Parting Shower

On Saturday evening a number of friends gave Mrs. F. H. McDonald a shower of "parting gifts" at the home of Mrs. McIver Featherston. Mrs. McDonald and daughters, Mary Louise, Patsy, and Lee left Monday for Irvington, N. J. where they will make their home.

The employees of Leggett's Dept. Store presented a pair of embroidered pillow cases to the honoree at the shower.

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Hall Honored

Miss Leiotte Hall, bride-elect of this month, was honored on Monday evening at a bridge party given by Misses Mary and Margaret Hester at their home on South Main St.

Two tables were placed for progressive bridge. Miss Catherine Winstead received high score prize and the bride-elect was presented a piece of silver in her pattern by the hostesses.

Delicious refreshments were served.

Birthday Party

Master Shields Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Clarke, celebrated his seventh birthday by entertaining his friends at his home on Lamar Street, Monday afternoon.

The guests were entertained at many games. Those present were: Sylvia Bradsher, Muriel Stewart, Charlie Stewart, Martha, Ann, Louise and Charlie Harris, Janie Murphy, Virginia Timberlake, June Woods, Nancy Willson, Lawrence Moore, Bobby and Paul Burns, Donnie Long, Clyde Crowell, Arthur Carmean, Lawrence Woody, Tom Woody, Elizabeth Newell, Alice Lee Boatwright, Martha Boatwright, Rufus Shelton, Henry Cadell, Sonny Dawes, Charles Hughes, Joe Robinson, Patsy Beam, Fay Harvey, Amine Clarke and Shields Clarke.

The host received many useful gifts.

The host's mother, Mrs. Clarke, assisted by Mrs. R. P. Burns, served punch, cake and ice cream.

Circle No. 5

Circle No. 5 of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Miss Sue Frederick on Monday evening, June 14.

Mrs. W. W. Woods was in charge of the program for the evening, the topic being "The Italians." Devotional was led by Miss Maude Montague. After the regular business meeting a social hour was held.

Ice cream and cake were served to the fourteen members present.

THE TIMES SNAPSHOTS

Over the Top—The Barbary Sheep at the London Zoo are born steeplechasers. Here they are contending over the rocks in answer to the Keeper's call at feeding time.

On the Beach—Two fetching damsels display the latest in swim attire.

Double Champion—Harry Von Zell, who was voted America's outstanding radio announcer in a nationwide newspaper poll, has just won the radio artists' tennis championship. Harry won't have much time for sports activities for the rest of the summer for he has just been signed to headline the program that takes Phil Baker's place while the comedian is on vacation. Von Zell's variety show will be on the Columbia network Sunday evenings at 7:30 New York time.

An International Sportsman—Count Theo Rossi, leading Italian racer of high power motor boats and the world's vermouth king, who is bringing two new 90-mile-an-hour boats to America to participate in the Gold Cup race at Detroit on Labor Day, Sept. 6, now thrown open to foreign competition for the first time.

Another Di Maggio Promises Baseball Stardom—Dominic, bespectacled nineteen year old brother of the famed Joe of the New York Yankees and Vince of the Boston Bees, has the experts agog because of the sensational manner he's disputing in his first professional season as a member of the San Francisco Seals.

Although blind, Gretta Griffin of El Dorado, Kansas, cooks complete meals on her Hot-point Electric Range.

Y. W. A.

The Y. W. A. of the First Baptist Church held its regular meeting at the home of Miss Nancy Bradsher on South Main Street with Miss Marjorie Thomas as hostess.

In the absence of the president the vice-president presided over the meeting. The program for the evening was titled, "Italy Today and Yesterday." Miss Bradsher led the devotional. Three new members joined the Y. W. A. at this meeting.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess.

Tuesday Club

Miss Isabel deVlaming was hostess to the Tuesday Club at her home on South Main Street, Tuesday evening.

The home was a profusion of lovely flowers. Three tables were placed for bridge where several progressions were enjoyed. Mrs. C. A. Harris was the winner of club high score prize and Miss Anna Wooding Winstead the visitors high score prize.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. S. deVlaming, served a salad course with punch.

Surprise Dinner

On June 13th about fifty friends and relatives met at the home of Mr. G. W. Ashley and gave him a surprise birthday dinner. An excellent spread was on the table under the big oak tree in the yard. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the meal. In the afternoon pictures were made after which chairs were taken to the shady ground, and good old-fashioned laughing and talking of olden times was enjoyed.

At the hour of departure all left wishing him many more such birthdays and hoping to meet again July 11th near Liberty, N. C. to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. J. J. Ashley and son, Alvah.
