MEET JUDGE PUFFLE

"Room and Board," featuring Judge Puffle, is a hilarious new comic in colors in the Baltimore Sunday American. Don't miss this rib-tickling treat. You'll find the Baltimore American on sale by all newsdealers.

J. M. Meece of Brevard, Transylvania County, is installing a home water system from a free-flowing spring on his farm delivering 12 gallons of water a minute.

Eight demonstrations in treating cotton seed with Ceresan before planting, in Cumberland County, showed considerable advantage by using the material. Few of the plants died where the seed had been treated.

Apparently this is one year when side-applications of nitrate of soda should pay well on cotton and corn, say farmers who have suffered from the continued dry weather.

TONY MANERO TO BE GIVEN BIG HAND

Greensboro to Turn Out to Welcome Their New Golf Champion.

Greensboro, June 17—Anthony (Tony) Manero, National Open Golf Champion, and hero of the populous and far flung realms of all golfdom as the result of his courageous and record breaking performance in recently annexing the open crown, is to be given a big hand by the "Home Folks" when he returns the latter part of this month to his home Sedgefield Country Club, according to plans announced here.

The "Honor Manero" celebration is not to be confined to any of one city or club, and efforts will be made to have the welcome accorded him in the nature of a gesture from the entire Carolinas as becoming the feat which he has achieved and the place which he has won in the sporting sun. Accordingly, civic and business representatives, sportsmen and citizens of the entire section are being extended an invitation by the "Honor Manero" celebration committee to join in a Welcome to the Champion on the date of his return from the scene of his recent triumphs.

The exact date of the "Honor Manero" celebration has not been fixed although it appears now that it will be on Monday, June 29, as this will probably be the day in which he arrives at the Sedgefield Club. In the event the celebration is held on a date other than that indicated, immediate announcement will be sent out of the same, it is stated.

The celebration will center around a huge dinner and entertainment to be held in the Sedgefield Manor Building, at which the returning champion will be appropriately welcomed and where many notables of the sports and golfing world are expected to gather. With the dinner and reception scheduled for the evening, plans also call for an exhibition Golf match featuring Manero the same afternoon, to be played over the Sedgefield Country Club course. Another feature of the program will be a parade in Greensboro Honoring Manero as he reaches this city. Joseph T. Martin, prominent civic and business leader of Greensboro, is general chairman of the "Honor Manero" celebration.
