Neighbors Protested Her Punches

Mrs. Mary Sullivan, 65, of Boston, whose daily workouts with a punching bag in the rear of her home have resulted in court action by a neighbor. Mrs. Sullivan bought the bag when neuritis afflicted her right arm, thinking daily exercise would be good for it.

Smallpox Hits Local Prison Camp; All Hands Vaccinated

NEWS OF THE WEEK

QUAKER CITY FACES CHANGE

Harrisburg, Pa. — Governor Earle has received a report, after 14 months of study, from a commission he appointed to suggest a new form of government for Philadelphia, the state's largest city and long enjoyed the reputation of being "corrupt and contented". To lift the city out of a deficit of $30,000,000 squandered by political incompetence, the report recommends a city manager answerable to a "blue ribbon" council of eleven members, chosen for established honesty and business efficiency. The city is already $33,000,000 beyond its constitutional debt limit, in addition to its current deficit.

CUPID IN LAND-OFFICE RUSH

Elkton, Md.—Aided by blood tests, banns and other deterrents to matrimony in adjoining states this Greta Green in Maryland Free State has been doing a phenomenal business in marriages, which take about 20 minutes each and cost around $6.00, minus all of the red-tape. In August, 1,874 marriages were performed for visitors from New York and New Jersey alone, as compared with 270 happy couples from the same two states in August last year.

BRITISH LABOR PRAISED

Washington, D. C.—In a lengthy survey of British labor relations made by a group of experts named by President Roosevelt, high praise is given the spirit of collective bargaining prevailing between worker and employer in the British Isles. The absence of picketing and the liability for damages against unions sponsoring illegal strikes were stressed by the committee, which was headed by Gerard Swope, President of the General Electric Company.

Negro Stricken by "Most Contagious Disease," Transferred To Raleigh.

Smallpox, most contagious of all diseases, reared its ugly head at the Person County prison camp here last Wednesday when Sam Graham, 25-year-old Negro, was stricken with the disease.

He was immediately transferred to Central Prison in Raleigh as soon as the case was diagnosed by Dr. B. E. Love, local physician. Graham was employed by the Polk Lumber company before being sent to the local prison camp, it is understood.

Dr. A. L. Allen, local health officer, immediately following the diagnosis ordered the entire roster of the prison camp, approximately 110 persons, vaccinated against the disease. He was assisted by Dr. Love and Miss Charlotte Williams, health department nurse.

Graham had never been vaccinated. This case, Dr. Allen described as a "timely warning" for any persons who have not been immunized against the disease.

Commenting upon the wholesale vaccinations, Dr. Allen said, "This is the customary precaution. Whenever a case occurs it is required by law to vaccinate every person exposed, whether he has been vaccinated recently or not. Smallpox vaccination will confer immunity for a variable period which is individual with the person vaccinated. However, this period is usually not less than seven years nor more than 20 years."

"Everyone should be vaccinated for smallpox at least twice or thrice during a lifetime," he said.

A. A. A. Official Replies To Appeal Of S. G. Winstead

Agricultural Chief Says Nothing Can Be Done Before Next Year.

Secretary Henry A. Wallace and the department of agriculture this week refused to intercede in behalf of an earlier opening for the local tobacco market and others of the Old Belt scheduled to open September 27.

In reply to an appeal from S. G. Winstead last week in behalf of the local market, William Collins, chief of the Tobacco Section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, said "the Secretary of Agriculture has no jurisdiction in connection with the opening of the markets in the various belts."

Collins said the only suggestion that occurred to him was "that warehousemen and others in the Old Belt, who are interested in having those markets open earlier, should make their wishes known at the meeting of the United States Tobacco association next year."

Old Belt leaders have attempted for several years to secure this belt's opening on the same day as the Middle Belt but without success. In view of this, local leaders feel the department of agriculture's suggestion comes a trifle late.

Mr. Winstead's letter was supplementary to a petition sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and signed by local business men last week, which was sent to the President of the U. S. Tobacco association along with similar petitions from other towns in the belt. The petitions were accompanied by another petition signed by 30,000 farmers throughout the Old Belt.

A complete text of AAA officials letter to Mr. Winstead follows:

This is in reply to your letter of August 31, addressed to the

SUMPIN' FISHY

Last Tuesday, it rained. In fact, it rained hard. Some people would probably describe it as a cloudburst, but that's beside the point.

After the shower Mrs. Anna Jones, who lives high atop Reams avenue hill, following her usual custom, went out picking around in her garden back of the house only to discover a live fish wiggling between two rows "as big as life and twice as natural."

Now Mrs. Jones doesn't know where the fish came from but it rained mighty hard. Do you suppose.....?

Anyway it probably would be there now if the cat hadn't eaten it up.

Mayor Dawes' Bargain Day Proclamation

I, R. B. Dawes, Mayor of Roxboro, do hereby proclaim Wednesday for several successive weeks as Bargain Day in the City of Roxboro. I hereby heartily endorse this movement of the Chamber of Commerce and urge the people of Roxboro and Person County to take advantage of Bargain Day. I feel sure that in Roxboro you will find splendid bargains, quality merchandise and friendly, capable merchants. This being the case there seems to be no reason why anyone should venture beyond the bounds of Person County for the merchandise that they need.

As Mayor of this city, I hereby welcome you to Roxboro on every day and particularly point out to you the many bargains that may be found on Wednesdays.

Signed,
R. B. DAWES, Mayor.

Everything Is In Readiness For The Times' Cooking School

Along The Way With the Editor

Mrs. E. P. Dunlap of Roxboro, stopped this writer the other day and asked him to start writing about local women in this column. We told Mrs. Dunlap that we had to draw the line there, it's hard enough to get along with the women when you keep your mouth shut, much less when you start talking about them. We will leave it up to Mr. Dunlap, ask him if we are right about this.

