

Many New Firms Have Opened In Roxboro During Last 2 Years

Firms Are Now Well Established And Doing Their Bit To Contribute To The Progress Of This City And County.

Many firms are advertising on the different pages of the Times this week. These firms, many of them, have not been in Roxboro for a great number of years, but they have been here long enough to definitely establish themselves. They are now recognized as being a part of this city. They have been favored with a fine business and it is only natural that people continue to favor them.

All of these firms have contributed to the progress of Roxboro and Person County. Each one has spent money here. Each one works several people in its place of business. Each is very important.

Roxboro is a growing city. All over the entire city and county one can find new firms that have opened, firms that were not here during the depression, but firms that are here to stay. As you walk over Roxboro it is almost impossible to find a vacant store. Only one or two remain in the city limits and these will probably be rented soon.

Many new buildings have been going up in the last two or three years. Every where a person turned there has been building going on. Roxboro has been growing rapidly. This edition is designed to show something of Roxboro's growth in a business way. It is not a complete coverage. That would require hundreds of pages. It is just a sketch. A few of the many concerns that have been started during the past two or three years are placing an ad in this edition. Your attention is invited to these.

GRANVILLE LIQUOR ELECTION AUGUST 3

Registration Books Will Open July 10—Petition Names Checked By Board

Oxford, June 14.—The Granville County board of elections has formally called an election to be held Tuesday, August 3, to determine whether Granville county voters want a whiskey store.

The board issued a call only after names on several petitions pre-

MEDICAL POLICY CHANGES IN BIRTH CONTROL

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 9—(A. P.)—The birth control policy adopted by the American Medical Association means far more than contraception, as this change in medical policy was veiwed today by some of the physicians who lead this association's medical thought.

It was a recognition of a change in biological thinking, based on many advances in knowledge of the human body, mind and spirit. It involved saving of life and questions of how to have children just as much as how to avoid them.

The doctors who talked today would not permit use of their names.

... Wait On Public Opinion The long delay in recognizing birth control as legitimate and necessary medical practice, they said, was not wholly due to religious objections. There was also conservatism, and especially the wish of some physicians of influence to wait until public opinion had entirely crystallized in favor of birth control.

The first principle adopted in the association's new birth control policy aims to meet conflicting State laws and the fact that court decisions from time to time change the legal status of contraceptive practices.

Legal Rights The association will attempt to inform the doctors of their legal rights and privileges under the law. Their practice in contraception is to be left to their own consciences.

The second paragraph of the new code is aimed at investigation of contraceptives already available. Some of the instruments used have been held indirectly to cause cancer by the irritation they produce.

The purpose of code two is to classify the contraceptives now available, to recommend the use of those medically considered safe, and to apply their use to individual peculiarities.

4-H Canning Contest

The National 4-H Canning Contest offering, county, state, sectional and national prizes is again offered to Club Leaders, and every girl enrolled in a bona fide Club is invited to compete. The contest is conducted by extension agents without fee or obligation of any kind.

Contestants are required to report the number of jars and kinds of food canned, how they were utilized exhibits made and prizes won, demonstration and judging contests entered, assistance given other canning girls and housewives, and awards or recognitions received.

Many girls are able to earn considerable sums through this project besides the valued training they gain.

Each county winner is awarded a handsome gold medal, the state champion receives an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago early in December, and college scholarships totaling $1,000 will be presented the four sectional winners and national champion through the Kerr Glass Corporation, sponsor of the contest for the ninth year.
