

Raymond, Sothorn's Exciting Love in "Smartest Girl"

Playing at Dolly Madison Theatre
Monday and Tuesday, Dec.
22-23rd.

A romance which begins on a yacht, carries through a series of hilarious adventures and ends in a frantic chase down Mazda Lane in Manhattan, offers the meaty vein of narrative for Gene Raymond and Ann Sothorn's new stellar offering, "Smartest Girl in Town."

Topping the two favorites' previous hit, "Walking on Air," in comedy situations and romantic moments, the mad and merry movements of "Smartest Girl in Town" start when Miss Sothorn, posing for a series of clothing advertisements aboard a palatial yacht mistakes Raymond, a young New York millionaire and owner of the yacht for a male model sent from the agency. Keeping up the deception, Raymond lays siege to the girl's affections. Miss Sothorn, however, determined to wed riches, has no use for the supposedly penniless Raymond. He devises an elaborate plan to bring them constantly together, and despite her intentions, she falls in love with him — and things begin to happen leading up to the exciting climax of the season's brightest comedy-romance.

Woven into the story is a delightful musical sequence wherein Gene Raymond sings "Will You," which he wrote and composed, to Miss Sothorn.

Supporting the two principals are Helen Broderick, Eric Blore, Erik Rhodes and Harry Jans — all top-notch merrymakers, who appear under Joseph Stanley's direction in "Smartest Girl in Town," an RKO Radio Picture.

JOHN WAYNE AT DOLLY SATURDAY

To Play in Jack London's Story
"Conflict;" Here For One Day Only.

Starring brawny, handsome John Wayne, "Conflict," Universal's drama of the bitter feud between two iron-fisted giants, opens at the Dolly Madison theatre Saturday.

Lovely Jean Rogers appears opposite Wayne in "Conflict," which is based on Jack London's famed story, "The Abysmal Brute," recognized as one of the finest action stories written by the late author.

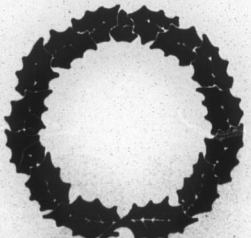

Photographed entirely in the rugged grandeur of the Sierra Nevada Mountains of California, 900 miles from Hollywood, "Conflict" tells its virile, fast moving story against a background of nature's own magnificent beauty. The picture combines drama, suspense, high excitement and romance into a spirited action story.

Wayne scored a hit in his first Universal picture, "The Sea Spoilers" and in "Conflict" he carries on the good work.

In addition to Wayne and Jean Rogers, the cast of "Conflict" includes such fine performances as Tommy Bupp, Ward Bond, Margaret Mann and Bryant Washburn. David Howard directed from the screen play by Walter Weems and

Excellent Cast In New Gene Autry Western Film

Playing at Palace Theatre Saturday,
December 26th.

Gene Autry, handsome Republic Western star is an evening's entertainment himself. So is Smiley Burnette, his pal, neighbor and acting contemporary. But when you have these two plus six Light Crust Doughboys — any story is an assured success.

Not that "Oh, Susanna," which opens at the Palace theatre Saturday lacks for plot, color and character interest. It doesn't.

In fact the story, which has to do with a bad man masquerading as a radio star at a Dude ranch, is probably Mr. Autry's best photoplay to date.

Frances Grant who did a small part in "Red River Valley," plays opposite the handsome Autry. Among supporting players Ed Piel, Jr., Fred Burns, Roger Grey, Snowflake, Roscoe Gerall, Ken Cooper and Alfred James.

The Light Crust Doughboys comprise a radio sextette that for the last several years entertained air audiences of the U. S. Southwest. Six radio hookups broadcast The Light Crust Doughboys program three times daily.

NAZI BOOKS STIR TROUBLE

Denver, Col. — To stock the University of Denver's new $450,000 library. Librarian Joseph Hare nudged local consuls of Switzerland, Spain, Mexico, France, Belgium and Germany to have their government donate books of their native writers. Germany sent 500 volumes, among them some by Hitler, Goebbels and other Nazi authors. Simon Bloom, local attorney, promptly organized a mass-meeting to demand that books of Russian, Swedish, Norwegian and Danish origin be given shelf-space. The University daily praises the institution's "broad-minded superiority."

Corn club members of Pamlico are reporting weighed yields of from 19 to 53 bushels of corn an acre on their projects. The average yield is lower than usual due to the drought of late spring and summer.
