ocean liner, with everyone from the captain to the crew as well as the passenger doing a dance rhythm. The other takes place in a modiste shop in which a veritable style show is featured.

Three original catchy songs were written for the production by the famous composers, Harry Warren and Al Dubin. Powell sings two of these, one with Keeler, while the other, a comedy number, is sung by Miss Blondell and Oakie.

Miss Keeler goes through her famous tap steps, some alone, and also with Paul Drapper, the Broadway dancing wizard, who was taken to Hollywood especially for this

Others in the cast include Marie Wilson. Luis Alberni, Hobart Cavanaugh, Berton Churchill, J. M. Kerrigan, Spencer Charters, Addison Richards, Mary Treen and Charles Coleman. Alfred E. Green directed the production from the screen play by Peter Milne and F. Hugh Her-

DARING THEME IN THE LADY CONSENTS

Playing at Palace Theatre For One Day Only, Friday, March

A glorious and bizarre adventure to make a husband realize he is in love with his wife is indulged in by Ann Harding in "The Lady Consents," in which she co-stars with Herbert Marshall. The story alternates between tense drama and sophisticated comedy and is climaxed with a smashing denoue-

Ann Harding plays a courageous wife who brings her flirtatious husband to time and cures him of his romantic strayings. It is a role madeto-order for Miss Harding, as it combines sparkling comedy and form a fastemotional drama to moving story.

Herbert Marshall plays the philandering doctor who falls an easy prey to the brandishhments of the charming women with whom he comes in contact. He has the poise and the masculine appeal demanded by the character, and has the ability to hold the regard of the audience despite his erring ways.

Walter Abel, seen recently in "The Three Musketeers" and "Two in the Dark," has the sympathetic role of young construction engineer who is in love with Mrs. Talbot, played by Miss Harding.
Other principals include Margaret

Lindsay, Edward Ellis, Hobart Cavanaugh and Ilka Chase.

Stephen Roberts, who directed William Powell and Ginger Rogers in "Star of Midnight," staged the film, with Edward Kaufman as associate producer.

SUPPORT WAS APPRECIATED

I wish to express my apprecia-7. Even though my prize was small mance and some dramatic moments. I have ne regrets. The loyal support As a spectacle, the picture pre- of my true friends will long live in LOUISE OLIVER.
