PROGRESSIVES ORGANIZE

Chicago, Ill. — To consolidate the aims of the liberal elements in all parties, more than a hundred political leaders elected Senator Robt. M. La Follette, Jr. permanent chairman of the National Progressive Conference, subscribed a $10,000 Campaign fund, outlined eleven national ills and suggested six progressive remedies. Among the delegates were Mayor La Guardia of New York, Senator Benson of Minnesota and John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America.
