

Helena Undeclared In Bahama Church League

Defeats Sylvan 11 to 5 For Fifth Straight Win—Rougemont Turns Back Tabor 19 to 6.

MORIAH WINS FORFEIT FROM THE BAHAMAS

Helena trounced Sylvan Saturday by the count of 11 to 5 and kept a clean slate for the first half of the Bahama Sunday School league, Smith for Sylvan, and Holsenback for Helena, worked on even terms throughout the game, but errors behind Smith gave Helena the victory. Holsenback led in strikeouts, turning back 13.

Stevens, Tilley, and Sneed led the Sylvan hitters, while Holsenback, in addition to his fine pitching, led his team at bat with four safeties.

Score At Will

Rougemont scored at will after the first inning and easily defeated Tabor by the score of 19 to 6. E. Blalock, Lowe, and R. Poole led the Rougemont attack, E. Blalock collecting five doubles out of six, while Franklin and A. Fowler were best for Tabor. Tabor was able to collect ten hits off I. Blalock and Cash, but were not able to stem the Rougemont slugging.

The game between Bahama and Moriah was forfeited to Moriah. No games are scheduled for next Saturday, but the second half will begin June 27 with Rougemont at Sylvan, Bahama at Helena, and Tabor at Moriah.

"PRIVATE NUMBER" AT PALACE THEAT. MONDAY - TUESDAY

Robert Taylor and Loretta Young Take Starring Roles.

Patsy Kelly is a firm believer in "the luck of the Irish."

The hilarious comedienne, featured in the cast supporting Robert Taylor and Loretta Young in the Fox romantic hit, "Private Number," opening Monday at the Palace Theatre, is firmly convinced that it's just a lucky break that she's in pictures and not behind the counter in a department store.

"The first piece of luck I ever had was being born in Brooklyn," Patsy says. "Now there are a lot of people who couldn't see anything lucky in that but believe me, it's the best break I've ever had. "Brooklyn gave me my first chance at a theatrical career. I liked to dance even as a youngster, and one of my mother's Flatbush friends suggested that I be sent to school. Right then and there I got another lucky break for my parents selected Jack Blue's school. Mr. Blue thought so highly of my ability that he made me a teacher instead of a pupil. You tie that one!

"Then," Miss Kelly continued, "my brother was promised a part in a Frank Fay show. I went over to the theatre to teach him a routine. Mr. Fay saw me, and presto! the next Monday night I opened with the show. It ran three years." Patsy was featured in "Three Cheers" and then followed engagements in Earl Carroll's "Vanities" and "Sketch Book."

Patsy believes she was lucky to ever get a chance on the screen. "With my face?" she asks. She was a comedy success almost from the start, and film audiences soon began to demand her more and more.

She was recently featured in "Thanks A Million" produced at the Twentieth Century-Fox studio and as a reward for her performance in that picture, Darryl F. Zanuck had a role especially written into the script of "Private Number" for her.

Maybe Patsy's right!

OLD RECORDS ARE BEING PASSED

Chevrolet Sales Exceeded the 1929 Record for March, April and May.

Records that have stood ever since 1929, when the automotive industry enjoyed the greatest year in its history, are being surpassed in 1936, according to an analysis of Chevrolet sales records announced by M. E. Coyle, president and general manager.

Although the total sales for the industry as a whole are running behind the peak year record, Mr. Coyle pointed out that in three successive months, March, April and May, Chevrolet's sales have exceeded the 1929 records for those months and set a new high record for any three months period in the history of the company.

On the basis of present prospects, Mr. Coyle said, Chevrolet dealers should have 610,000 retail sales to their credit at the end of the five months' peak selling season from March 1 through July 31, as compared with 540,000 units sold in the corresponding period in the company's best previous year, 1929.

Mr. Coyle points out that in 1929, when domestic, Canadian and export sales of American motor cars approximated 5,700,000 units, Chevrolet dealers delivered 100,000 or more units at retail each month for five consecutive months. The greatest number of sales for any month in that period was 115,000 units. This year, at the end of May, Chevrolet had exceeded this old record by a substantial margin for three consecutive months—in March with 126,119 units, in April with 134,431 units, and again in May with 129,816 units.

Mr. Coyle attributed his company's leadership in sales to two factors—the immediate acceptance by the public of the 1936 models following their announcement, and the company's success in achieving a manufacturing volume of 100,000 units a month as early as November, and maintaining this volume during six months out of the last seven. The early public acceptance, caused a steady countrywide demand, the production efficiency assured cars to meet the demand, and the two factors combined to result in record-breaking sales.

RAIN MAKER TURNS DOWN MOVIE OFFER

Hatfield, Who Claims To Have Caused San Diego Flood, Says "No" To Lasky

Hollywood, June 10.—(AP)—A movie producer offered Hatfield the Rain-Maker "a lot of money" to conjure up a storm today—but Hatfield declined.

"I could bring the rain all right," he told Jess Lasky. "Yes, sir, I sure could bring it, but it'd cause more damage to crops than I care to do. So I guess we can't get together right now."

Lasky said he wanted Hatfield to work up a roaring, sod-pounding storm to advertise the premier of a movie. It was Hatfield's idea and Lasky was willing to pay—c.o.d.—but Hatfield thought of the crops, his conscience bothered him. So the rain is off.

Hatfield is Charles M. Hatfield, a thin, partly bald native of Fort Scott, Kan.

For 30 years, he said, he has been making the elements do his bidding. Contracts have carried him to dozens of cities, from Alaska to Honduras and from San Angelo, Texas, to San Diego, Calif.

The City of San Diego, he said, asked him to fill its giant marine reservoir in 1916. Coincidence or not shortly after he set up his apparatus a storm rolled out of the heavens with such violence that railroad bridges were washed away and the city was virtually marooned.

Hatfield has never disclosed his methods.

"But I'd give it to the government for nothing," he said. "Yes, sir, for nothing. The time is coming when scientists will bring rain to any section of the land that needs it, just as easy as a man orders a load of alfalfa now."

"There isn't anything mysterious about it. It's science and common sense. Yes, sir, it sure is."

Many of the smaller farmers of Warren County will not be able to qualify in the new farm program because of lack of money to buy seed of the soil conserving crops, reports the assistant county agent.

Apparently this is one year when side-applications of nitrate of soda should pay well on cotton and corn, say farmers who have suffered from the continued dry weather.
