

SOCIETY

Miss Dorothy Clay
Social Editor

Circle Meets

Missionary Circle No. 5 of the First Baptist Church met with Mrs. Theo Clayton, at the home of Mrs. Teague Kirby, on South Main St. at 7:30 on Monday evening.

A brief business meeting was given, during which plans were discussed for raising money for the new church, and plans were made for the new year.

A delicious salad course was served with coffee.

There were twenty six members present.

Mrs. Adair Hostess

Mrs. W. H. Adair entertained the Entre-Nous Club at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bill Minor on Monday evening.

Several tables were placed in the living-room where the club game of Bingo was played. When the scores were counted prizes were awarded to Mrs. Bill Minor for high and to Miss Lottie Bailey who won the floating prize.

Birthday gifts were presented to Miss Hilda Shoemaker and Miss Bivins Winstead.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Minor and Miss Ola Woody served a salad course with coffee and cakes.

Dinner Party Given

Mrs. F. W. A. Mills entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge Club with a dinner party at the Community House at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The tables were very attractive, being decorated with red carnations and place cards of red hearts.

A delicious three course dinner was served to the twenty members present.

After the dinner the guests were invited into the library where five tables were placed for Bridge.

After several progressions the scores were added and Mrs. S. A. Jones won the club prize and Mrs. S. M. Ford, the visitor's prize.

The guests spent a very enjoyable evening.

Missionary Circle Meets

Missionary Circle No. 2 of the First Baptist Church met with Mrs. Mollie Barrett, the leader at 3:00 Monday afternoon.

An interesting program was given and plans were discussed for the coming year. The members also discussed plans for raising money for the new church.

The home was beautifully decorated with potted plants.

Light refreshments were served.

The circle had a splendid attendance at this meeting.

Circle No. 6 Meets

Circle No. 6 met with Mrs. Al Martin at her home on South Main St. on Monday evening.

A very interesting program was given and plans were made for the coming year.

There were sixteen members present.

The hostess served delicious Angel Food Cake with whipped cream and cherries.

Circle No 4 Meets

Missionary Circle No. 4 of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. W. F. West on Academy St. at 3 o'clock Monday.

The circle had a brief business meeting during which they discussed plans for raising money for the new church.

The home was decorated with potted plants.

The members were served sandwiches and Russian tea.

There were 12 members present.

Circle No. 1 Meets

Missionary Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Wilburn on South Main Street. at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

After a brief business program during which plans were discussed for raising money for the new church, an interesting program was given.

Mrs. Curtis Oakley assisted the hostess in serving fruit punch and wafers to the members.

There were fourteen members present.

Ritchie - Wardlaw

Miss Evelyn Ritchie, of Roxboro, and Mr. James Harris Wardlaw, of Belton, S. C., were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the Presbyterian manse. The vows were spoken before the Reverend T. H. Hamilton.

Mrs. Wardlaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ritchie. She graduated from Roxboro High School in 1936.

Mr. Wardlaw is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wardlaw, of Belton, S. C. He graduated from the Belton High School and completed business training in Greenville, S. C. He formerly held a position as assistant-manager of Roses' 5 and 10c Store here.

The bride was attired in a fur-trimmed beige suit with black accessories.

The bride and groom are making their home with the bride's parents, for the present.

BETHEL CLUBS MET WEDNESDAY

Bethel Hill students participated in the semi-monthly club meetings Wednesday at 11:30 a. m.

The Journalism Club opened with a devotional conducted by Graham Powell. Albana Dunn discussed "Gathering the News." "What is News?" was answered by Delma Davis. Mary Crutchfield told the club about the work of the reporter.

One new member, Elizabeth Allen has joined the club. One visitor, John Walker was present. A committee from the club is working on a traffic regulation program that it plans to present to the student body next Tuesday in chapel.

The Science Club had six members on program. They were Frances Davis, Zelle Woody, Calvin Millam, Bettie Compton, Nerene Walters and Lottie Lee.

The Dramatic Club gave a varied program full of interesting details.

Louise Hall reviewed the latest pictures. Emily Gravely gave "The Battle of Bernheim." Wiloree Clayton, Bill Jo Merritt, Jennie Crutchfield, Sarah Conway, and Martha Wehrenberg participated in the discussions.

The Future Farmers Club met in its chapter room in the agriculture building where Elvin Tuck spoke on "Improvement on Selected Seed Corn" and Lawrence Tingan discussed "The Important Stock on the Farm."

Raymond Lester, C. T. Hall, Jr., and Fred Fox were elected to serve on a committee to work out a form for taking the Future Farmers degree.

Between 1906 and 1912 the United States government helped 13,000 laborers to emigrate from Spain, Portugal, and Russia to Hawaii because of a labor shortage there.

A Message To The People Of This Community

The Firm of Wilburn & Satterfield has been bought by Peebles' Department Store and J. D. Mangum and this concern have now taken over the entire stock with Mr. Mangum as Manager. As you all know Mr. Mangum has lived in Roxboro for a number of years and is known personally by hundreds of people in this locality.

The Big Sale that has been going on will be continued and prices will be cut even more. New merchandise is being added and we hope to be able to maintain a store that the people of Person County will be proud of.

THE ENTIRE STORE WILL BE REMODELED, NEW FIXTURES ADDED AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS MADE.

You are invited to visit this store—Make yourself at home. This is your store and will be conducted as such.

Our merchandise is quality material and our prices will save you money. COME IN TODAY AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

PEEBLES'

DEPARTMENT STORE

Successors to Wilburn & Satterfield

