After a short business session the chairman of the program committee, Rachel Owen, rendered a very interesting program. The program was: "Electric Power Development in North Carolina." The following had a very interesting part in the program. Rachel Owen, Velma Gentry, Frances Long, Effie Wrenn, Hasseltine Sanford, Myrtle Lester, Mary Sue Wrenn, Naomi Dunn, Dorothy Walker, Lucille Gentry, Ruby Call, and Delma Davis. After the program the social committee, Muriel Gentry and Helen Walker, served refreshments to the club members.

English Club
The English Club held its fourth meeting Wednesday, October the twenty-fourth. After the meeting was called to order by the president, Alice Humphries, the minutes of the last meeting were read. Every member answered to the roll call by repeating a Bible verse. Following the discussion of old and new business, the program committee gave the following program. For the devotional, the club members recited the twenty-third Psalm, followed by a song, "America." These members gave very interesting talks on living men and women who they thought should be in the Hall of Fame. Bessie Laura Todd spoke on Carl Goerch; Wingate Rogers, Charles A. Lindberg; Carol Leigh Humphries, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Roland White, Franklin D. Roosevelt. Martha Wehrenberg gave an interesting report on "Reading as My Hobby."
Miss Ruth Starling, the critic, gave a critic report on the program that was given in a few, but well spoken words.

The English Club adjourned to meet again in two weeks.

After a short business meeting the program was then presented. Mrs. Carver's ninth grade girls presented an unusual and interesting program in chapel Friday morning. Ruth Hall read her own composition, Good Appearance; Muriel Gentry recited her original poem; "My Creed" was given by Allene Dixon; a playlet, Gossiping, was given by Lucille Gentry, Alma Seamster, Frances Whitfield and Effie Wrenn. Several songs were rendered by all the ninth grade girls.

Friday afternoon, the Hill-Toppers played one of the best games of the season. They were able to check the running attack of the heavier Cary team, but could not fathom the puzzling passing attack. Bethel Hill threatened several times, but could not push over the last few yards to the goal line. Cary scored their two touch-downs by completing three passes and blocking a punt; they were not able to add the extra points. The entire Bethel Hill team played smart, hard football, but did not have necessary power to score when they got in shadow of the goal post.
