

Drawing of Proposed Stores to be Constructed in Roxboro

The above sketch shows just how the Chevrolet and Tillman Garage on Main Street will look after the property has been remodeled. This property was recently purchased by O. T. Kirby, C. B. Kirby and D. W. Ledbetter. The Dolly Madison Theatre will be moved across the street to the new building and Ledbetter's will also be in the building. The other stores will be rented.

AN EVELESS EDEN

Enterprise, Canada — The law of chance failed Bert Williams, city reared, when he decided to take up poultry raising in this Ontario town. He bought 150 chicks from neighboring poultrymen, fed them, nurtured them, and kept an eagle-eye out for eggs. He still has his original colony — all of them roosters!

BRIDGE MORE DIFFICULT

New York City — The 65-card deck of five suits recently described in this column as creating a new technique in contract bridge abroad, has driven American playing card manufacturers to day-and-night shifts to meet the demand. The fifth suit is known as "Eagles" and is printed in green ink. In England the suit is called "Crowns." It ranks above Spades and lower than No Trump.
