

SOCIETY

MISS VICTORIA GARRETT
Social Editor

Mrs. Stephens Has Club

The Friday afternoon Rook club met with Mrs. Ruth Stephens at her home on North Main street Friday afternoon.

Pretty jonquils, red buds and spirea were used in the living room decorations. Four tables were arranged for the club game of Boston Rook. Several hours were spent at the game. Books were exchanged at the close of the game.

The hostess served her guests a tempting salad course followed by a sweet course and coffee. Those present were: Mesdames Mamie Merritt, Margaret Teague, B. E. Love, A. M. Burns, J. A. Long, J. W. Noell, H. W. Wintead, Tobe Pass, E. B. Craven, Hugh Woods, W. T. Merritt, W. H. Griffin, E. P. Dunlap, G. W. Kane, I. G. Stephens.

Mrs. Noell Is Hostess

Mrs. J. W. Noell was hostess to three tables of bridge on Thursday afternoon of last week when she entertained in honor of Mrs. T. C. Markham of Durham.

Jonquils and violets were attractively arranged in the living rooms. After playing for several hours, scores were added and Mrs. Curtis H. Oakley was high score winner. She was given dainty perfume. Gifts were also presented the following out-of-town guests; Mesdames J. D. K. Richmond, of South Boston, T. C. Markham, of Durham, and Mrs. Dickerson of Henderson.

The hostess served her guests a delightful two-course dinner.

Mrs. W. G. Bradsher Is Hostess

On Tuesday night of this week Mrs. W. G. Bradsher was hostess to her club and several invited guests at her home on North Main street.

Jonquils and violets were very effectively used in the living room where two tables were arranged for the delightful game of bridge. Quite a number of progressions were played during the evening. When scores were added Mrs. Clyde Bowen was found to hold club high score. She was given a lovely bag. Mrs. Hugh Beam was visitor's high score winner and she was given guest towels.

The hostess served her guests a delightful sweet course with coffee.

Kinozelian Class Has Meeting

The Kinozelian class of the First Baptist church had an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Brooks on Monday night of this week. Miss Ora Latta led the class in devotional exercises. Mrs. A. R. Warren led in prayer. A short business session followed.

Hearts dice was enjoyed during the social hour. Several very pleasant hours were passed at the game. The hostess served her guests a delicious sweet course. Those present were: Misses Helen and Alma Bradsher, Annie Louis Apple, Helen and Ora Latta, Lucille Davidson; Mesdames Alvir Warren, A. R. Warren, J. W. Green; Miss Francis Clayton was a visitor for the meeting.

Research Club Has Meeting

On Wednesday afternoon of this week the Research club had a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Mamie Merritt.

"The Deep South" was the subject for study during the afternoon. Three very interesting papers were given by members of the club. "Cinnamon Seed" by Hamilton Basso, was read by Mrs. W. F. West. "So Red the Rose," by Stark Young, was given by Mrs. R. H. Shelton. "Stars Fell in Alabama," by Carl Carner, was related by Mrs. A. M. Burns.

Mrs. Merritt invited the guests into the dining room where she served a delicious fried chicken dinner with all accessories. This was followed by an iced course featuring Easter suggestions.

Guests of the club included: Mesdames B. R. Long, of Greensboro, Margaret Teague, Oveida Long, H. K. Sanders, Ivey Stephens and Lillian Foreman.

Entertain Jointly At Party

Mesdames Wallace Harris and Martin Michie were joint hostesses at a delightful party on Thursday night at the home of the former.

Many pretty Spring flowers were arranged in the living room where two tables of bridge were in progress. Several interesting hours were spent at the game. Mrs. R. P. Burns won high score prize which was a pretty pair of hose.

The hostesses served a delicious chicken dinner.

B. T. U. Enjoys Social

On Friday evening, April 3rd the Intermediate and Senior B. T. U.'s of the First Baptist church were entertained with a social. The program was carried out in the form of a Circus, with Mr. Coy Day taking the part as ring master. Very glib with his tongue, he made appropriate speeches for each act. Some of the features presented were: "The Bearded Lady," by Helen Bradsher; "The Wild Man," by Dorothy Warren; "The Snake Charmer," by Virginia Puckett; "Tight Rope Walker," by Edith Gray Richie; "Crystal Gazer," Rev. W. F. West; "Midgits," by Alma Bradsher and Ellen Marie Sears; "Acrobatic Act," by Annette Cushman; "Mechanical Man," by Sanders McWhorter; "Old Maids Made Over" was also given and those taking part were: Helen Bradsher, Ora Latta, Lorena Wade, Virginia Puckett and Mrs. Marvin Long.

