

TINY SEA-WAIF SHIRLEY'S ROLE FOR NEW FILM

Palace Theatre, April 20th and 21st; Dolly Madison April 22nd and 23rd.

The fascinating adventures of a little waif and her two grizzled old, sea-salt friends furnishes the story basis for "Captain January," tuneful, colorful Shirley Temple picture which comes to both theatres this week.

Somewhere on the rockbound coast of Maine the action of this most delightful of Shirley's pictures is set. She is a nimble-toed little lady of a lighthouse, adored and jealously guarded by old Guy Kibbee, the lighthouse keeper who had fished her from the sea years ago.

Her other old salt friend, Slim Summerville, constantly bickers with Kibbee, but when authorities threaten to take the little girl away, the two old sailors present a united front.

Despite their strategy and an attempted flight to sea in the night, the inevitable happens, and vixenish old Sara Haden, the truant officer, takes possession of Shirley. But not for good, however, because unexpected friends turn up to bring Shirley and Kibbee together again, and the picture to a happy close.

Shirley executes her toe-tickling new dances in company with Buddy Ebsen, who was a sensational Ziegfeld Follies dancer, while her old songwriter Lew Pollack, composed the music for her three new hit tunes.

June Lang, Jane Darwell, as the lady who has her heart set on Kibbee, and Jerry Tucker are prominent in the supporting cast of "Captain January." Produced under the supervision of B. G. DeSylva, the picture was directed by David Butler.

Nine farmers in Orange County have received 50,000 pounds of TVA phosphate to be used on demonstration farms.

A new 4-H Club has been organized at Griffin's School in Nash County. Another club is being planned for Samaria in the same county.

"THROWBACK" AT PALACE SATURDAY

Latest Western Drama Starring Buck Jones Here For One Day.

The sheriff's posse rides again! "The Throwback," the latest Universal Western drama starring Buck Jones, has been booked for Saturday showing at the Palace theatre, according to announcement by manager Kirby yesterday.

This exciting screen story deals with cattle "rustling" in the Far West, and presents Jones as the central figure in a plot giving rise to dramatic situations and swift action which is said to be literally hair-raising. Muriel Evans will be seen in the leading feminine role, and the cast also includes Eddie Phillips, Paul Fix, Bryant Washburn and Charles K. French.

"The Throwback" was written by a famous writer of western novels, Cherry Wilson knows her west as few women do. She was raised on a ranch. She is also the author of Universal's Western deluge, "Stormy."

PALACE BOOKS NEW ROAD GANG SHOW

Special Show Saturday Morning at 10:30 and Saturday Night at 11:30.

"Road Gang," the First National production scheduled as the feature attraction at the Palace Theatre on Saturday, is a revelation of the terrible conditions existing in a penal institution run by crooked officials for the graft they get out of it.

It is said to carry all the dynamic force of "I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang" and the rugged picture quality of "Black Fury." The picture is one of stark realism, set in two locals; the first the prison farm with its torture rooms, where human beings are subjected to medieval persecution with the whipping post and barrel hangings; the second in the Blackfoot mines, where recalcitrant convicts are sent, to remain until they come out in a pine box.

Donald Woods and Carlyle Moore, Jr., have the two principal convict roles. Entirely innocent of any crime, they are framed by a crooked politician, whom Woods, a newspaper correspondent, threatens to expose. The romantic angle is furnished by Kay Linaker in the leading feminine role. As the fiancée of Woods, she carries on a battle for his freedom, although she nearly fails because of a strike at the mines led by Woods, in which the prisoners blast their way out and are gassed with bombs.

Joseph King appears in the role of the big political boss who frames the two boys with the aid of one of his henchmen, a part played by Henry O'Neil. Addison Richards has the role of the cruel prison farm warden while Charles Middleton, an even more terrifying figure, is in charge of the mines where men are so badly abused they either go insane or die.

The picture is filled with thrilling action including a running gun battle between police cars and one commandeered by a fleeing convict, the brutal beating of prisoners, the great mine strike, the blasting of the tunnel and the fight with machine guns and gas bombs between guards and men armed only with picks and shovels.

The cast also includes Joseph Crehan, a newspaper editor who exposes the conditions of graft and torture, Olin Howland a dissolute prison doctor, William Davidson, William Davidson, Eddie Shubert, Harry Cording, Marc Lawrence and a score of others. Louis King directed the picture.

In Memory of Mother

MRS. MARTHA A. CHILDRRESS

On April the twelfth, nineteen hundred and thirty-five at the hour of one on Friday morning just at the beginning of a new day the death angel visited our home and claimed the beautiful soul of our darling mother. God needed a bright angel to complete his holy band so he chose my dear mother. We all loved mother but God in his wisdom knows what's best for us.

We miss you dear mother, and there is a vacant place in our home which never can be filled. But we all live in hope of filling the vacant places in heaven which thou hast gone to prepare for us. Sleep on dear mother and take thy rest. God is with thee and he knows what's best. We miss you dear mother, but as we stand around the sacred place in which thy beautiful figure was laid we think of the blessed rest that thou art sleeping in, and we often think of the sweet smile that you always wore through suffering and pain. But God called you home to the beautiful and glorious home to never know any pain or sickness no more.

Mother was a kind and loving mother and one never knew a sweeter character than she was. To know her was to love her and those who knew her best loved her best.

So human, we cannot refrain from sorrowing for our loved ones who have gone on before us, but our hearts are made to feel glad when we have the blessed thought that this association does not end at the grave for the last glorious work of our Lord Jesus Christ in his appointed ministry of giving beauty for ashes, will be when He comes again to give to our beloved dead in Him the beauty of a glorified body for the ashes of this corruptible one. Mother we believe Heaven is made brighter because of your presence there. The memory of the beautiful smile that you bore to the grave was the sweet smile that we all loved so well.

CAR LOAD OF - MULES -

I have just returned and bought another train car load of mules, not just a few on a truck. These are Indiana and Northern Illinois mules. I bought some singles and matched pairs as good as grow, not a fixed mouth in the lot.

THESE MULES ARE HERE NOW — I always have on hand as good a selection of mules as any dealer in this section. If you haven't done business with me your neighbor has. Ask him. I sell or trade and appreciate your business. Come to see me. — Your friend.