The Times is sponsoring a cooking school this week. Naturally the ladies are interested and a few boys around town who expect to marry soon are cordially invited to attend. These boys will probably be henpecked so they might as well start taking lessons in cooking. They are D. D. V. Long, Bill Harris, III, Willie Yancey, Walter Murray and Ivey Featherston.

Henry O'Brian, fire chief to you, has started golf. There ought to be a law "agin" such things as that. He hasn't bought his clubs, but borrows clubs from Thomas Hatchett. Henry thought a "green" was something to eat until three weeks ago and now he talks about "swings," "putter," "fairway," etc. with all the ease of a veteran golfer.

R. D. Bumpass wanted to go to the meeting of the Young Democrats in Durham Friday night. His wife wanted to go to the festival in South Boston. Result was that "R. D." enjoyed the festival very much.

Headley Kynoch says courtship, marriage and battleship. He may have something there.

Melvin Burke, secretary of the Roxboro Chamber of Commerce, has pulled his first big deal. Wednesday Bargain Days are starting this week. Burke almost went crazy trying to get the thing lined up and was about ready to resign when he finished it. He thought "lawing" was hard enough until he started "secretarying." Now he wants to start a community singing meet with "Toad Frog" Woods as master of ceremony. It might be O. K. if Burke doesn't try to sing, we object to that.

Saw N. J. Todd in town last week. He was trying on a new linen suit. Brother Todd must have an eye to the future to be buying a linen in September. The suit fitted every place except the bay window. Mr. Todd may have a farm, but that doesn't mean that he works it.

YDC DELEGATES AT CONVENTION

President S. F. Nicks, Jr. Heads Delegation.

Person County's Young Democratic delegates this week-end attended the State convention held in Durham.

The Person delegation headed by newly-elected President S. F. Nicks, Jr. and Past President E. G. Thompson included Gordon Hunter, Jack Strum, Sam Merritt and Joe Kirby. Several also attended the banquet held Friday night at the Washington Duke hotel, at which Senator Bob Reynolds was the chief "whooper-upper."

Gordon Gray, young Winston-Salem lawyer and publisher, had previously been endorsed by the local Y. D. C. and President Nicks had been instructed to cast Person's two votes for his candidacy.

However, Gray was virtually assured of the election when the two other announced candidates announced their withdrawal from the race.

Meeting Changed

The Mary Hambrick Missionary Society will not meet on Monday, Sept. 12, according to schedule, but will meet on Tuesday, Sept. 20 at 3:30 o'clock in the church. At this time the sixtieth anniversary of the organization will be celebrated. After the program a picnic supper will be served on the rear lawn of the church. Husbands of members are invited.

FORMAL OPENING

Monday morning at 8:40 has been set as the time for the formal opening exercises at the Central Grammar School, Miss Ina Collins, principal, said yesterday. Parents and patrons are cordially invited to attend the formal opening.

GAME WARDEN ISSUES WARNING

Hunters Must Carry Personal Identification As Well As License, Reynolds Says.

Hunters who fail to carry positive identification as to their residence, in addition to their hunting license, may be subject to considerable difficulty in the field this fall, according to John D. Chalk, Commissioner of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Commissioner Chalk said that every attempt will be made during the coming hunting season to catch those individuals who have for years secured their hunting license under false pretense. Every officer in the field has been instructed to ask for positive identity, failing which, steps will be taken to prohibit hunting until proper identity is established.

North Carolina sportsmen do not go hunting or fishing without first equipping themselves with proper licenses but all hunters and fishermen are not sportsmen; it is necessary for game protectors to check licenses closely.

LONG & BRADSHAW HAS NEARLY HALF CENTURY OF SERVICE

In a half page advertisement in today's Times, Long, Bradshaw and Co. mentions the fact that this store has been serving the people of this section for almost half a century.

This store is now entering the fall season with a large stock of dependable merchandise and today's message invites the people to come in and see this stock.

E. E. Bradshaw, the proprietor, urges the people of this county to make this store their own.

Home-Makers To Be Welcomed To Palace At 10 O'clock; Prize List Given.

Lock the doors and come to town!

The Times' Motion Picture Cooking school entitled "Star in My Kitchen" will be the real community attraction for two days, at the Palace Theatre Tuesday and the Dolly Madison Theatre Friday, both shows beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning.

This fascinating and different cooking school is open entirely free to every woman in town, and the Times as well as Roxboro merchants extend this last invitation to join in the home-making lessons and jolly entertainment for at least one day.

The Motion Picture Cooking school will be a practical rally of home-makers to contribute fresh perspective for the "same old job", the monotonous day-in-and-day-out job, yet the most important business in the world. Just as men have their annual conventions, where they listen to lectures from specialists, local women will have their convention to consider home-making problems.

Just as fresh inspiration for the old job is one of the by-products of the familiar cooking school, which presents a lecturer in a model kitchen, so are new ideas and keen incentive born in the film class for home-makers, with its novel approach and modern setting.

No "false-front" camera-beautiful kitchens satisfied these specialists. They insisted on working in complete, compact, modern kitchens, which actually reflect more scientific ingenuity and careful planning than any living room.

Everyday happenings have been dramatized in the plot of "Star in My Kitchen". Behind the sparkling humor and suspense that are so necessary to screen stories was a deliberate plan — an ambitious determination to carry instruction, inspiration, and worthwhile home news to women in every community.

The camera took its time and it took its close-ups, so that every person will have a "large as life, and twice as natural" view of each operation. There will be no "orchestra circle" at this entertainment, since the back row guests of the Times will have an equal chance to peer into the busy mixing bowl, watching the
