Mrs. Cooley Honored Tuesday

On Tuesday night Mesdames Bumpass and J. W. Brooks entertained jointly for Mrs. H. L. Cooley, who leaves town soon for her future home in Danville, Va.

Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening and attractive gifts were presented. Misses Helen Bradsher and Ruth Franklin as winners. Mrs. Cooley was presented a miscellaneous shower of gifts.

A delicious sweet course was served by the hostesses.

Mrs. J. T. Wade Hostess To Circle

Mrs. J. T. Wade was hostess to the members of Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist church Monday afternoon. Mrs. A. M. Burns was in charge of the meeting and taught the lesson. Mrs. Wade led in the devotional service. At this time the Circle presented Mrs. Burns an attractive birthday gift. Miss Lorena Wade assisted the hostess in serving punch and cake to the eleven members present.

Misses Starling and Lyon Entertain

Misses Ruth Starling and Emma Frances Lyon were joint hostesses to their bridge club, at the Bethel Hill Teacherage, Monday evening.

Unique tallies were passed to two tables and progressive contract bridge was enjoyed for several hours. At the end of the game scores were added and Mrs. A. G. Bullard was found high scorer, while Miss Margaret Brooks was second high. Both were presented lovely gifts.

The hostesses served a delicious sweet course with coffee.

Moebius-Hart

On Sunday, September 27, 1936, at 2 o'clock Miss Dorothea Lillian Moebius, of Raleigh, North Carolina, and Mr. Frank Taylor Hart, of Roxboro, were united in marriage at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Ridgeway, North Carolina.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. J. S. Moebius, of Ridgeway, North Carolina. Mrs. Hart is employed at Bynum Printing Company in Raleigh, N. C., and after a few days here with her husband will return to her duties there.

Mr. Hart is very popular in this city where he is manager of the meat department of D. Pender Grocery Company.

Mrs. Henry Gates Has Circle No. 5

On Monday night of this week Mrs. Henry Gates entertained the members of Circle No. 5 of the Edgar Long Memorial church in their regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Richard Mitchell led the members in the devotional. The meeting was in charge of Miss Claire Harris, and Mrs. Graham Nichols read a very interesting leaflet. At this meeting the 57th Anniversary of the Circle was celebrated with a cake. It was presented to the member whose birthday was nearest at hand; Mrs. Graham Nichols was the winner. Mrs. Gates served Russian tea and sandwiches to about twenty-five members who were present.

Woman's Missionary Society Organized

The Woman's Missionary Society of Hurdle Mills church was organized on September 23, 1936 at the church. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. N. D. Harris. "Take The Name of Jesus With You" was then sung. Mr. Black then spoke on "Ye Are My Friends if You Do What I Command You." The officers of the society were then elected for the year.

A good many ladies were present and enjoyed the program. Mrs. Fox from Roxboro was present. It is hoped that more will join later on.

Miss Barnette Hostess To Y. W. A.

On Monday night Miss Mamie Love Barnette was hostess to the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church at the home of Mrs. L. D. Puckett.

In the absence of president Lucille Davidson, Miss Barnette presided at the meeting. Miss Ruth Franklin and Mrs. Alvin Warren took part in the devotional.

The program was in charge of Miss Ora Latta; "Scholls and the Kingdom" was the topic discussed. Miss Virginia Puckett read a very interesting paper on the subject. Mrs. Breta Clary was present at this meeting and delivered a very inspiring talk to the members.

Following a short business session the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Miss Bailey Hostess To Ace High Club Thursday Night

On Thursday night Miss Lottie Bailey entertained the Ace High bridge club and several other guests at the home of Mrs. Stonewall Jackson.

Fall flowers, arranged in bowls and baskets, were used in the living room where bridge was enjoyed at three tables. Following several interesting progressions scores were added. Miss Louise Pulliam was given lingerie for club high score, while Mrs. Elizabeth Cheek was given dainty perfume and handkerchiefs for guest prize.

Miss Bailey, assisted by Mrs. Jackson, served delicious ice cream, cake and nuts to the following: Misses Rosa Yarborough, Louise Pulliam, Mary Riley; Mesdames Joe Guffy, Victor Satterfield, Russell Murray, David Carver, Bill Minor, W. H. Adair, Riley Oakley, McIver Featherston, and Elizabeth Cheek.

W. Penn Kemble of Mt. Carmel, Pa., publisher of the local paper, advised his sick readers that paying their subscriptions well in advance would improve their chances of a good obituary notice.

Due to infestations of the Grayville wilt and other tobacco diseases in Stokes County, tobacco growers are planning new crop rotation systems to control the troubles.
