Famous Hawaiian Troupe to Appear

Aldrich's Imperial Singers and Instrumentalists to Play at the Dolly Madison.

The most famous Hawaiian troupe of entertainers in America today is Aldrich's Imperial Hawaiian Singers and Instrumentalists who will be given an elaborate presentation at the Dolly Madison theatre next Monday and Tuesday, November 23 and 24. Billed everywhere as "the attraction extraordinary," they offer a most delightful program of entertainment savored with the atmosphere of the South Sea Islands.

These South Sea artists (and they are artists) synchronize their wonderful and alluring music for the enjoyment of all music lovers who will want to hear them.

If you miss it, you will overlook one of the most charming experiences you have ever had.

Dewey Herring, 4-H club boy of Greene County, produced 58 bushels of corn on his club acre this season. Dewey planted his corn in alternate rows with soybeans.