The play, "Epaminondas At Ridgecrest" was presented with Annie Mae McWhorter as Epaminondas, representing the B. T. U., and Lucille Davidson as Mammy representing the Assembly at Ridgecrest.

A band composed of several members of the B. T. U. furnished music between acts. Those present were given bags of pop corn to eat during the performances. Afterwards they were served sandwiches, cakes and red lemonade. The affair was considered a howling success from start to finish.

Miss Berry Is Honored

Miss Louise Berry, of Durham, was guest of honor at a lovely party given by Mrs. R. H. Shelton at her home on Main street Friday night.

Pretty Easter tallies were passed to two tables of bridge. Many lovely flowers were in evidence in the living room. A number of progressions were played. When scores had been added, Mrs. B. B. Mangum was awarded high score prize, while Mrs. Philip Thomas won consolation prize. Miss Berry was given pretty handkerchiefs.

Mrs. Shelton served her guests a delicious salad with hot tea.

Celebrates First Birthday

Master Donald Ray Meadows celebrated his first birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Meadows, of Moriah, N. C., on last Sunday.

A delicious dinner was served in the dining room. The table was centered with a large white cake bearing a pink candle.

After dinner the little guests engaged in play. The honoree received many pretty gifts.

Tuesday Club Entertained

At her home on North Main street on Tuesday morning, Mrs. E. V. Boatwright was a charming hostess to the Tuesday bridge club.

Pretty jonquils were attractively arranged in the living room of the home where three tables of bridge were in progress. As winner of club high score, Mrs. W. E. Bowles was presented a double deck of cards. Pretty handkerchiefs were given Mrs. E. E. Thomas for visitor's high score. Mrs. Boatwright also presented Mrs. Bert Long, who is visiting Mrs. S. A. Jones, a gift. A delicious salad course with coffee and tarts was served the guests.

Ace High Club Has Meeting

The Ace High club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Victor Satterfield on Tuesday night.

The living room was very pretty with jonquils, narcissus, and violets. Attractive Easter tallies were passed to several tables of bridge. A number of progressions were enjoyed. To Mrs. McIver Featherston a piece of linen was given for club high score. Mrs. E. E. Thomas was given hand-made handkerchiefs for visitor's high score, and Mrs. Russel Murray was given flowers for consolation.

The hostess served an iced course in yellow and white. Easter eggs filled with colorful candies were given each guest as favors.

Those present were: Mesdames Russel Murray, E. E. Thomas, Charles Timberlake, Riley Oakley, McIver Featherston, Warren, David Carver, and Elizabeth Cheek; Misses Melba O'Brien, and Mary Riley.

Dolly Madison Thatre

Roxboro, N. C. N. Main St.
EASTER MONDAY
and TUESDAY,
April 13th and 14th

Morning matinee Monday 10:30 — afternoon 2:30-4:00; evening 7:15-9.
Tuesday afternoon matinee 3:15-
3:45 — evening 7:15-9.

THREE YEARS' WORK COMPLETED BY CCC

Fechner Marks Birthday By Releasing Report on Tasks Accomplished.

Washington, April 5—The third birthday of the civilian conservation corps was marked by Robert Fechner, the director, today with a detailed report showing work accomplished by the 1,600,000 persons it has employed.

Since April 5, 1933, Fechner said, CCC members have planted 558,000 trees, built 1,963,500 soil erosion control dams, cut 69,000 miles of trails and minor roads through the forests.

The report, Fechner added,

Entertains With Bridge Party

Mrs. J. D. Bradsher was hostess to her club and a few invited guests at her home on Lamar street on Tuesday evening of this week.

Many Spring flowers were arranged in the living room where two tables were used for bridge. For several hours the delightful game was enjoyed. Scores were counted and Mrs. Henry Walker was given a pretty luncheon set for club high score prize. Mrs. Landon Harvey was presented guest towels for visitor's high score prize.

