ROOSEVELT PRAISES ADVERTISERS' MOVE

Sends Congratulatory Message to Federation's Annual Convention at Boston.

Boston, June 29—Representatives of advertising in the United States received today a message from President Roosevelt praising their "truth-in-advertising" movement and heard one of their associates urge an "aggressive follow through" in the process of "cleaning-up" advertising.

The President's message was read to nearly 2,000 men and women at boys of club age considerable training along lines that will be beneficial to them in later years.

the first regular session of the Advertising Federation of America's 32nd annual convention. The federation also is celebrating the silver jubilee of the "truth-in-advertising" idea which started in Boston at a previous convention.

The group, President Roosevelt stated, has "done excellent work by dedicating itself to a campaign in behalf of truth. Yours is a noble objective."

Gathered in the ballroom of one of the city's largest hotels, the federation members applauded as Ken R. Dyke, general advertising manager of the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet company, called for the "follow-through."

"Effective censorship of copy must be exercised by someone," he declared. "The most effective control exercised to date—and it has been astoundingly successful—is that done by the media themselves.

"Let us encourage magazines, newspapers, radio and outdoor agencies to be even more aggressive, but intelligently aggressive in their refusal to accept deceptive advertising copy, advertising in bad taste."

Dyke also called for a "judicial, painstaking study to get the real low-down on advertising's place in the scheme of things, its social value and its economic importance.
