Dear Santa,
I wonder how many letters you will get this time. I'm twelve yrs. old. I have two sisters and one brother. All of us have been smart so you would come to see us. I want a fountain pen with white lead and ink, rain cap and coat, some nuts, fruits and candies of all kinds. I will close for this time.

Yours truly,
Adline Duncan

Dear Santa,

I am a little boy five years old. I want a wagon, some nuts, fruits and candies of all kind. I want you to go to see all the children. I have three sisters and not any brothers. My name is James Cleveland Duncan. If I was to see you I would kiss you. I would not do like my oldest sister did. I went to town one Christmas when she was little, Santa took her up, she began to cry. I will close for this time.

With Love,
James C. Duncan

P. S. I have a little sister, Janice Marie. She is 14 mo. old. Don't forget her. Bring mother, daddy, grandmother and sister something nice too.

Bethel Students Give Operetta

"Kidnapping of Santa Claus Presented Last Friday"

The grammar school of Bethel Hill presented a colorful and entertaining production, "The Kidnapping of Santa Claus," on December 17 under the direction of Mrs. Lewis S. Cannon, Miss Katie Lee Johnson, and Miss Louise Stephens.

The vari-colored lighting and costuming together with the singing blended to make the operetta one of the loveliest ever produced at Bethel Hill.

Those taking the lead deserve especial mention for their solos.

They were Wiloree Woody, John Hall, Mary Wiley and Ollie Gentry.

MERRY CHRISTMAS HAPPY NEW YEAR

Amid the jollity of the holiday season, it is good to look back over the old year and take stock—measure our progress, and our contributions to the welfare of mankind. It is good to make plans for a better New Year—more happiness and greater prosperity for our community, state and nation.

As we review the past, we can be grateful that the American people, despite setbacks, are realizing that to hold steadfastly to those principles by which the nation has lived and prospered, is vital to their future welfare and happiness. And we can look ahead with confidence, as we again pledge our allegiance to those principles.

The Norfolk and Western Railway and the Norfolk and Western Family wish for you a good old-fashioned Merry Christmas and a full measure of happiness, health and prosperity in the New Year.