Mrs. Bradsher served a delicious salad course with coffee to the following: Mesdames Henry Walker, Bill Walker, Wallace Harris, Landon Harvey, and G. I. Prillman; Misses Nellie Smith, Virginia Brandon and Winnie McWhorter.

OUR GRANDFATHERS
STARTED SKILL GAMES

We often think that our forefathers were behind our times in many respects. In many ways they were ahead of their own day.

During times of rest and quiet they would turn to games of skill which would test their mental alertness.

Billiards is a game that tests a man's skill. Like golf or many other games billiards required a clear brain, quick eye and steady hand.

Billiards is sweeping the country and many homes have tables right in them for the pleasure of those who live there or the guests.

BILLIARDS ALSO OFFERS OPPORTUNITIES FOR PLEASANT ASSOCIATION AND FRIENDLY RIVALRY — IS BENEFICIAL TO THE HEALTH — RELAXES THE MIND AND BODY.

IT IS GOOD FOR YOU

TRY A GAME TODAY

Tuxedo Billiard Parlor

Gip Prillman, Prop.

Main Street

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Lift up your heads, ye sorrowing ones,
And be ye of heart,
For Calvary and Easter Day
Earth's saddest day and gladdest day,

Were just one day apart!
(sure)
In this thought let us abide
To keep and stay our heart,
That Calvary and Easter Day,
Earth's heaviest day and happiest day,

Were just one day apart!
—Susan Collidge.
Bible School 9:45 a. m.
Preaching 11 a. m. Why Seek Ye Living Among the Dead?

Baptist Training Union 7 p. m.
Preaching 8 p. m. Rev. James Bruce of Furman University will preach at the evening service.
Flowers and floral designs will be placed in the church Easter Sunday as a memorial to departed friends and loved ones. It is hoped that all such flowers will be placed in the church Saturday evening or early Sunday morning.

W. F. WEST, Pastor.

W. M. S. MEETS

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist church will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church auditorium.

Circle No. 4, Mrs. Clyde Swatz, leader, will have charge of the program. Topic of the afternoon, "Pioneers of the Kingdom."

Circles No. 1 and 4 tied in attendance, both having 13 present in each group during March.

Grandmother's
14-OUNCE
PAN LOAF — 5c
SLICED OR UNSLICED
16-OUNCE
PULLMAN LOAF 7c
SLICED OR UNSLICED
ROUND ROLLS 2 doz. 8c

STRICTLY FRESH

EGGS	DOZEN	23c
FINEST GRANULATED
SUGAR	10 lb. bag	50c
BEST WISCONSIN
CHEESE	2 Pounds	35c
RED CIRCLE
COFFEE	Rich & Full Bodied lb.	20c
ANGELUS OR RESERVE—in Colophony
Marshmallows	2 1-lb. Pkgs.	29c
HEINE ASSORTED
SOUPS	With Exceptions 2 cans	25c
BULK
JEWEL	2 Pounds	25c
STANDARD PACK
TOMATOES	4 cans	25c
NEW
NUCOA	Pound	20c
CAMPBELL'S TOMATO
SOUP	3 Cans	20c

Egg Dye, pkg.	10c	OLD FASHION GINGER
MAGIC WAND		Snaps, pkg. ...
Egg Dye, pkg.	10c	WALDORF
Soap, 3 bars	13c	Tissue, 4 rolls
Ovaltine	Med. 35c	17c
		POPULAR BRANDS
		Candies, 3 for 10c
		STANDARD BLUE LABEL
		Syrup, No. 5 can
		33c

STRAWBERRIES, fancy red . pt. 10c
STRING BEANS 2 lbs. 25c
ICEBURG LETTUCE head 9c

MEAT SPECIALS

All Cut Steak lb. 19c
Tender Beef Roast lb. 15c
LARGE VARIETY OF FRESH FISH

ATLANTIC & PACIFIC

USE Camp's Eagle Brand FERTILIZER

MANUFACTURED BY EASTERN FERTILIZER CORP.
A GOOD FERTILIZER FOR GOOD RESULTS

Roxboro Branch
Camp Fertilizer Company

Frank H. Willson, Mgr.